The Conquest of Ruins Julia Hell, 2019-03-19 The Roman Empire has been a source of inspiration and a model for imitation for Western empires practically since the moment Rome fell Yet as Julia Hell shows in The Conquest of Ruins what has had the strongest grip on aspiring imperial imaginations isn't that empire's glory but its fall and the haunting monuments left in its wake Hell examines centuries of European empire building from Charles V in the sixteenth century and Napoleon's campaigns of the late seventeenth and early eighteenth centuries to the atrocities of Mussolini and the Third Reich in the 1930s and 40s and sees a similar fascination with recreating the Roman past in the contemporary image In every case particularly that of the Nazi regime the ruins of Rome seem to represent a mystery to be solved how could an empire so powerful be brought so low Hell argues that this fascination with the ruins of greatness expresses a need on the part of would-be conquerors to find something to ward off a similar demise for their particular empire

Metaphysical Africa Michael Muhammad Knight, 2021-11-30 The Ansaru Allah Community also known as the Nubian Islamic Hebrews AAC NIH and later the Nuwaubians is a deeply significant and controversial African American Muslim movement Founded in Brooklyn in the 1960s it spread through the prolific production and dissemination of literature and lecture tapes and became famous for continuously reinventing its belief system In this book Michael Muhammad Knight studies the development of AAC NIH discourse over a period of thirty years tracing a surprising consistency behind a facade of serial reinvention It is popularly believed that the AAC NIH community abandoned Islam for Black Israelite religion UFO religion and Egyptosophy However Knight sees coherence in AAC NIH media explaining how in reality the community taught that the Prophet Muhammad was a Hebrew who adhered to Israelite law Muhammad's heavenly ascension took place on a spaceship and Abraham enlisted the help of a pharaonic regime to genetically engineer pigs as food for white people Against narratives that treat the AAC NIH community as a postmodernist deconstruction of religious categories Knight demonstrates that AAC NIH discourse is most productively framed within a broader African American metaphysical history in which boundaries between traditions remain quite permeable Unexpected and engrossing Metaphysical Africa brings to light points of intersection between communities and traditions often regarded as separate and distinct In doing so it helps move the field of religious studies beyond conventional categories of orthodoxy and heterodoxy challenging assumptions that inform not only the study of this particular religious community but also the field at large
