Tsumib v Government of the Republic of Namibia and its Implications for Ancestral Land Claims in Namibia Willem Odendaal, 2024-04-15 In 1954 the Hai om people were evicted from Etosha by the South African controlled South West African Administration In 2015 the Hai om filed the case of Tsumib v Government of the Republic of Namibia in the High Court of Namibia Beggars on our own land unravels the historical and contemporary socio legal complexities that led to the Tsumib case At the core of the case lies the legal question how can the Hai om people approach the Namibian Courts in order to claim compensation for the loss of their ancestral lands Odendaal goes into detail how the Tsumib case materialised under the post independence Namibian constitutional discourse He assesses the Namibian land reform programme and its oversight in dealing with historical land disposessions He inspects Hai om identity and how it was used to strengthen their case He concludes with an examination of Namibia's outdated and restrictive legal framework which ultimately denied the Hai om people their constitutional right to be heard in the Namibian Court While the future of ancestral land claims in Namibia depends on the political will of the Namibian
