Narrative Preaching Stories From The Pulpit:

Narrative Preaching David P. Mulder, 1996 Here at last is a book on narrative preaching that practices the method it preaches not only supplying a variety of excellent narrative sermons to demonstrate the technique but also employing the story method even in introducing the subject

The Story of Narrative Preaching Mike Graves, 2015-03-02 Forty years ago the one thing that could be said about sermons was they were biblical Unfortunately they were sometimes tedious too Narrative preaching aimed to fix that advocating for a dynamic experience of the text over against a static lecture Preaching could be like the parables of Jesus intriguing and compelling The Story of Narrative Preaching is the story of seven students who are enrolled in Professor Freeman's preaching course Once a new trend narrative preaching is now older than most of them As Professor Freeman notes two things went wrong with narrative styles over time the church became biblically and theologically illiterate and the promised stress on experience didn't always measure up to the weight of the gospel Readers are invited to sit in on the class to reflect on the expository nature of preaching and to experience the stories of some modern storytellers Flannery O'Connor Alice Walker and others to see what they might teach us about narratives of depth In the end we discover what may be the most important word in preaching

The Old, Old Story Joe Cothen, 2003 Encouragement guidance and instruction on one of the most interesting forms of proclamation

Preaching from Inside the Story Jeffrey W. Frymire, 2022-06-02 Preaching from Inside the Story is a book that seeks to carve out an understanding of narrative preaching in an age where there is little agreement about its nature and practice Capitalizing on the works of Craddock and Lowry it seeks to find an expanded palette upon which the preacher may engage the larger canvas of narrative preaching This book will engage the mind by introducing neuroscientific understandings of creativity build upon the foundations of the philosophy of stories by engaging Aristotle's foundational understanding of narrative and renew the Lowry Loop by expanding this seminal work and how it should be understood in our current culture Preaching from Inside the Story breaks new ground by encouraging preachers to move inside stories and tell them from the inside out providing a positive effect thereby affording non narrative preachers to connect with storytelling principles Ultimately it is filled with examples of how to do narrative in a very practical way However in showing these practical examples the reader is involved in a deep analysis of those narrative sermons and how they fit into an overall narrative understanding of preaching In the final analysis it invites the reader to take a fresh journey into narrative preaching

What's the Shape of Narrative Preaching? Mike Graves, 2012 They are there after an urgent need a moment of desperation Like Ellen Cardwell's telling of a highway angel who helped Ellen and her husband resume their trip after car trouble on California's desolate Highway 1 Or Delores Topliff's memory from her childhood when on the brink of starvation an angel on a bicycle dropped off bags of groceries These stories will challenge and reward your faith in God a God Who tells us to entertain strangers and possibly Heavenly Company Contained within this book is an exclusive collection of real life encounters with God's angels and mysterious helpful strangers Best selling author Cecil Murphey coauthor of 90 Minutes in Heaven and more than one hundred other books and his cowriter Twila Belk masterfully bring together brand new reports from all over the world that share one thing in common the way in which God uses messengers to touch our lives Filled with hundreds of pages of stories that will excite your spirit and touch your heart you ll travel from Africa to Texas to Russia and back again Curl up with this powerful book and read amazing true accounts of individuals who have encountered angels both seen and unseen Lament-Driven Preaching

Eliana Ah-Rum Ku,2024-03-04 This book challenges Christian communities to engage in lament a mode of existence characterized by impassioned expression witnessing and personal or social protest in the face of evil and injustice reflecting a profound yearning for God s saving presence Divine lament responds to and expresses solidarity with human suffering unveiling multiple facets of God s image and demonstrating a profound sense of divine compassion Drawing on the Book of Lamentations Korean concepts related to suffering han and hanpuri the Paschal Triduum narratives and recent homiletic discourses on suffering the author investigates how complex issues related to grief and hope can be addressed in preaching without diminishing the harsh reality of affliction Designed to assist preachers this book encourages a more intentional approach to addressing suffering specifically by advocating for lament as a transitional space between affliction and hope Furthermore readers are invited to contemplate the significance of the church which within a world in decline embodies the body of Christ manifesting both the demise and resurrection of God Handbook of Contemporary Preaching Dr. Michael Duduit,1993-03-01 Contributors included Calvin Miller Joel Gregory Stuart Briscoe James Cox Elizabeth Achtemeier Thomas Long James Earl Massey and many more Claiming the Call to Preach Donna Giver-Johnston,2021-05-25 Claiming the Call to Preach critically examines the dominant historical narrative that overtly or covertly has exercised its power to keep women from preaching Donna Giver Johnston here recovers the histories of four notable female preaching pioneers who affected change in the religious landscape of nineteenth century America Jarena Lee Frances Willard Louisa Woosley and Florence Spearing Randolph These women diverse in religion race class and culture each told their story of call in distinctive ways that articulated strong and effective rhetorical arguments for ecclesiastical sanction to give them a place in the pulpit

Homiletics Wilfried Engemann,2018-11-19 In a dialogue with all of the theological disciplines and also with closely related human and philosophical sciences this standard work sets out criteria for a contemporary approach to preaching The assumptions arguments models perspectives and methods for analyzing the homiletic process are presented in an understandable form Figures and practical guidelines offer helpful illustrations This comprehensive and engaging format makes this volume a supportive textbook a reliable reference work and a stimulating aid for preaching all in one The Integrity of Biblical Narrative Mark Ellingsen,2002-06-06 This is one of those rare books that effectively puts theology into practice Ellingsen provides a remarkably comprehensive survey of recent approaches to biblical narrative and shows that not all approaches are compatible Theological integrity requires that they be used discriminatingly Then in the greater part of the book he explains the homiletical implications As befits an accomplished theologian who is also a preacher he gives apt advice and excellent examples This is also the best book written on narrative theology and preaching George Lindbeck Yale University In this excellent book about biblical narrative preaching Mark Ellingsen has brought together the expertise of the systematician who has one foot in academics and the experience of the parish pastor who has the other foot in the pulpit every week As a systematician he criticizes and corrects the contemporary trend toward developing and preaching story sermons offering a theology of realistic narrative sermons in their place He also functions as a homiletician explaining his system of preparing biblical narrative sermons and caps the entire effort with illustrations from his own homiletical endeavors This insightful work should provoke discussion among biblical and systematic theologians and at the same time prove profitable to pastors seeking to preach the gospel story in interesting convincing and theologically valid sermons
