Naga Path Ursula Graham Bower, 1950 About Naga South Asian people of Manipur North Cachar and adjoining areas

The Anthropology of North-East India Tanka Bahadur Subba, G. C. Ghosh, 2003 This book has been written to cater to the needs of undergraduate and postgraduate students of Anthropology and Sociology It takes stock of the work done in the Anthropology of North East India and deals in four sections with various aspects of this question Section I focuses on prehistoric Anthropology section II looks at the colonial context and its effect on policy and perceptions about the North East Section III on Biological Anthropology and section IV on Social Anthropology Too Far from the Path Tamara

Severson, 2024-03-14 A fresh and truthful story about the inner workings of schizophrenia In this memoir Tamara goes deep into the world of madness and shares the experience of prolonged psychosis Coupled with the artwork that she created this story is a great read for people with schizophrenia caregivers and mental health workers Anyone who knows someone who has schizophrenia should read this book While you travel into the depths of psychotic thinking to understand the delusional world of a person with schizophrenia this book keeps you entertained and engaged It is a detailed expression that tells the real life story of slipping into and then out of madness Tamara goes on to explain what it is like to live with schizophrenia and the prejudice that she faces on a day to day basis The discrimination from even people who are close to her is evident and goes to show that fighting stigma around schizophrenia is a never ending battle Tamara is adamant that all people with schizophrenia can recover with the right medication and support Her story is an example of how even in extreme cases schizophrenia can be managed with the right medications and doses It took more than 5 years for Tamara to fully recover from this tragic illness in the end she was in a better place than before the onset of psychosis Unconventional Warfare

Pum Khan Pau, 2025-02-26 The book probes the lesser known history of the Great Wars in the India Myanmar borderland from the perspective of the indigenous people of the area It critically studies how the indigenous hill people saw the Wars as an opportunity to defend their land and free themselves from the bondage of colonial rule The volume provides an in depth analysis of the effectiveness of unconventional warfare during the First and Second World Wars where conventional methods of fighting seemed to be irrelevant in the mountainous Indo Burma frontier and studies the role played by the indigenous hill people who had traditional expertise in jungle warfare An important contribution to indigenous studies this book will be an essential read for scholars and researchers of history Northeast India frontier studies military history insurgency and counterinsurgency colonialism tribal studies and the history of modern Southeast Asia Documents on North-East

India: Nagaland Suresh K. Sharma, 2021 Modern Practices in North East India Lipokmar Dzüvichü, Manjeet Baruah, 2017-11-13 This book brings together essays on North East India from across disciplines to explore new understandings of the colonial and contemporary realities of the region Departing from the usual focus on identity and politics it offers fresh representations from history social anthropology culture literature politics performance and gender

Through the lens of modern practices the essays in this volume engage with diverse issues including state making practices knowledge production and its politics history writing colonialism role of capital institutions changing locations of orality and modernity production and reception of texts performances and literatures social change and memory violence and gender relations along with their wider historical geographical and ideational mappings In the process they illustrate how the specificities of the region can become useful sites to interrogate global phenomena and processes for instance in what ways ideas and practices of modernity played an important role in framing the region and its people Further the volume underlines the complex ways in which the past came to be imagined produced and contested in the region With its blend of interdisciplinary approach analytical models and perspectives this book will be useful to scholars researchers and general readers interested in North East India and those working on history frontiers and borderlands gender cultural studies and literature

The Naga Queen Vicky Thomas,2011-11-30 In 1937 Ursula Bower visited Nagaland at the invitation of a friend and on a dispensary tour encountered the Naga people She was so taken was with their striking dignity tribal pride and unique culture that she arranged to live among them to write an anthropological study But she became more than an observer living alone among them Ursula was integrated into their village life becoming their figurehead when in 1944 the Japanese invaded the jungles of Nagaland from Burma The Nagas turned to her for leadership and with the support of General Slim her Naga guides were armed and trained to patrol and repel the Japanese incursions The Nagas courage and loyalty were duly recognised and after the conflict Ursula with Naga support went on to run a jungle training school for the RAF Later with her husband Tim Betts as Political Officer she worked among the volatile tribes of the remote Apa Tani Valley bordering Tibet Following the Independence of India in 1947 Ursula returned to her highland roots but to her death in 1988 her experiences among the Naga people shaped and directed her life Military Anthropology Montgomery McFate,2018-05-01 A candid reassessment of the role of anthropologists in mediating encounters between Western armies and non Western peoples

The Lhota Nagas James Philip Mills,John Henry Hutton,1922 Joyful Path of Good Fortune Geshe Kelsang Gyatso,2018-07-22 A clear and comprehensive explanation of the entire path to enlightenment We all have the potential for self transformation and a limitless capacity for the growth of good qualities but to fulfil this potential we need to know what to do along every stage of our spiritual journey With this book Geshe Kelsang offers us step by step guidance on the meditation practices that will lead us to lasting inner peace and happiness With extraordinary clarity he presents all Buddha s teachings in the order in which they are to be practised enriching his explanation with stories and illuminating analogies This is a perfect guidebook to the Buddhist path
