The Facsimile Edition of the Nag Hammadi Codices James M. Robinson, 1984 The collection of thirteen codices found in upper Egypt near Nag Hammadi in 1946 is one of the major archaeological discoveries of our time Apparently the library of a Gnostic community in late antiquity the codices are a repository of important spiritual materials from throughout the ancient world Hence a thorough analysis of this new material is indispensable for any proper understanding of the history of religions in this period The rich documentation which the codices add to early Coptic text material promises to raise to a new precision the historical analysis of that language This edition presents collotype reproductions in natural size of all folios of the thirteen codices as well as reproductions of the covers and photographs previously taken of fragments that are now lost

The Nag Hammadi Story (2 vols.) James M. Robinson, 2014-06-05 The Nag Hammadi Story is not a history of research in the usual sense of a Forschungsbericht which would report on the massive amount of scholarship that has been devoted to the content of the Nag Hammadi Codices for more than a half century Rather it is a socio historical narration of just what went on during the thirty two years from their discovery late in 1945 via their initial trafficking and then the attempts to monopolize them until finally through the intervention of UNESCO the whole collection of thirteen Codices was published in facsimiles and in English translation both completed late in 1977 Nag Hammadi Codices IX and X Birger A Pearson, 2020-10-26 Preliminary Material Foreword James M Robinson Preface Birger A Pearson Table of Tractates in the Coptic Gnostic Library Birger A Pearson Abbreviations and Short Titles Birger A Pearson Sigla Birger A Pearson Astrological Signs Birger A Pearson Introduction to Codex IX Birger A Pearson Introduction to IX 1 Melchizedek Birger A Pearson and S ren Giversen Introduction to IX 2 The Thought of Norea Birger A Pearson and S ren Giversen Introduction to IX 3 The Testimony of Truth Birger A Pearson and S ren Giversen Codex IX Fragments Birger A Pearson Introduction to Codex X Birger A Pearson Introduction to X 1 Marsanes Birger A Pearson Codex X Fragments Birger A Pearson Indices Birger A Pearson References to Ancient Works Birger A Pearson References to Modern Authors Birger A Pearson

What Happened to the Ancient Library of Alexandria? Mostafa El-Abbadi, Omnia Fathallah, Ismail Serageldin, 2008-02-28 In adopting the theme of What Happened to the Ancient Library of Alexandria this book aims at presenting afresh a highly specialized discussion of primary sources related to the diverse aspects and episodes of that long disputed question The book covers a wide range of topics beginning with an initial presentation of different Ancient Egyptian types of library institutions with a special focus on the later Coptic Nag Hammadi Library It then deals with the troubled times under later Ptolemies and Romans when the Royal Library the Daughter Library and the Mouseion came under a succession of threats Caesar's Alexandrian War in 48 B C and during the tragic developments in the third and fourth centuries which ultimately culminated in the destruction of the Serapeum that housed the Daughter Library A discussion of the intellectual milieu during the fourth and fifth centuries follows as well as the conflicting attitudes within the Church with regard to classical learning An analysis of historical and new archaeological evidence confirms the fact that Alexandria continued to be a city of books and scholarship centuries after the destruction of the Library Finally the late medieval Arab story of the destruction of the Library by order of Caliph Omar is fully considered and refuted through textual analysis of the original sources Contributors include William J Cherf Dimitar Y Dimitrov Maria Dzielska Mostafa A El Abbadi Jean Yves Empereur Fayza M Haikal Georges Leroux Bernard Lewis Grzegorz Majcherek Mounir H Megally Birger A Pearson Lucien X Polastron Qassem Abdou Qassem and Ismail Serageldin

