Reseña de "A Narratological Commentary on the Odyssey" de Irene de Jong
Graciela Cristina Zecchin, 2004

Towards Poetic Narratology: A New Visit to Narrative Studies and Poetic Studies
Luo Jun, 2021-09-15 For a very long time I have been preoccupied with the exploration of the academic blind spots that have cropped up in the organic combination of poetic studies and narrative studies that is inclined to give a lot of perceptive and cognitive inspiration to the systematic and strategic construction of the theoretical frameworks and theoretical systems of poetic narratology to provide more perceptive and cognitive convenience for the vast majority of readers and scholars to give a much more profound and perspicacious interpretation and illustration of the ideological and epistemological values implied in the diverse and distinctive narration of most poetic narrative texts in an unnoticeable fashion and in an untraceable fashion

Arete and the Odyssey's Poetics of Interrogation Justin Arft, 2022 Justin Arft explores how the Phaeacian queen Arete is at the heart of an epic scale poetics of interrogation used throughout the Odyssey to negotiate Odysseus kleos or epic renown The queen and her question invite new applications of oral poetics that shed light on the structure composition and reperformance of the Odyssey

Emotions and Narrative in Ancient Literature and Beyond, 2022-04-25 Emotions are at the core of much ancient literature from Achilles heartfelt anger in Homer s Iliad to the pangs of love of Virgil s Dido This volume applies a narratological approach to emotions in a wide range of texts and genres It seeks to analyze ways in which emotions such as anger fear pity joy love and sadness are portrayed Furthermore using recent insights from affective narratology it studies ways in which ancient narratives evoke emotions in their readers The volume is dedicated to Irene de Jong for her groundbreaking research into the narratology of ancient literature

Euripides' "Alcestis" Andreas Markantonatos, 2013-10-14 This volume is an accessible yet in depth narratological study of Euripides Alcestis the earliest extant play of Euripides and one of the most experimental masterpieces of Greek tragedy not only standing in place of a satyr play but also preserving at least some of its typical features Commencing from the widely held view so lamentably ignored within the domain of Classics that a narratology of drama should be predicated upon the notion of narrative as verbal as well as visual rendition of a story this unique volume contextualizes the play in terms of its reception by the original audience locating the intricate narrative tropes of the plot in the dynamics of fifth century Athenian mythology and religion

Handbook of Diachronic Narratology Peter Hühn, John Pier, Wolf Schmid, 2023-07-24 This handbook brings together 42 contributions by leading narratologists devoted to the study of narrative devices in European literatures from antiquity to the present Each entry examines the use of a specific narrative device in one or two national literatures across the ages whether in successive or distant periods of time Through the analysis of representative texts in a range of European languages the authors compellingly trace the continuities and evolution of storytelling devices as well as their culture specific manifestations In response to Monika Fludernik's 2003 call for a diachronization of narratology this new handbook complements existing synchronic approaches that tend to be ahistorical in their outlook and departs from postclassical narratologies that often prioritize thematic and ideological concerns A new direction in narrative theory diachronic narratology explores previously overlooked questions from the evolution of free indirect speech from the Middle Ages to the present to how changes in narrative sequence encoded the shift from a sacred to a secular worldview in early modern Romance literatures An invaluable new resource for literary theorists historians comparatists discourse analysts and linguists

Sublime Cosmos in Graeco-Roman Literature and Its Reception David Christenson, Cynthia White, 2024-03-07 The essays collected in this volume examine manifestations of our sublime cosmos in ancient literature and its reception Individual themes include religious mystery calendrical and cyclical thinking as ordering principles of human experience divine birth and the manifold nature of divinity both awesome and terrifying contemplation of the sky and meteorological irregularity fears associated with overpowering natural and anthropogenic events and the aspirations and limitations of human expression In texts ranging from Homer to Keats the volume's chapters apply diverse critical methods and approaches that engage with sublimity in various aesthetic agential and metaphysical aspects The ancient texts epic dramatic historiographic and lyric treated here are rooted in a remote world where within a framework of perceived celestial order literature myth and science still communicated profoundly a tradition that continued in literary receptions of these ancient works This volume honours the intellectual legacy of Thomas D Worthen a scholar whose expertise and insights cut across multiple disciplines and who influenced and inspired students and colleagues at the University of Arizona USA for over three decades Beyond clarifying temporally and culturally distant contemplations of the human universe these essays aim to inform the continuing sense of wonder and horror at the sublime heights and depths of our ever changing cosmos

The Emergence of Subjectivity in the Ancient and Medieval World Jon Stewart, 2020-03-24 The Emergence of Subjectivity in the Ancient and Medieval World An Interpretation of Western Civilization represents a combination of different genres cultural history philosophical anthropology and textbook It follows a handful of different but interrelated themes through more than a dozen texts that were written over a period of several millennia and by means of an analysis of these texts presents a theory of the development of Western civilization from antiquity to the Middle Ages The main line of argument traces the various self conceptions of different cultures as they developed historically reflecting different views of what it is to be human The thesis of the volume is that through examination of these changes we can discern the gradual emergence of what we today call inwardness subjectivity and individual freedom As human civilization took its first tenuous steps it had a very limited conception of the individual Instead the dominant principle was that of the wider group the family clan or people Only in the course of history did the idea of what we now know as individuality begin to emerge and it took millennia for this idea to be fully recognized and developed The conception of human beings as having a sphere of inwardness and subjectivity subsequently had a sweeping impact on all aspects of culture including philosophy religion law and art indeed this notion largely constitutes what is today referred to as modernity It is easy to lose sight of the fact that this modern conception of human subjectivity was not simply something given but rather the result of a long process of historical and cultural development

LUX: Studies in Greek and Latin Literature Myrto Aloumpi, Antony Augoustakis, 2024-10-21 This volume of essays in honor of Lucia Athanassaki offers a great variety of chapters on a number of topics in Greek and Latin literature and genres from Greek epic and lyric poetry to Greek drama and late antiquity Greek historiography and Latin lyric poetry
