Nach Der Ersten Zukunft:

After the First Future Jurek Becker, Robert C. Fuhrmann, 1992      The Wall Jurek Becker, 2014-05-06 Jurek Becker was one of the giants of postwar German literature. The novel for which he is best known, Jacob the Liar, won wide acclaim and was awarded the Heinrich Mann and Charles Veillon Prizes and was made into two movies. It has been called a novel about the martyrdom of Europe's Jews that has never been surpassed. Times Literary Supplement. The Wall is a new brief collection of stories by Becker that have either never been translated into English or been published here in book form before. The title story, The Wall, recounts two boys' risky adventure when they scale the wall of a transit camp to visit the ghetto their families have recently vacated. In The Most Popular Family Story, a favorite anecdote recounted year after year at the gatherings of an extended Jewish family, subtly marks the absences left by the Holocaust. Also included are two stories of Communist East Germany and the wall that divided Berlin, The Suspect and Romeo, as well as a short essay on the Lodz ghetto. The Invisible City. Christine Becker has provided an introduction to the collection. Skyhorse Publishing, as well as our Arcade Yucca and Good Books imprints are proud to publish a broad range of books for readers interested in fiction, novels, novellas, political and medical thrillers, comedy, satire, historical fiction, romance, erotic and love stories, mystery, classic literature, folklore and mythology, literary classics, including Shakespeare, Dumas, Wilde, Cather, and much more. While not every title we publish becomes a New York Times bestseller or a national bestseller, we are committed to books on subjects that are sometimes overlooked and to authors whose work might not otherwise find a home.

With a unique structure and format, an inclusive treatment of the concept of culture and coverage of East, West and post-unification Germany as well as Austria and Switzerland, the Encyclopedia of Contemporary German Culture is the first reference work of its kind. Containing longer overviews of up to 2 000 words as well as shorter factual entries cross-referencing to other relevant articles, useful further reading suggestions and extensive indexing, this highly useable volume provides the scholar, teacher, student or non-specialist with an astonishing breadth and depth of information.

provide English readers of German literature the opportunity to familiarize themselves with both the established canon and newly emerging literatures that reflect the concerns of women and ethnic minorities the Encyclopedia of German Literature includes more than 500 entries on writers individual work and topics essential to an understanding of this rich literary tradition Drawing on the expertise of an international group of experts the essays in the encyclopedia reflect developments of the latest scholarship in German literature culture and history and society In addition to the essays author entries include biographies and works lists and works entries provide information about first editions selected critical editions and English language translations All entries conclude with a list of further readings    Children of the Holocaust Andrea Reiter,2006 Children of the Holocaust contains the papers delivered at a conference to mark Holocaust Remembrance Day 2004 which was held under the auspices of the AHRC Parkes Centre at the University of Southampton The book addresses questions of representation of the Holocaust by and of children both in text and image While the volume opens with a theoretical discussion of how and where to locate the voice of the child in a text the majority of contributions deal with exemplary texts either by single authors or specific groups of survivors The testimonies at the heart of these essays were written in different European languages mainly in German English and Polish The authors offer a variety of perspectives ranging from the literary to the historical and art critical With its wide range of examples and approaches to the theme this volume proposes to be more than a concise introduction to the theme of children of the Holocaust It documents the breadth of issues of this branch of Holocaust studies which is still largely waiting to be discovered    Geschichte der ersten Pflanzung der

Anna Seghers and Kito Lorenc Christa Wolf and Jurek Becker or Irmtraud Morgner and Heiner Müller However the process of retrospect and review also reveals the innovative and independent minded character of the culture of the GDR's later years Several contributors trace the emergence of a strong and distinctive women's writing which increasingly and subversively imposed itself on the hitherto patriarchal literary landscape of the GDR And in the literature of the 1970s and 1980s experimental narrative strategies take on a political role as a counter discourse to a stubbornly inflexible political order
