Name Games Michael Craft, 2001-05 Mark Manning once a prominent journalist at a major daily newspaper in Chicago is now the owner and publisher of the Dumont Daily Register the daily paper in a small Wisconsin city Here the biggest news is the impending city council report on a proposed new adult bookstore zoning law the upcoming election for Sheriff and the upcoming annual exhibition of the Midwest Miniatures Society In a unique coup for the first ever miniatures exhibition in Dumont the king of miniatures Mr Carroll Cantrell has agreed to come and judge the show s main event But the exhibition itself is quickly shoved off the front page of the paper when Cantrell is found murdered in his room To make matters worse Doug Pierce the local sheriff is widely believed to be responsible Pierce a closeted gay man and friend of Mark Manning had been carrying on an affair with Cantrell and was the last person seen leaving his room before the body was discovered As conservative elements in Dumont attempt to exploit the murder and the sheriff's association with the deceased to their own ends Manning with the help of his lover architect Neil Waite his staff and friends starts his own investigation of the murder With Cantrell having led something of a double life with no end of potential enemies and the miniatures world itself being a hot bed of rivalries and closely held resentments the truth begins to feel very elusive indeed As public sentiment begins to swing and time running out for Sheriff Pierce Mark must uncover some of this close knit town s most deeply held secrets if he s to learn the truth in time Names New and Old Edwin Wallace McMullen, 2002 These essays tell the story of geographic literary personal and various other types of names Information on names is offered chronologically from 1391 up to the present time and the hip lit names used in Bret Easton Ellis s Less than Zero There are also technical studies such as the names of drugs in the world of street Spanish and the sound patterns of proper names in the English language The Garden of Reality Roland Faber, 2018-06-20 The Garden of Reality contemplates the relativity of religious truth religious pluralism transreligious discourse postmodern cosmology and multireligious mysticism Its transreligious approach aims at a future multireligious peaceful society in an ecological and cosmic context It proposes that the future of humanity is bound to conviviality with itself and the Earth that the deepest religious motivations of existing together are relative to one another and that transreligious relativity is essential to the conviction of religions that their motivations experiences and conceptualities are meaningful real and true By engaging diverse voices from poststructuralism to Sufism Dzogchen and philosophical Daoism from conceptual frameworks of Christianity and Hinduism to mystical and postmodern cosmology current cosmopolitanism and interreligious and interspiritual discourses but especially understudied contributions of process thought and the Bah religion this book suggests that multireligious conviviality must listen to the universal relevance of a multiplicity of minority voices Its polyphilic pluralism affirms the mutual immanence and co creative nature of religions and spiritualities with the universal in sistence of divine or ultimate reality in the cosmos Embracing a relativistic and evolutionary paradigm in an infinite cosmos of creative becoming religions must cope with events of novelty that disturb and connect transcend and contrast the continuum of their truth claims but must avoid conflict as religious diversity is enveloped by an ever folding landscape of ultimate reality Paternity, Progeny, and Perpetuation Steffan Mathias, 2020-05-14 This book offers a fresh perspective on the importance of progeny and perpetuation of the family line in the Hebrew tradition Steffan Matthias argues that the Hebrew bible depicts failing to protect the transmission of the family line as both a failure in the social order a threat to the afterlife and a failure in masculinity leading to the eradication of the name and memory of the man and the destruction of the household Using the work of Pierre Bourdieu as well as anthropological and gender critical insights Matthias reassess pertinent texts which respond to the threat of men dying without children such as levirate marriage Deut 22 5 10 or the erection of monuments Isa 56 5 8 Themes such as death burial and memorial identity covenant name genealogy property seed and sexuality rather than being treated as separate parts of social or family life are critically assessed in light of each other Matthias instead illustrates how they form part of the same discourse of social reproduction in which the integrity of the family is protected and passed down from father to son in generations of descendants Paternity Progeny and Perpetuation raises profound questions regarding the subtle ways texts that respond to this threat of social annihilation the destruction of the father and his line reinforce social boundaries and construct men as transmitters of identity and women as submissive counterparts Names and Nunavut Valerie Alia, 2007 On the surface naming is simply a way to classify people and their environments The premise of this study is that it is much more a form of social control a political activity a key to identity maintenance and transformation Governments legislate and regulate naming people fight to take keep or change their names A name change can indicate subjugation or liberation depending on the circumstances But it always signifies a change in power relations Since the late 1970s the author has looked at naming and renaming cross culturally and internationally with particular attention to the effects of colonisation and liberation The experience of Inuit in Canada is an example of both Colonisation is only part of the Nunavut experience Contrary to the dire predictions of cultural genocide theorists Inuit culture particularly traditional naming has remained extremely strong and is in the midst of a
