Stories of Our Lives: Everyday Narrative Therapy to Draw Inspiration and Transform Experience David Denborough, 2014-01-06 Our lives and their pathways are not fixed in stone instead they are shaped by story If we tell stories that emphasize only desolation then we become weaker If we tell stories in ways that make us stronger we can soothe our losses and erase sorrows Learning how to re-envision the stories we tell about ourselves can make an enormous difference in the ways we live our lives Drawing on wisdom from the field of narrative therapy this book will help people rewrite and retell the stories of their lives reclaiming and celebrating experiences in the face of specific challenges such as trauma abuse personal failure grief and aging Readers are introduced to key ideas of narrative practice like externalizing problems the person is not the problem the problem is the problem and the concept of remembering one's life Easy to understand examples and exercises help readers make these techniques their own leading them on a path to reclaim their past and re envision their future Publisher s description Counselling and Psychotherapy with Older People in Care Felicity

Chapman,2017-12-14 The global population is ageing rapidly yet there is a shortage of skilled professionals able to support the wellbeing of older people in care Older people can be more vulnerable to mental health issues such as loneliness anxiety grief loss and cognitive changes and need therapeutic support that addresses their specific needs and conditions This supportive guide for psychotherapists counsellors and other professionals working with older people addresses the growing demand for mental health services for older adults It covers a range of issues that arise within this demographic including residential living the referral process assessment and engagement and attitudes towards ageing while contextualising these issues within larger social and political frameworks The author describes specific interventions such as Narrative Therapy Reminiscence Therapy Acceptance and Commitment Therapy and Cognitive Behavioural Therapy with practical case studies woven in throughout the book Power, Resistance and Liberation in Therapy with Survivors of Trauma Taiwo

Afuape,2012-08-06 This book offers reflections on how liberation might be experienced by clients as a result of the therapeutic relationship It explores how power and resistance might be most effectively and ethically understood and utilised in clinical practice with survivors of trauma Power Resistance and Liberation in Therapy with Survivors of Trauma draws together narrative therapy Coordinated Management of Meaning CMM and liberation psychology approaches It critically reviews each approach and demonstrates what each contributes to the other as well as how to draw them together in a coherent way The book presents an original take on CMM through the lenses of power and resistance a new way of thinking about resistance in life and therapy using the metaphor of creativity numerous case examples to support strong theory practice links Through the exploration of power resistance and liberation in therapy this book presents innovative ways of conceptualising these issues As such it will be of interest to anyone in the mental health fields of therapy counselling social work or critical psychology regardless of their preferred model It will also appeal to those interested in a socio political contextual analysis of complex human experience
