How Literary Worlds Are Shaped Bo Pettersson, 2016-09-12 Literary studies still lack an extensive comparative analysis of different kinds of literature including ancient and non Western How Literary Worlds Are Shaped A Comparative Poetics of Literary Imagination aims to provide such a study Literature it claims is based on individual and shared human imagination which creates literary worlds that blend the real and the fantastic mimesis and genre often modulated by different kinds of unreliability The main building blocks of literary worlds are their oral visual and written modes and three themes challenge perception and relation They are blended and inflected in different ways by combinations of narratives and figures indirection thwarted aspirations meta usages hypothetical action as well as hierarchies and blends of genres and text types Moreover literary worlds are not only constructed by humans but also shape their lives and reinforce their sense of wonder Finally ten reasons are given in order to show how this comparative view can be of use in literary studies In sum How Literary Worlds Are Shaped is the first study to present a wide ranging and detailed comparative account of the makings of literary worlds

The Bloomsbury Handbook to Toni Morrison Kelly Reames, Linda Wagner-Martin, 2022-12-15 The most substantial collection of critical essays on Morrison to appear since her death in mid 2019 this book contains previously unpublished essays which both acknowledge the universal significance of her writing even as they map new directions Essayists include pre eminent Morrison scholars as well as scholars who work in cultural criticism African American letters American modernism and women s writing The book includes work on Morrison as a public intellectual work which places Morrison s writing within today s currents of contemporary fiction work which draws together Morrison s trilogy of Beloved Jazz and Paradise alongside Dos Passos USA trilogy work which links Morrison to such Black Atlantic artists as Lubaina Himid and others as well as work which offers a reading of influence that goes both directions between Morrison and Faulkner Another cluster of essays treats seldom discussed works by Morrison including an essay on Morrison as writer of children s books and as speaker for children s education In addition a Teaching Morrison section is designed to help teachers and critics who teach Morrison in undergraduate classes The Bloomsbury Handbook to Toni Morrison is wide ranging provocative and satisfying a fitting tribute to one of the greatest American novelists

Landscapes and Environments of the Middle Ages Michael Bintley, Kate Franklin, 2023-08-14 This book is a comprehensive introduction to the landscapes of the Middle Ages within and beyond Europe paying close attention to the relationship between real and imagined landscapes and the ways that medieval people made and inhabited their world Rather than studying nature in the Middle Ages the book instead examines the spaces that people constructed through soil stone and song water and wasteland plants and animals and timber textiles and texts which in turn made up the medieval world Likewise the text emphasises a definition of environment that focuses on living with inviting readers to think about the more than human worlds that medieval people depended on cared for constructed and damaged Bringing together a wide range of primary source material including evidence from texts material culture and visual arts the book reflects the diversity of landscapes and human responses to them throughout the course of this period and considers the role that these medieval worlds have played in shaping the modern both physically and culturally Landscapes and Environments of the Middle Ages is an excellent resource for both undergraduate and postgraduate students in medieval studies and history offering interdisciplinary transhistorical and transnational insights into this period of immense change and innovation

Unruly Narrative Samira Spatzek, 2022-09-06 This study deals with the formative powers of modern liberal ideas of private property The liberal subject emerged with the formations of European liberalism

Atlantic slavery and settler colonial expansion in the New World Toni Morrison's A Mercy is thus identified as a key literary text that generates a fundamental critique of the connections between self making and private property at its 17th century scene Narrative, 2001 Using Narrative Inquiry for Educational Research in the Asia Pacific Sheila Trahar, Wai Ming Yu, 2015-04-10 Narrative inquiry is being used more widely in the UK the USA Canada Australia New Zealand and Northern European countries to conduct research across a range of disciplines It is gaining popularity in Hong Kong Macao and Mainland China but research in these contexts continues to be dominated by quantitative and more traditional qualitative approaches Narrative inquirers in these areas can therefore find it problematic to have the value of their work acknowledged This book demonstrates creatively accessibly and rigorously the ways in which narrative inquiry as a methodological approach already more firmly established in Australia and New Zealand is gaining a foothold in other parts of the Asia Pacific region Contributors to the book write about their use of narrative inquiry in for example the Confucian heritage cultures CHC of Hong Kong Mainland China Singapore Macao and the Anglo Celtic cultures of Australia and New Zealand Chapters in the book include Creative Non Fiction Across Cultures in Asia Pacific Contexts Riding the Wave of Education Reform Using a Reflecting Team to Explore the Professional Identities of School Counsellors in Hong Kong Is the Silent Mode On Researching Teachers' Voices in Macao through Narrative Research Narrative Inquiry and the Exploration of Culture for Improving Teacher Education This book will appeal to researchers across all sectors of education in particular those who are exploring the use of qualitative research methods in their context Those interested in comparative education and cross cultural studies will also find this book valuable Landscape and Race in the United States Richard Schein, 2012-11-12 Landscape and Race in the United States is the definitive volume on racialized landscapes in the United States Edited by Richard Schein each essay is grounded in a particular location but all of the essays are informed by the theoretical vision that the cultural landscapes of America are infused with race and America's racial divide While featuring the black white divide the book also investigates other social landscapes including Chinatowns Latino landscapes in the Southwest and white suburban landscapes The essays are accessible and readable providing historical and contemporary coverage Mapping the Pāsupata Landscape Elizabeth A. Cecil, 2020-03-09 In Mapping the P upata Landscape Narrative Place and the aiva Imaginary in Early Medieval North India Elizabeth A Cecil explores the sacred geography of the earliest community of iva devotees called the P upatas This book brings the narrative cartography of the Skandapur a into conversation with physical landscapes inscriptions monuments and icons in order to examine the ways in which P upatas were emplaced in regional landscapes and to emphasize the use of material culture as media through which notions of belonging and identity were expressed By exploring the ties between the formation of early P upata communities and the locales in which they were embedded this study reflects critically upon the ways in which community building was coincident with place making in Early Medieval India Challenging Realities: Magic Realism in Contemporary American Women's Fiction M. Philanthropy in Toni Morrison's Oeuvre Rico Hollmach,2018-11-07 This book examines Toni Morrison s highly influential works through the lens of philanthropy The point of departure of this endeavor is the keen observation that philanthropy has always played a leading role in US discourses about the nation itself While doing so time and again philanthropy has also been used as a means of social stratification especially for so called social minorities such as the African American community whose historical experience within the United States is at the very heart of Morrison s novels This book pursues the goal of a twofold understanding on the one hand through offering a rather innovative access to Morrison s works the project allows for new insights into one of today s most influential authors On the other hand this book explores the productivity of the concept of philanthropy for literary and cultural studies a concept hitherto largely neglected by scholars in both academic fields The Layered Landscape of Higher Education Margaret Kumar,Supriya

