The Temporal Mechanics of the Fourth Gospel Douglas Estes, 2008-01-01 By redefining narrative temporality in light of modern physics this book advances a unique and innovative approach to the deep seated temporalities within the Gospel of John and challenges the implicit assumptions of textual brokenness that run throughout Johannine scholarship

Strategies of Reflexivisation and the Meaning of Predicates Andreas Frühwirth, 2003 Reflexive situations play a vital role in people's lives and are consequently often encoded by specific grammatical devices Many languages have more than one such strategy of reflexivisation at their disposal The present study provides substantial evidence for its major claim that the preference for a particular strategy is motivated by that meaning component of the predicate which may be called directedness A large number of data from English German and French are analysed contrastively and in great detail The relevance of predicate directedness is also largely confirmed by data from related areas of reflexivity Two implicational hierarchies emerge a scale of directedness and a hierarchy among German French and English regarding the weight of preferred reflexive strategies

Tell Us in Plain Words Sylvia Beeretz, 1998 "Sturdy Black Bridges" on the American Stage Susanna A. Bösch, 1996

Mirror Images Klára Hůrková, 2000 The early plays by Václav Havel and Tom Stoppard show a number of important parallels In the present study six plays by Havel and Stoppard are regarded as works which satirize in different ways the totalitarian system The comparison shows that the treatment of the political themes and the dramatic devices the two playwrights use can be described as mirror images
