Narrative Taste And Social Perspectives The Matter Of Quality:

Narrative Taste and Social Perspectives George H. Szanto, 1987 Narrative Taste and Social Perspectives George H. Szanto, 1987-06-18 Tragic Narrative Andreas Markantonatos, 2012-10-24 This study of Sophocles Oedipus at Colonus demonstrates the applicability of narrative models to drama It presents a major contribution not only to Sophoclean criticism but to dramatic criticism as a whole For the first time the methods of contemporary narrative theory are thoroughly applied to the text of a single major play Sophocles Oedipus at Colonus is presented as a uniquely rich text which deftly uses the figure and history of the blind Oedipus to explore and thematize some of the basic narratological concerns of Greek tragedy the relation between the narrow here and now of visible stage action and the many off stage worlds that have to be mediated into it through narrative including the past the future other dramatizations of the myth and the world of the fifth century audience Popular culture and working-class taste in Britain, 1930-39 Robert James, 2013-07-19 This book examines the relationship between class and culture in 1930s Britain Focusing on the reading and cinema going tastes of the working classes Robert James landmark study combines rigorous historical analysis with a close textual reading of visual and written sources to appraise the role of popular leisure in this fascinating decade Drawing on a wealth of original research this lively and accessible book adds immeasurably to our knowledge of working class leisure pursuits in this contentious period It is a key intervention in the field providing both an imaginative approach to the subject and an abundance of new material to analyse thus making it an undergraduate and postgraduate must have It will be a particularly welcome addition for anyone interested in the fields of cultural and social history as well as film cultural and literary studies Genre and Hollywood Steve Neale, 2005-06-20 Genre and Hollywood provides a comprehensive introduction to the study of genre In this important new book Steve Neale discusses all the major concepts theories and accounts of Hollywood and genre as well as the key genres which theorists have written about from horror to the Western He also puts forward new arguments about the importance of genre in understanding Hollywood cinema Neale takes issue with much genre criticism and genre theory which has provided only a partial and misleading account of Hollywood s output He calls for broader and more flexible conceptions of genre and genres for more attention to be paid to the discourses and practices of Hollywood itself for the nature and range of Hollywood s films to be looked at in more detail and for any assessment of the social and cultural significance of Hollywood s genres to take account of industrial factors In detailed revisionist accounts of two major genres film noir and melodrama Neale argues that genre remains an important and productive means of thinking about both New and old Hollywood its history its audiences and its films Narratology Susana Onega, Jose Angel Garcia Landa, 2014-09-19 This text provides an excellent introduction and overview of Narratology a rapidly growing field in the humanities Literary narratologists have provided many key concepts and analytical tools which are widely used in the interdisciplinary analysis of such narrative features as plot point of view speech presentation ideological perspective and interpretation The introduction explains the central concepts of narratology their historical development and draws together contemporary trends from many different disciplines into common focus It offers a compendium of the development of narratology from classical poetics to the present The essays are all prefaced by individual forewords helping the reader to place each individual selection in context Recent developments are assessed across disciplines highlighting the mutual influences of narratology and deconstruction psychoanalysis feminism film and media studies
