

MALE SUBJECTIVITY AND POETIC FORM IN “NEW AMERICAN” POETRY

Andrew Mossin

Where you are he or I am he, the trouble of an Eros shakes the horloc-old in which we work to contain our feelings in our extending it into time and space. The nearness of this shaking — it is our own actual city built as it is high on the ground of a history written in earthquake — nakes for an almost womanish subtleness in order we are fierce to keep. As if in all that play between Eros and Apollo, that comedy of hefts and infantile tocephosis and eductions in which poetry arose a drama of recognitions and the familiar of recognitions took place. ✨
