Names We Call Home Autobiography On Racial Identity:

Names We Call Home Becky W. Thompson, Sangeeta Tyagi, 1996 Provides an ontological characterization of texts to complete the discussion begun in Gracia's A Theory of Textuality The Logic and Epistemology 1995 In an argumentative style that avoids some of the extreme views espoused by other contemporary authors he explores the issues raised by the identity of various texts and proposes a view of the identity and function of authors and audiences and of their relations to the texts Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Names We Call Home Becky Thompson, Sangeeta Tyagi, 2013-05-13 Names We Call Home is a ground breaking collection of essays which articulate the dynamics of racial identity in contemporary society The first volume of its kind Names We Call Home offers autobiographical essays poetry and interviews to highlight the historical social and cultural influences that inform racial identity and make possible resistance to myriad forms of injustice Teaching for Diversity and Social Justice Maurianne Adams, Lee Anne Bell, Pat Griffin, 2007-05-11 For nearly a decade Teaching for Diversity and Social Justice has been the definitive sourcebook of theoretical foundations and curricular frameworks for social justice teaching practice This thoroughly revised second edition continues to provide teachers and facilitators with an accessible pedagogical approach to issues of oppression in classrooms Building on the groundswell of interest in social justice education the second edition offers coverage of current issues and controversies while preserving the hands on format and inclusive content of the original Teaching for Diversity and Social Justice presents a well constructed foundation for engaging the complex and often daunting problems of discrimination and inequality in American society This book includes a CD ROM with extensive appendices for participant handouts and facilitator preparation Why Are All the Black Kids Sitting Together in the Cafeteria? Beverly Daniel Tatum, 2017-09-05 The classic New York Times bestselling book on the psychology of racism that shows us how to talk about race in America Walk into any racially mixed high school and you will see Black White and Latino youth clustered in their own groups Is this self segregation a problem to address or a coping strategy How can we get past our reluctance to discuss racial issues Beverly Daniel Tatum a renowned authority on the psychology of racism argues that straight talk about our racial identities is essential if we are serious about communicating across racial and ethnic divides and pursuing antiracism These topics have only become more urgent as the national conversation about race is increasingly acrimonious This fully revised edition is essential reading for anyone seeking to understand dynamics of race and racial inequality in America Singer's Typewriter and Mine Ilan Stavans, 2012-11-01 A cultural critic of extraordinary erudition encyclopedic knowledge and boundless curiosity Ilan Stavans an Ashkenazic Jew who grew up in Mexico negotiates wildly varied topics as effortlessly and deftly as he manages the multiple perspectives of a dual national religious and ethnic identity In Singer's Typewriter and Mine a follow up to The Inveterate Dreamer Nebraska 2001 Stavans interweaves his own experience with that of other Jewish writers and thinkers past and present to explore modern Jewish culture across the boundaries of language and nation

Juxtaposing the personal and the analytical these essays and conversations take up the oeuvres of Isaac Bashevis Singer and Mario Vargas Llosa translation and God's language storytelling as midrash anti-Semitism in Hispanic America Yiddish and Sephardic literatures the connection between humor and terror impostors as cultural agents the creators of the King James Bible and the encounter between Jewish and Latino civilizations to name but a few of Stavans's topics here Funny engaging and provocative this collection continues Stavans's project of opening new vistas in our cross cultural understanding of language literature and life

Moving Beyond Borders Karen Carole Flynn, 2011-01-01 Moving Beyond Borders is the first book length history of Black health care workers in Canada delving into the experiences of thirty five postwar era nurses who were born in Canada or who immigrated from the Caribbean either through Britain or directly to Canada Karen Flynn examines the shaping of these women's stories from their childhoods through to their roles as professionals and community activists Flynn interweaves oral histories with archival sources to show how these women's lives were shaped by their experiences of migration professional training and family life Theoretical analyses from postcolonial gender and diasporic Black Studies serve to highlight the multiple subjectivities operating within these women's lives By presenting a collective biography of identity formation Moving Beyond Borders reveals the extraordinary complexity of Black women's history

Gender, Race, and Ethnicity in the Workplace Margaret Foegen Karsten, 2006-07-30 Despite tremendous strides that have led to increasing numbers of women and minorities entering the workplace and achieving positions of power and influence there is still much ground to be gained Blending theory and practice statistics and analysis this three volume set presents the latest research from the fields of management sociology psychology law and public policy to shed new light on the dynamics of gender and race ethnicity in the workplace The first volume details the corporate paths of women and minorities to date highlighting continuing challenges and gaps Volumes 2 and 3 tackle such complex issues as corporation socialization and how it excludes women and minorities the impact of affirmative action decisions on practice and policy the fine line between office romance and sexual harassment and work life balance These volumes also showcase innovative practices in promoting diversity and leadership development Featuring contributions from such influential authors as Nancy Adler Gail Evans and Gary Powell this set presents a unique collection of perspectives on the dynamics of race ethnicity and gender in the workplace and considers how they both reflect and reinforce the culture at large Since women were first admitted to the Harvard Radcliffe business program in 1959 they have made remarkable progress in assuming leadership and management positions traditionally held by white men more recently African Asian Hispanic and Native American women and men have joined the professional realm in increasing numbers with profound implications for organizations Nevertheless the statistics still tell a discouraging story women make up nearly 50 percent of the workforce but only 16 percent of the corporate officer pool in America's 500 largest companies for every dollar a white man earns a black man earns 76 cents in a recent survey 70 percent of women cited lack of an influential mentor as a key obstacle to attaining business success The leading business experts assembled here consider what is behind these statistics and what can be done to change the culture that creates them Blending theory and practice statistics and analysis this three volume set presents the latest research from the fields of management sociology psychology law and public policy to shed new light on the dynamics of gender and race ethnicity in the workplace The first volume details the corporate paths of women and minorities to date highlighting continuing challenges and gaps Volumes 2 and 3 tackle such complex issues as socialization and how it excludes women and minorities the impact of affirmative action decisions on practice and policy the fine line between office romance and sexual harassment the depth of racial and gender stereotypes work life balance and unwritten codes of power and influence These volumes also showcase innovative practices in promoting diversity and leadership development Featuring contributions from such influential authors as Nancy Adler Gail Evans and Gary Powell this set presents a unique collection of perspectives on the dynamics of race ethnicity and gender in the workplace and considers how they both reflect and reinforce the culture at large

Social Change in Diverse Teaching Contexts Nancy G. Barron, Nancy Maloney Grimm, Sibylle Gruber, 2006 Assumptions based on racial class and ethnic identities can undermine our best intentions as teachers administrators and scholars The misguided strategy of colorblindness and the continuing racial segregation of American cities and schools leave teachers and students with little experience for addressing the touchy subject of racial identity in the classroom This collection pertinent for teacher preparation undergraduate and graduate seminars and reading discussion groups focuses on new and experienced teachers who confront myths who negotiate their own identities as well as identity politics in the classroom and who design new projects use new tools and apply new practices The chapters highlight the need to change how teachers respond to student work manage classroom interactions form collaborative partnerships construct service learning projects and conduct research
