Mcmillan, 2014-06-06 In this assessment James McMillan moves away from ideologically based representations of the man to focus on his use of power He recognises the Emperor as a highly skilled operator who in the face of innumerable obstacles attempted to conduct an original policy German Diplomatic Relations 1871-1945 William Young, 2006 Examines the continuity of German Foreign Office influence in the formulation of foreign policy under the leadership of Otto von Bismarck 1862 1890 Kaiser William II 1888 1918 the Weimar Republic 1919 1933 and Adolf Hitler 1933 1945 The Formation of the First German Nation-State, 1800-1871 John Breuilly, 1996-11-11 Many accounts of German unification focus on war diplomacy and Bismarck and on the crucial ten years up to 1871 John Breuilly in addition to paying attention to those issues extends the analysis back to 1800 He also takes into account social economic and cultural developments bringing to the reader's attention recent research much of it in German In particular the book argues that one should see unification as just one possible outcome of the German situation the result of rapid shifts in the relative power of different European states and of underlying changes which made nationality a more vital force in politics Farm Policies and Politics in the Truman Years Allen J. Matusow, 1967 In this thorough and lively study Allen Matusow tracing the history of government policy on food and agriculture during the Truman administration relates the process by which the United States government overcame disharmony among its own politicians and farmers to save Europe from famine in the years immediately following World War II The Department of Agriculture which had asserted that food will win the war and write the peace was often reluctant to believe its own slogan Elucidating the policies involved in postwar planning for both foreign trade and domestic farm production Matusow shows how the memorable fear of huge surpluses created by the Depression in the 1930s had affected the attitudes of government officials toward agricultural planning and production from 1945 to 1952 Interpreting the origins and defeat of the Brannan Plan the author finds remnants of that policy evident in the current adoption of production payments Farm Policies and Politics in the Truman Years offers new insight into the creative agricultural policy which emerged from hesitant beginnings in Truman's second term An Age of Neutrals Maartje Abbenhuis, Maartje M. Abbenhuis, 2014-06-12 outside the continent Book Jacket The Great Powers and the European States System 1814-1914 Roy Bridge, Roger Bullen, 2014-01-14 This book illuminates in the form of a clear well paced and student friendly analytical narrative the functioning of the European states system in its heyday the crucial century between the defeat of Napoleon in 1814 and the outbreak of the First World War just one hundred years later In this substantially revised and expanded version of the text the author has included the results of the latest research a body of additional information and a number of carefully designed maps that will make the subject even more accessible to readers Napoleon 3 and the German Crisis, 1865-1866 E. A. Pottinger, 1966 The Election of 1827 in France Sherman

Kent, 1975 Kent examines the structure of Restoration elections and the politics of the later Bourbon monarchy why King Charles X and Prime Minister de Villele called the 1827 general election reasons for their defeat election of a chamber of deputies to sustain the reactionary leanings of the king and efforts of both left and extreme right opposition
