Troy,Ann Marguerite Tartsinis,2023-10-24 An extraordinary look at how the style of Piet Mondrian s abstract paintings was posthumously appropriated by 1960s fashion Pop art and consumer culture Yves Saint Laurent s 1965 Mondrian dresses are among the twentieth century s most celebrated and recognizable fashions but the context of their creation involves much more than meets the eye In Mondrian s Dress Nancy J Troy and Ann Marguerite Tartsinis offer a fresh approach to the coupling of Piet Mondrian s interwar paintings with Saint Laurent s couture designs by exposing the rampant merchandising and commodification that these works experienced in the 1960s The authors situate the consolidation of Saint Laurent s fashion brand alongside the work of such Pop artists as Roy Lichtenstein Andy Warhol and

Tom Wesselmann and show how conventional understandings of Mondrian's avant garde abstractions were transformed by the mass circulation of his signature style Beyond its attention to 1960s fashion Pop art and consumer culture Mondrian's Dress offers critical assessments of Saint Laurent's so called dialogue with art the remarkable art collection that he built with his partner Pierre Berge and the crucial role that photography plays in the marketing of couture The first book length study of its kind Mondrian's Dress is a provocative reevaluation of how art commerce and fashion became fundamentally intertwined in the postwar period The English Flower Garden and Home Grounds William Robinson,1921
