Expressive Arts Education and Therapy Markus Scott-Alexander, 2020-06-29 In Expressive Arts Education and Therapy the reader follows the creation of art making in tandem with the unfolding of sense making A dance theatre lab is the stage for exploration where what was discovered was phenomenologically and collaboratively reflected upon the participatory nature of the creative work pouring into the research methodology Creative Process based Research efficacy is contingent upon the interaction of three poles the creator the product and an experience of the internal external creative process of the creator All three perspectives comprise the dynamics required of this research methodology in order to understand what is occurring in these three distinct and essential elements of the creative process What results is an experience of cohesion that consciously describes this interplay The author outlines his influences that contributed to both the art making and sense making over the seven year research project His work in experimental theatre in New York as an educator with The European Graduate School in Switzerland and his studies with philosopher John de Ruiter in Canada are integrated into the world of research in the field of expressive arts The visceral component of creating clarity is uncovered and articulated This book inspires new ways of thinking about participatory collaborative arts centered research where the skill of exposing the artist researcher's modus operandi for making art and making sense is named in a myriad of ways that call upon the intellect as well as the artist's intuitive sense of what to focus on and its relevance to education therapy and global health

Rigor in Your School Ronald Williamson, Barbara R. Blackburn, 2013-10-23 Raise the level of rigor in your school and dramatically improve student learning with the tools in this book. Each illuminating exercise is tailored to educators looking to spread the word on rigor and beat the obstacles to achieving it schoolwide. Formatted for duplication and repeated use, these tools are perfect for those who currently hold a leadership position who aspire to a leadership role and for those who simply are leaders within their schools or departments. Sample tools include: Assess where you are now; Recognize the right people; Evaluate and adjust curriculum; Design an advocacy plan; Ensure accountability with parents; Use your school's schedule to increase rigor; And more. Apply the courage of principals and the energy of teacher leaders as you work to provide every student with a rigorous education. This toolkit will take you through each step of the way to improved rigor and achievement.

Ask the Pastor Roscoe L. De Chalus M. Min., 2018-02-07 It is my heart's desire that this book will increase the reader's faith in the Lord. It is also my desire for this book to move those who do not believe in the Lord into a faithful relationship with the Lord. Some critical questions have not been answered over the years. This book will get those questions answered with the hopes that people will open their hearts up to accepting the Lord Jesus as their Savior.
