Naked Lonely Hand:

Naked Lonely Hand Jibanananda Das, 2004 The Lone Hand, 1909 Play a Lone Hand Luke Short, 2016-11-01 A desperate man is caught in a range war in Oklahoma cattle country in this tale from a Western Heritage Trustees Award winning author Giff Dixon doesn't remember how he got to the town of Corazon All he knows is that some cowboys found him way off the beaten path in Oklahoma cattle country barely alive and carrying a belly full of buckshot Now he's broke friendless and at the end of his rope Everything changes when out of the blue he's offered a job guiding a government expedition to investigate reports of homesteaders being forced off their land by the all powerful Torreon Cattle Company It seems an easy enough ride until Grady Sebree the iron fisted boss of Torreon approaches Dixon Sebree has a proposition Keep him informed of what the government men are up to and get a prime job after the dust settles But Dixon isn't the kind to betray the men who gave him a chance for redemption And soon enough he finds himself caught in a brutal range war he never wanted and has no choice but to finish A winner of the Levi Strauss Golden Saddleman Award from the Western Writers of America Luke Short was a master of the frontier epic Play a Lone Hand is one of his most dramatic and engrossing tales The Lone Hand: May-October 1909, 1909 Clearing a Space Amit Chaudhuri, 2008 This book brings together many of Chaudhuri's best essays written over the past decade in journals such as the London Review of Books and the Times Literary Supplement Often beginning with the personal Chaudhuri enquires into the nature of the secular in India into the history of such categories as the West the foreign the global and the exotic and into the frequently torn and self divided nature of modern Indian identity Chaudhuri also makes a powerful case for thinking about Indian literature and culture in a way that departs strikingly from the parameters created since the publication of Midnight's Children and the consolidation of postcolonial studies While his mode is broadly oppositional it is also one of constant engagement with the positions he is arguing against INDIAN POETRY IN ENGLISH : CRITICAL ESSAYS ZINIA MITRA, 2016-07-01 Indian poets who wrote in English a small middle class minority were divided from the regional language poets by more than language for long The English poets had a selected readership were known unto themselves in academic circles if they were widely published but were looked down upon with a kind of derision by regional writers However the scenario has changed now From English being spurned as a colonizer's tongue that was nobody's language it has now become everybody's language with English medium schools English movies ads soaps and serials For a generation living in a global village genuine readership and appreciation of English poetry is no longer an encumbrance This book in its second edition continues to educate the students with diverse and thought provoking essays that vary from personal to argumentative to objectively discursive English literature and to those who are genuinely interested in Indian English poetry The Fourteen poets selected in this anthology are Michael Madhusudan Dutt Toru Dutt Rabindranath Tagore Aurobindo Ghosh Sarojini Naidu Jibanananda Das Nissim Ezekiel Jayanta Mahapatra A K Ramanujan Arun Kolatkar Rajagopal Parthasarathy Kamala Das and Dilip Chitre The poets

included are all on the syllabi of major universities in India

Indian Poetry in English ZINIA MITRA, 2012-04-03 Indian poetry in English began with the imitation of English Romantic poets but gradually Indo Anglian poets began to write on Indian themes based on Indian contexts and Indian social scenario Indo Anglian poetry has received world recognition and some of the poets are held in high esteem This anthology containing 35 essays is an attempt to represent the gamut of Indian poetry in English both pre Independence and post Independence from diverse critical perspectives The thirteen poets covered in this anthology include Michael Madhusudan Dutt Toru Dutt Rabindranath Tagore Sarojini Naidu Nissim Ezekiel A K Ramanujan and Kamala Das The essays in the book offer innovative perspectives and touch upon different aspects of Indian poetry in English The tone of the essays varies from personal to argumentative to objectively discursive The book with diverse and thought provoking essays will be highly useful for undergraduate and postgraduate students of English Literature Besides those who are interested to know about Indian Poetry in English will find the book quite illuminating and interesting

The Lone Hand: November 1908-April 1909, 1909

The Postcolonial Unconscious Neil Lazarus, 2011-06-30 The Postcolonial Unconscious is a major attempt to reconstruct the whole field of postcolonial studies In this magisterial and at times polemical study Neil Lazarus argues that the key critical concepts that form the very foundation of the field need to be re assessed and questioned Drawing on a vast range of literary sources Lazarus investigates works and authors from Latin America and the Caribbean Africa and the Arab world South Southeast and East Asia to reconsider them from a postcolonial perspective Alongside this he offers bold new readings of some of the most influential figures in the field Fredric Jameson Edward Said and Frantz Fanon A tour de force of postcolonial studies this book will set the agenda for the future probing how the field has come to develop in the directions it has and why and how it can grow further

Translating Desire Anjana Sharma, 2002 It is a stealthy silence that is challenged in an inspiring volume on sexuality in contemporary Indian culture This anthology is a timely intervention that not only attempts to locate sex as a tangible truth in an Indian context but also inspires a hundred questions regarding hidden contours

The Creature Prasanta Chakravarty, 2021-09-30 The Creature is an invitation to follow the mechanics between power and pain which begets the creature Creatures confront power in and through conjunctures of radical contingency The casual use of power is an exercise in distraction It is an abiding conundrum that those who endure affliction also exert it as a force over other living bodies in equal measure not as acts of vengeance or bad faith but through deeds of forgetful randomness To ensure social indemnity and security creatures exercise force over kindred embodiments through a process of collective mimicry In the bargain creatures begin to disfigure and distort each other The line between mutual slaughter and mutual embrace begins to blur Each transgresses its own soul At other times power is an opaque magisterial and disdainful style of conveyance It reveals itself out of nowhere But the steadfast creature is as resilient as it is vulnerable The more it endures the greater its perdurance Perduring creatures may sometimes gain a second sight forged out of a sense of lyricality love and abdication But is abdication or taking refuge in the wondrous sufficient to release all creatures from the fatal loop of power and pain Or will they have to slowly shed creaturely affliction by a rigorous process of decreation Sifting through the writings of Giambattista Vico Niccol Machiavelli Gabriel Tarde Miguel de Unamuno Jibanananda Das Lev Shestov Raymond Geuss Jean Starobinski Ernst Bloch Simone Weil Simon Critchley Sarah Kane and others this volume explores the creaturely predicament and its possibilities of freedom The five chapters in Book I lay down fundamental questions for the creaturely condition the question of mimicry the relationship between taking initiative and being hounded the bridge between senses and destitution and the vehemence of radical contingency Book II posits the question of skepticism fideism and their connection to resilience and generosity in creatures Book III is entirely devoted to various ways of conceiving the aesthetic through the tragic the epiphanic the catastrophic and through militant material eruptions Book II and III essentially delve into the sites of freedom that lurk within the condition of the creaturely Book IV is constituted of a single chapter on the subject of decreation it grapples with questions of attention anonymity and abdication
