Nailed by the Heart Simon Clark, 2002      The Story of a Life J. Breckenridge Ellis, 2022-08-10 The nurse was speaking of little Mattie Myers who lived in the old Kentucky town of Stanford The child was seldom to be seen engaged in those sports natural to children She was grave quiet thoughtful Her one amusement was found in her family of dolls she was always their teacher and they were daily going to school to her For companions she chose those who were much older than herself and she would sit by the hour soberly listening to theological discussion weighing in her infant mind the arguments of learned men Her mother was dead but Mattie could recall her sympathetic touch and tender smile It seemed to her that out of the shadow of death her life had emerged to be clouded by new losses One after the other her two sisters were taken from her Then the brother who was her only intimate companion went to another town to teach school Mattie found herself the only young person in the large house of her wealthy father Of course she received all care her slightest wishes were granted the love of her widowed father was doubly hers because of his bereavements But the little girl was very lonely When the flowers sent forth their perfume on the warm Kentucky breezes she was reminded of three graves and when the sunshine gilded the level pike leading toward Lancaster she felt as if her brother Joe were calling her to come and nestle against his loving breast

The Voice of the Turtle Peter R. Bush, 1997 Cuba's history of political upheaval and diverse ethnic heritage have been a source of inspiration for a remarkable body of literature in the twentieth century however this work has remained largely undiscovered by American readers Now in this rich anthology of Cuban writers the work of such legends as Reinaldo Arenas Guillermo Cabrera Infante and Calvert Casey is juxtaposed with that of a younger generation of writers such as Senel Paz Zo Vald's and Jes's Vega to create a rich portrait of modern Cuban literature The Voice of the Turtle showcases a variety of styles from Cabrera Infante's updated Aesop's fable in the title story to the lush creation myth of Lydia Cabrera's Daddy Turtle and Daddy Tiger from the magic realist The Night the Dead Rose from the Grave by Lino Nov's Calvo to Alfonso Hernandez Cat's tale of war and heroism among the meek I Sent Quinine The writers collected here draw on many styles Cuba's rich storytelling tradition Kafka and Joyce the best of post modern fiction and their stories range from the political to the personal deeply influenced by their embedded homeland or their experiences of exile As diverse and fascinating as Cuba itself The Voice of the Turtle is the definitive anthology of Cuban fiction from this century
