U.S. Relations with South Africa: An Annotated Bibliography Y G-M Lulat, 1991-05-16 A comprehensive two volume annotated bibliography of books and monographs journal articles government documents documents of nongovernmental organizations and substantive magazine and newspaper articles published since the late nineteenth century Annotated entries contain a short abstract a table of contents and information on reviews Each volume contains an author and subject index and a periodical is included in Volume Two Topics covered include US Foreign Policy Southern Africa in US South African Relations Nuclear Technology and Other Sectors of Trade and Economic Relations Education Scientific and Cultural Exchanges African Americans and South Africa Divestment Disinvestment and Sanctions Divestment Disinvestment and Sanctions Comparative Studies This two volume work is part of a larger project that included publication of a nearly 700 page book titled United States Relations with South Africa A Critical Overview from the Colonial Period to the Present which is a critical overview of relations between the United States and South Africa going nearly as far back as the very beginning of their inception as permanent European colonial intrusions and it not only gives attention to the importance of contributions from nonofficial actors in shaping official relations but also considers the impact of the geopolitical location of South Africa within southern Africa where the presence of other nations particularly Angola Mozambique Namibia and Zimbabwe looms large Africa Today, 1985 Mission Namibia. Challenges and Opportunities for the Church in the 21st Century Thorsten Prill (ed.), 2012-10-24 Document from the year 2012 in the subject Theology Practical Theology language English abstract This book contains essays by NETS faculty members who bring with them a rich ministry experience in churches and para church organisations in Namibia and other countries Each essay is a sustained reflection on a particular aspect of Christian mission and ministry in Namibia and beyond Thorsten Prill looks at both the challenges and opportunities for the Church in Namibia He argues that para church organisations with their focus on evangelism church planting and theological training have a significant role to play In a second essay he identifies key issues in mission today and challenges churches mission organisations and mission partners to be caught up in a missionary movement with God Basilius Kasera demonstrates that the use of traditional African names for God as representatives of the God of the Bible is problematic as it leads to a distorted understanding of the biblical revelation Such an approach fails to distinguish clearly between the revelation of Yahweh and the idols Africans have always worshipped In a further article Basilius Kasera discusses the dangers of prosperity gospel teaching for the Namibian Church Simon Gillham argues that the models and assumptions behind theological education in Africa have been largely imported from the west Using the biblical metaphor of a tree representing spiritual maturity he explores what roots what fruits and what species of theological education might be most appropriate for the African context Victor Kuligin examines the general state of the Namibian Church in light of the well known statement that faith without deeds is dead He argues that there is a discrepancy between the claim of being a

Christian country and the lifestyle and conduct of many Namibian church members He finds an answer for this disconnect in the second chapter of the New Testament letter of James Achim Rieger believes that local church leadership should be first and foremost trained in the local church given the socio economic conditions in Namibia He shows that the training strategy used by the apostle Paul can be a viable option for the Namibian Church Spencer Tjijenda examines the spiritual condition of the Herero Banderu people before and during the missionary period He argues that the evaluation of pioneer missionary Carl Hugo Hahn was not only true but was also motivated by deep concern and love for this Namibian people group an attitude that is still relevant for God s mission in Namibia today American Reference Books Annual ,1986 1970 issued in 2 vols v 1 General reference social sciences history economics business v 2 Fine arts humanities science and engineering The Statesman's Yearbook 2006 B.
