Darrell D. Davisson

Nancy Spero The War Series 19661970:

Nancy Spero Nancy Spero, Robert Storr, Leon Golub, 2003 Galvanized by the political events of the Vietnam War Nancy Spero dedicated herself for five years to creating a group of gouache paintings on paper titled The War Series In these works Spero not only expressed her rage at the violence and oppression of the war but also introduced many of the images and themes that would continue to find their place in her work and anticipated the post modern aesthetic of fracture dissonance and collage This volume is the first to analyze The War Series in depth and its publication could not unfortunately be more timely "Nancy Spero, Encounters " Joanna S. Walker, 2017-07-05 An original and valuable intervention in the fast growing field of feminist and new art histories Nancy Spero Encounters offers a sophisticated interpretation of the work of a highly original and under represented woman artist The study proposes a new model of comparatism within the field of visual studies mirroring and complementing Spero's dialogic manner of working Basing her analyses on extensive research and multiple face to face interviews with the artist Joanna Walker examines how a selection of the artists and art forms Spero cited offer significant points of comparison with her work Walker presents Spero's encounters with the art of Ana Mendieta with the poetry of the American poet H D with the dance of Isadora Duncan and turning the lens back on Spero as subject with the portraits of the artist by Abe Frajndlich Also included are transcripts of Walker's interviews with the artist and a listing of the books contained in Spero's personal library which informed her practice Not only does this book cast well deserved light on an artist who spent most of her career on the margins of the mainstream it reverses genealogies and revises the traditional remit of the art historical monograph through both its structure and content After the Revolution Eleanor Heartney, Helaine Posner, Nancy Princenthal, Sue Scott, 2013-11-04 Why Have There Been No Great Women Artists asked the prominent art historian Linda Nochlin in a provocative 1971 essay Today her insightful critique serves as a benchmark against which the progress of women artists may be measured In this book four prominent critics and curators describe the impact of women artists on contemporary art since the advent of the feminist movement Conflict, Identity, and Protest in American Art Miguel de Baca, Makeda Best, 2016-02-08 Conflict Identity and Protest in American Art explores the powerful relationship between artistic production and cultures of conflict in the United States Such a theme continues to provoke practitioners and scholars across a range of media and disciplines especially as definitions of war and protest evolve and change in the twenty first century This anthology presents vital discussions of visual works in relationship to national identity the politics and contexts of artistic production and reception and the expressive and political function of art within historical periods defined by wars rebellions and revolutions It sheds new light on the shifting nature of identity and specifically how conflict armed conflict as well as rhetorical conflict inspires new identities to emerge Conflict Identity and Protest in American Art will appeal to historians of American art and architecture American studies cultural studies and material culture Its vibrant discussions of race ethnicity gender and sexuality represent the urgency of these topics in modern and contemporary art history This book is suitable for academics at all levels from undergraduates through to graduate students and faculty researchers as well as artists and non specialised readers

Kill for Peace Matthew Israel, 2013-07-15 The book addresses chronologically the most striking reactions of the art world to the rise of military engagement in Vietnam then in Cambodia Guillaume LeBot Critique d art The Vietnam War 1964 1975 divided American society like no other war of the twentieth century and some of the most memorable American art and art related activism of the last fifty years protested U S involvement At a time when Pop Art Minimalism and Conceptual Art dominated the American art world individual artists and art collectives played a significant role in antiwar protest and inspired subsequent generations of artists This significant story of engagement which has never been covered in a book length survey before is the subject of Kill for Peace Writing for both general and academic audiences Matthew Israel recounts the major moments in the Vietnam War and the antiwar movement and describes artists individual and collective responses to them He discusses major artists such as Leon Golub Edward Kienholz Martha Rosler Peter Saul Nancy Spero and Robert Morris artists groups including the Art Workers Coalition AWC and the Artists Protest Committee APC and iconic works of collective protest art such as AWC s Q And Babies A And Babies and APC s The Artists Tower of Protest Israel also formulates a typology of antiwar engagement identifying and naming artists approaches to protest These approaches range from extra aesthetic actions advertisements strikes walk outs and petitions without a visual aspect to advance memorials which were war memorials purposefully created before the war s end that criticized both the war and the form and content of traditional war memorials Accessible and informative Art Libraries Society of North America

Drawing Investigations Sarah Casey, Gerry Davies, 2020-06-11 Using close visual analysis of drawings artist interviews critical analysis and exegesis Drawing Investigations examines how artists use drawing as an investigative tool to reveal information that would otherwise remain unseen and unnoticed How does drawing add shape to ideas How does the artist accommodate to challenges and restraints of a particular environment To what extent is a drawing complementary and continuous with its subject and where is it disruptive and provocative Casey and Davies address these questions while focusing on artists working collaboratively and the use of drawing in challenging or unexpected environments Drawing Investigations evaluates the emergence of a way of thinking among an otherwise disconnected group of artists by exploring commonalities in the application of analytical drawing to the natural world urban environment social forces and lived experience Examples represent a spectrum of research in international contexts an oceanographic Institute in California the archives of Amsterdam s Rijksmuseum the Antarctic Survey geothermal research in Japan and the Kurdish diaspora in Iraq Issues are situated in the contemporary theory and practice of drawing including relationships to historical precedents By exploring drawing s capacity to capture and describe experience to sharpen visual faculties and to bridge embodied and conceptual knowledge Drawing Investigations offers a fresh critical perspective on contemporary drawing practice

The Cold War Spencer C.