A Story of the Soul's Journey in the Nag Hammadi Library Ulla Tervahauta, 2015-08-19 Authentikos Logos NHC VI 3 also known as Authoritative Teaching is a little studied story of a soul's descent and ascent in the Nag Hammadi library With her book Ulla Tervahauta fills a gap in the scholarship and provide the first monograph length study that has this writing as its primary focus The aim is to find a place and context for Authentikos Logos within early Christianity but Tervahauta also adds new insight into the scholarship of the Nag Hammadi Library and study of early Christianity Contrary to the usual discussion of the Nag Hammadi writings from the viewpoint of Gnostic studies she argues that Authentikos Logos is best approached from the context of Christian traditions of late ancient Egypt between the third and the fifth centuries Tervahauta discusses the story of the soul's journey in light of various Christian and Platonic writings Also she analyses the relationship of Authentikos Logos with the Valentinian Wisdom myth and suggests that no firm evidence connects the writing closely with Valentinian traditions And although a Platonic mind set can be assumed the writing combines motifs in a unique manner For example the four epithets used in the writing the invisible soul the pneumatic soul the material soul and the rational soul are not found thus combined elsewhere Discussion of matter hyle is connected with Christian scriptural allusions and the focus is on ethics and the evilness of matter The body on the other hand is the soul's place of contest and progress The Pauline term pneumatic body 1 Cor 15 44 is used allusively and from a Platonic perspective With this book Ulla Tervahauta makes an important contribution to the study of early Christianity in late ancient Egypt by discussing a writing that shows knowledge and creative combination of literary traditions that circulated in late ancient Egypt Annual Egyptological Bibliography, Volume 26

,1976-12 ANNUAL EGYPTOLOGICAL BIBLIOGRAPHY 1976.,1956 Telling the Christian Story Differently Francis Watson,Sarah Parkhouse,2020-06-25 This volume examines the counter narratives of the core Christian story proposed by texts from Nag Hammadi and elsewhere A noteworthy body of highly respected scholars examine material that is sometimes difficult and often overlooked contributing to the ongoing effort to integrate Nag Hammadi and related literature into the mainstream of New Testament and early Christian studies By retracing the major elements of the Christian story in sequence they are able to discuss how and why each aspect was disputed on inner Christian grounds and to reflect on the different accounts of Christian identity underlying these disputes Together the essays in this book address a central issue towards the end of the second century Irenaeus could claim that the overwhelming majority of Christians throughout the world were agreed on a version of the core Christian story which is still recognisable today Yet as Irenaeus concedes and as the Nag Hammadi texts have confirmed there were many who wished to tell the core Christian story differently Those who criticized and rejected the standard story did so not because they were adherents of another religion Gnosticism but because they were Christians who believed that the standard account was wrong at point after point Ranging from the Gospels of Judas and Mary to Galatians and Ptolemy's Letter to Flora this volume provides a fascinating analysis of how the Christian story as we know it today developed against counter readings from other early Christian traditions A Coptic Dictionary Walter E.

Crum,2005-11-01 The definitive Coptic dictionary Crum's work is the result of more than thirty years of research and collaboration with numerous scholars Originally published in 1939 it immediately became and has remained the definitive dictionary of the Coptic language Each word is given with variant word forms its context in English summary the original or equivalent words in Greek and illustration of its use Indexes of English Greek and Arabic words are also provided The new Foreword by James M Robinson provides the reader with an up to date summary of the current state of Coptic studies

Linguistic Manifestations in the Trimorphic Protennoia and the Thunder: Perfect Mind Tilde Bak Halvgaard,2016-05-02

Both the Thunder Perfect Mind NHC VI 2 and the Trimorphic Protennoia NHC XIII 1 present their readers with goddesses who descend in such auditive terms as sound voice and word In Linguistic Manifestations in the Trimorphic Protennoia and the Thunder Perfect Mind Tilde Bak Halvgaard argues that these presentations reflect a philosophical discussion about the nature of words and names utterances and language as well as the relationship between language and reality inspired especially by Platonic and Stoic dialectics Her analysis of these linguistic manifestations against the background of ancient philosophy of language offers many new insights into the structure of the two texts and the paradoxical sayings of the Thunder Perfect Mind

The Gospel According to Philip Martha Turner, 2020-10-26 Study of the Gospel according to Philip an important gnostic Christian text has been hampered by unresolved questions about the unity genre and sectarian contexts of the work This book argues that terms of self designation use of controversial vocabulary style hermeneutic strategies and theological commitments together present persuasive evidence of derivation from multiple sectarian milieux The document s organizing principles are found to be in accord with the excerpting and collection practices of Late Antiquity The coherence of the text lies in its compiler s distinctive interests and choices not in the uniformity of its materials The persuasive case made by this book will help to advance research on this significant document of early Christianity
