No More Masterpieces Lucy Bradnock, 2021-01-01 This groundbreaking account of postwar American art traces the profound influence of Antonin Artaud Proposing an original reassessment of art from the 1950s to the 1970s No More Masterpieces reveals how artistic practice in postwar America was profoundly shaped by the work of the rebellious French poet and dramatist Antonin Artaud 1896 1948 A generation of artists mobilized Artaud's countercultural ideas to imagine new forms of representation and to redefine the relationship between artist and audience The book shows how Artaud's radical writings inspired the experimental theatrical work of John Cage Rachel Rosenthal and Allan Kaprow the attack on artistic and social conventions launched by assemblage artists Wallace Berman and Bruce Conner and the feminist work of Carolee Schneemann and Nancy Spero Lucy Bradnock traces the dissemination of Artaud's writings in America and demonstrates how his interest in political and cultural disorder the dangers of authority and the unreliability of representation found fertile ground in the context of the Cold War disillusionment with the ideals of Abstract Expressionism and the early years of identity politics Liberal Democracies at War Andrew Knapp, Hilary Footitt, 2013-09-26 An analysis of how 20th Century wars have been represented and misrepresented to Western publics Addressing the other woman

Warriner,2023-02-23 Between 1966 and 1976 American artist Nancy Spero completed some of her most aggressively political work Made at a time when Spero was a key member of the anti war and feminist arts activism that burgeoned in the New York art world during the period her works demonstrate a violent and bodily rejection of injustice Considering the ways in which anti war and feminist art used emotion as a means to persuade and protest Pain and Politics in Postwar Feminist Art examines the history of this crucial decade in American art politics through close attention to Spero s practice Situating her work amongst the activism that defined the era this book examines the ways in which sensation and emotion became political weapons for a generation of artists seeking to oppose patriarchy and war Exemplary of the way in which artists were using metaphors of sensation and emotion in their work as part of the anti Vietnam war and feminist art movements in the late 1960s and early 1970s Spero s practice acts as a model for representing how politics feels By exploring Spero s political engagement anew this book offer a profound recontextualization of the important contribution that Spero made to Feminist thought politics and art in the US Art After the Bomb Darrell D. Davisson,2008 This book is requisite reading material for any person claiming to be an educated and informed member of the global community Our understanding in the West of the Eastern cultures specially the different cultures involving the Muslims is alarmingly low The book strives to offer a view from the ground a keyhole perspective that offers the readers a close and personal peek into some of the ethical underpinnings and the philosophical guiding parameters that inform the Muslim and the Eastern mind There are over 1 3 billion Muslims in the world It would be a serious intellectual fallacy to assume that they are all homogenous or to be more preposterous assume they are all terrorists It is extremely tragic that it took the Iranian hostage crisis to teach us about Shia Islam and 9 11 to teach us about Wahabi Islam Properly acquired knowledge not just what we learn from the media will allow us to be anticipatory and rational rather than being reactive and emotional For the Muslim reader specially the children and the youth the book strives to offer a deeper understanding of Islam beyond the boundaries of ritual Islam into the wide open space of spiritual and intellectual Islam To inspire them to appreciate and live up to the wonderful legacy of Islam and not to be mired down into some deviant interpretations of people with questionable motives The book is designed to encourage the process of tearing down walls and building bridges We share common dreams aspirations and challenges We share a common globe and a common destiny The author believes that there are no clashes of civilizations just clashes of ignorance and misunderstanding A Companion to Contemporary Art Since 1945 Amelia Jones,2009-02-09 A Companion to