Tucker,2020-10-27 This sweeping reference work covers every aspect of the Cold War from its ignition in the ashes of World War II through the Berlin Wall and the Cuban Missile Crisis to the collapse of the Soviet Union in 1991 The Cold War superpower face off between the Soviet Union and the United States dominated international affairs in the second half of the 20th century and still reverberates around the world today This comprehensive and insightful multivolume set provides authoritative entries on all aspects of this world changing event including wars new military technologies diplomatic initiatives espionage activities important individuals and organizations economic developments societal and cultural events and more This expansive coverage provides readers with the necessary context to understand the many facets of this complex conflict The work begins with a preface and introduction and then offers illuminating introductory essays on the origins and course of the Cold War which are followed by some 1 500 entries on key individuals wars battles weapons systems diplomacy politics economics and art and culture Each entry has cross references and a list of books for further reading The text includes more than 100 key primary source documents a detailed chronology a glossary and a selective bibliography Numerous illustrations and maps are inset throughout to provide additional context to the material

Arts for Change Beverly Naidus,2009-04-01 Arts for Change presents strategies and theory for teaching socially engaged art with an historical and contemporary overview of the field The book features interviews with over thirty maverick artists faculty from colleges and universities in the United States Canada and Great Britain whose pedagogy is drawn from and informs activist arts practice The issues these teaching artists address are provocative and diverse Some came to this work through personal healing from injustice and trauma or by witnessing oppressions that became intolerable Many have taught for decades deeply influenced by social movements of the 1960s and 1970s yet because the work is controversial tenured positions are rare

Art After the Bomb Darrell D. Davisson,2008 This book is requisite reading material for any person claiming to be an educated and informed member of the global community Our understanding in the West of the Eastern cultures specially the different cultures involving the Muslims is alarmingly low The book strives to offer a view from the ground a keyhole perspective that offers the readers a close and personal peek into some of the ethical underpinnings and the philosophical guiding parameters that inform the Muslim and the Eastern mind There are over 1 3 billion Muslims in the world It would be a serious intellectual fallacy to assume that they are all homogenous or to be more preposterous assume they are all terrorists It is extremely tragic that it took the Iranian hostage crisis to teach us about Shia Islam and 9 11 to teach us about Wahabi Islam Properly acquired knowledge not just what we learn from the media will allow us to be anticipatory and rational rather than being reactive and emotional For the Muslim reader specially the children and the youth the book strives to offer a deeper understanding of Islam beyond the boundaries of ritual Islam into the wide open space of spiritual and intellectual Islam To inspire them to appreciate and live up to the wonderful legacy of Islam and not to be mired down into some deviant interpretations of people with questionable motives The book is designed to encourage the process of tearing down walls and building bridges We share common dreams aspirations and challenges We share a common globe and a common destiny The author believes that there are no clashes of civilizations just clashes of ignorance and misunderstanding

Artists Respond Melissa Ho, Thomas Crow, Erica Levin, Mignon Nixon, Martha Rosler, Smithsonian American Art Museum, 2019-04-02 Published in conjunction with the exhibition of the same name on view at the Smithsonian American Art Museum Washington DC March 15 2019 to August 18 2019

Persistent Vestiges M. Catherine de Zegher, 2005 Ranging from drawing watercolor and hand printing in collage and photomontage and mainly dating from the 1960s and 1970s the exhibition includes works on paper by American artists Nancy Spero and Martha Rosler and by Vietnamese artists who fought and or traveled with the North Vietnamese army during the war

Gendered Tal Dekel, 2014-08-11 Feminist art and theoretical aspects of feminism are linked via a unique and reciprocal bond whose influence extends far beyond their own bounds into the social cultural political and economic realms as well as into the personal lives of women and men alike This linkage was forged in different places around the world in the 1960s and 1970s It was especially influential in the United States during a decade which witnessed the emergence and growth of the Women s Liberation Civil Rights LGBT and hippie movements and the protest against the Vietnam War In response to these events large numbers of women artists joined the ranks of contemporary political feminist activists their art directly reflecting the concerns of feminist theory and practice This volume adopts an interdisciplinary approach through which it compares American feminist art and artists with their European counterparts In order to elucidate the geographical divide this book takes as a test case the work of Mary Kelly who while born in the USA produced much of her work while living in Britain and under the influence of European thought Challenging traditional disciplinary boundaries it moves beyond an art history survey to discuss the artistic field in relation to feminist theory and politics revealing the continuing relevance of both areas for the contemporary reader While concentrating upon the second wave of feminism in Europe and the USA it also addresses aspects of the third wave and the current state of the feminist movement particularly in respect to the Israeli art scene

