Sea Escape Lynne Griffin, 2010-07-06 Acclaimed novelist and nationally recognized family expert Lynne Griffin returns with Sea Escape an emotional beautifully imagined story inspired by the author's family letters about the ties that bind mothers and daughters Laura Martinez is wedged in the middle place grappling with her busy life as a nurse wife and devoted mom to her two young children when her estranged mother Helen suffers a devastating stroke In a desperate attempt to lure her mother into choosing life Laura goes to Sea Escape the pristine beach home that Helen took refuge in after the death of her beloved husband Joseph There Laura hunts for the legendary love letters her father wrote to her mother when he served as a reporter for the Associated Press during wartime Vietnam Believing the beauty and sway of her father's words will have the power to heal Laura reads the letters bedside to her mother a woman who once spoke the language of fabric of Peony Sky in Jade and Paradise Garden Sage but who can't or won't speak to her now As Laura delves deeper into her tangled family history she becomes increasingly determined to save her mother As each letter reveals a patchwork detail of her parents marriage she discovers a common thread a secret that mother and daughter unknowingly share Weaving back and forth from Laura's story to her mother's beginning in the idyllic 1950s with Helen's love affair with

Joseph through the tumultuous Vietnam War period on to the present Sea Escape takes a gratifying look at what women face in their everyday lives the balancing act of raising capable and happy children and being accomplished and steadfast wives while still being gracious and good daughters It is a story that opens the door to family secrets so gripping you won't be able to put this book down until each is revealed

The Price of Illusion Joan Juliet Buck, 2017-03-07 From Joan Juliet Buck former editor in chief of Paris Vogue comes her dazzling compulsively readable memoir a fabulous account of four decades spent in the creative heart of London New York Los Angeles and Paris chronicling her quest to discover the difference between glitter and gold illusion and reality and what looks like happiness from the thing itself Born into a world of make believe as the daughter of a larger than life film producer Joan Juliet Buck's childhood was a whirlwind of famous faces ever changing home addresses and a fascination with the shiny surfaces of things When Joan became the first and only American woman ever to fill Paris Vogue's coveted position of Editor in Chief a figurehead in the cult of fashion and beauty she had the means to recreate for her aging father now a widower the life he'd enjoyed during his high flying years a splendid illusion of glamorous excess that could not be sustained indefinitely Joan's memoir tells the story of a life lived in the best places at the most interesting times London and New York in the swinging 1960s Rome and Milan in the dangerous 1970s Paris in the heady 1980s and 1990s But when her fantasy life at Vogue came to an end she had to find out who she was after all those years of make believe She chronicles this journey in beautiful and at times heartbreaking prose taking the reader through the wild parties and the fashion the celebrities and creative geniuses as well as love loss and the loneliness of getting everything you thought you wanted and finding it's not what you'd imagined While Joan's story is unique her journey toward self discovery is refreshing and universal