Pattanayak,Nish Belford,2024-08-02 This edited collection interrogates notions of curriculum inclusivity diversity and cultures of learning in higher education from a variety of cultural backgrounds and educational perspectives Bringing together an international selection of contributors from a range of disciplines this book presents different avenues for rethinking the foundational base of cultures of learning while emphasising the importance of interculturality The crux of the book lies in the fact that the contributors living through complex cultures speak write from their own experiences of seeing knowing and doing Through insights presented by the authors the book promotes a broadened and deeper understanding of teaching and learning across diverse fields including alternative knowledge creative arts education technology STEM study skills and environmental sustainability Arguing for the need to review curriculum issues and policies at both an institutional and national level it highlights the importance of creating collaborative spaces for constructing new and alternative scholarship and methods within higher education Supported by case studies and examples of teaching practice the text reveals the current state of educational and cultural changes and challenges for students and educators in higher education while looking towards the future This book is a requisite text for academics researchers policymakers support staff and postgraduate students in higher education

Toni Morrison Adrienne Lanier Seward, Justine Tally, 2014-08-12 Toni Morrison Memory and Meaning boasts essays by well known international scholars focusing on the author's literary production and including her very latest works the theatrical production Desdemona and her tenth and latest novel Home These original contributions are among the first scholarly analyses of these latest additions to her oeuvre and make the volume a valuable addition to potential readers and teachers eager to understand the position of Desdemona and Home within the wider scope of Morrison's career Indeed in Home we find a reworking of many of the tropes and themes that run throughout Morrison's fiction prompting the editors to organize the essays as they relate to themes prevalent in Home In many ways Morrison has actually initiated paradigm shifts that permeate the essays They consistently reflect in approach and interpretation the revolutionary change in the study of American literature represented by Morrison's focus on the interior lives of enslaved Africans This collection assumes black subjectivity rather than argues for it in order to reread and revise the horror of slavery and its consequences into our time The analyses presented in this volume also attest to the broad range of interdisciplinary specializations and interests in novels that have now become classics in world literature The essays are divided into five sections each entitled with a direct quotation from Home and framed by two poems Rita Dove's The Buckeye and Sonia Sanchez's Aaayeee Babo Aaayeee Babo Aaayeee Babo

Narrative Hospitality in Late Victorian Fiction

Rachel Hollander, 2013 Bringing together poststructuralist ethical theory with late Victorian debates about the morality of literature this book reconsiders the ways in which novels engender an ethical orientation or response in their readers explaining how the intersections of nation family and form in the late realist English novel produce a new ethics of hospitality Hollander reads texts that both portray and enact a unique ethical orientation of welcoming the other a narrative hospitality that combines the Victorians' commitment to engaging with the real world with a more modern awareness of difference and the limits of knowledge While classic nineteenth century realism rests on a sympathy based model of moral relations novels by authors such as George Eliot Thomas Hardy and Olive Schreiner present instead an ethical recognition of the distance between self and other Opening themselves to the other in their very structure and narrative form the visited texts both represent and theorize the ethics of hospitality anticipating twentieth century philosophy's recognition of the limits of sympathy As colonial conflicts nationalist anxiety and the intensification of the woman question became dominant cultural concerns in the 1870s and 80s the problem of self and other known and unknown began to saturate and define the representation of home in the English novel This book argues that in the wake of an erosion of confidence in the ability to understand that which is unlike the self a moral code founded on sympathy gave way to an ethics of hospitality in which the concept of home shifts to acknowledge the permeability and vulnerability of not only domestic but also national spaces Concluding with Virginia Woolf's reexamination of the novel's potential to educate the reader in negotiating relations of alterity in a more fully modernist moment Hollanders suggest that the late Victorian novel embodies a unique and previously unrecognized ethical mode between Victorian realism and a post World War I ethics of modernist form