Think with the Senses: Artist profiles Robert Storr, 2007 Curated by the esteemed former MoMA curator Robert Storr the goal of the 52nd International Art Exhibition is to define the new century 110 years after the first Biennale This year s exhibition is a presentation of the art and artists of developing countries viewed in combination with the works of artists from the more established cultures of the world Container

Jewish Art in America Matthew Baigell, 2006-11-16 In this first book length study of Jewish art in America Matthew Baigell explores works from the early settlers of America to the present It concentrates on exploring and examining Jewish subject matter employed by artists as they illustrated aspects of their religious and ethnic heritage and as they responded to major events over the decades including the Great Migration the Great Depression the Holocaust and the founding of the State of Israel as well as the dispersal of Jewish artists around the country and the rise of feminism and spiritualism in the late twentieth century Subjects include genre scenes of the Jewish street religious and spiritual themes derived from the Bible and the Kabbalah and images that record the artists participation in and witnessing of major events in their lifetimes The author also considers the often asked questions Is there a Jewish art and Is there a single Jewish Experience Weatherspoon Art Museum Nancy Doll, Weatherspoon Art Museum, 2011 This catalogue was published to accompany the exhibition Weatherspoon Art Museum 70 Years of Collecting on view from February 5 May 11 2011 In 1941 Gregory D Ivy an artist teacher and the first head of the art department at Women s College founded the Weatherspoon Art Gallery Ivy was motivated by his belief that students should have firsthand experience of the art of their time During the seven decades following his astute vision the Weatherspoon has evolved from a small teaching gallery to a fully accredited museum with a national reputation that still places education at the heart of its mission Ivy also felt the gallery would benefit the community and he needed its support This book begins with a history spun from a collection of stories about the people who so generously heeded the call Over the years the Weatherspoon has been the most fortunate recipient of remarkable support both moral and financial from the university and the greater Greensboro community It has also benefited from a host of dedicated employees and key events that have shaped it into a modern and contemporary art museum with a significant collection Published on the occasion of the Weatherspoon Art Museum s seventieth anniversary year this beautifully designed and illustrated book reproduces one hundred noteworthy works of art from the collection each accompanied by a thoughtful essay The objects included represent each decade from the turn of the twentieth century to the first decade of this century Among those showcased are works by Henri Matisse David Smith Willem de Kooning Alexander Calder Eva Hesse Robert Rauschenberg and Elizabeth Murray Although the majority of the artists in the Weatherspoon s collection are recognized for their long successful careers the inclusion of a few younger artists demonstrates the museum s commitments to promising new voices The first significant publication to focus on the Weatherspoon s collections 70 Years of Collecting guarantees to be an informative and enjoyable read Contributors in this book are K Porter Aichele George Dimock Nancy M Doll Xandra Eden Richard Gantt Carl Goldstein Ann Grimaldi Elaine D Gustafson Heather Holian Elizabeth Perrill and Will South

Artists' Magazines Gwen Allen, 2011 How artists magazines in all their ephemerality materiality and temporary intensity challenged mainstream art criticism and the gallery system Elles@centrepompidou Musée national d'art moderne/Centre de création industrielle (France), Centre Georges Pompidou, 2009 This exhibition brings together a selection of over 500 works by more than 200 women artists from the beginning of the 20th century up to the present day

Encyclopedia of Jewish American Artists Samantha Baskind, 2007 Encyclopedia of Jewish American Artists presents over 80 19th and 20 century Jewish American artists ranging from the critically neglected Theresa Bernstein Ruth Gikow and Jennings Tofel to the well known Eva Hesse Roy Lichtenstein and Larry Rivers The subject matter of some of these artists may surprise readers Adolph Gottlieb designed and supervised the fabrication of a 35 foot wide four story high stained glass facade for a synagogue Louise Nevelson sculpted a Holocaust memorial and Philip Pearlstein painted a version of Moses with the Tablets of the Law early in his career Covering painters sculptors printmakers and photographers as well as artists who engage in newer forms of visual expression such as video conceptual and performance art the book is in part intended to stimulate further scholarship on these artists When appropriate entries reveal the influence of the Jewish American encounter on the artists work along with other factors such as gender and the immigrant experience In many cases the artists own words are employed to flesh out perspectives on their art as well as on their Jewish identity To that end the volume contains excerpts from recent interviews conducted by the author with some of the artists including Judy Chicago Audrey Flack Jack Levine and Sol LeWitt Illustrations accompanying each artist s entry some in color aid this invaluable look at Jewish American art Religion Past & Present ,2007 50 American Artists You Should Know Debra Mancoff,2010-04 Profiles the careers of fifty American artists presented chronologically from colonial limners from the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries to Kara Walker born in 1969 and includes time lines and reproductions of their work
