Perceptions Of Apartheid The Churches And Political Change In South Africa:

Perceptions of Apartheid Ernie Regehr, 1979      The Church Struggle in South Africa John W. De Gruchy, 2005 No more heartrending yet hopeful case study in Christian ethics exists than in the story of South African apartheid and its recent decisive transformation John de Gruchy's authoritative and newly updated account of Christian complicity with and then resistance to one of the world's most notoriously repressive regimes holds indispensable lessons and dangerous memories for all concerned about evil justice and racial reconciliation      Christians in the City of Lagos Caleb O. Oladipo, 2025-08-07 Despite political persecution economic stalemate and military intimidation this book shows how churches of all denominations continue to grow under the stimulus of vibrant indigenous spirituality and cultural idioms Incorporating interviews with Christians from six of the most influential churches in Lagos this book gives readers a sense of daily life in Lagos for Christians Through this original ethnographic research Caleb O Oladipo explores first hand accounts of faith and practice in the city offering a unique perspective to scholars of global Christianity A collection of stories from Christians of diverse ethnographic backgrounds this book shows that Christianity is an integral part of the rhythm of life in Lagos Christians in Lagos one of the most populous cities in the world are dynamic with a confluence of traditions beliefs and community      Ibss Poli Sci 29 1980 "International Committee For Social Sciences Documentation", 2013-10-15 The International Bibliography of the Social Sciences IBSS is an essential tool for librarians academics and researchers wishing to be kept up to date with the published literature in the social sciences IBSS is compiled in four divisions Anthropology Sociology Economics and Political Science This is Volume XXIX of the International bibliography of political science as of 1980      The Church in Africa, 1450-1950 Adrian Hastings, 1995-01-05 I can merely admire his courage in tackling so complex and difficult a subject he should succeed in stimulating a fresh generation of research this well written intelligent and lively study will greatly stimulate anyone fortunate enough to read it Christianity provided the constitutive identity of historic Ethiopia From the sixteenth century and increasingly from the nineteenth it entered decisively into the life and culture of an increasing number of other African peoples In the course of the twentieth century African Christians have become a major part of the world Church and arguably modern African history as a whole is not intelligible without its powerful Christian element Yet despite the great advance in African historiography over the last forty years this is the first major volume to consider the historical development and character of the Christian Church in Africa as a whole linking together Ehtiopia Orthodoxy Roman Catholicism Protestantism and the numerous Independent churches of modern times The book focuses throughout on the role of conversion the shaping of Church life and its relationship to traditional values and the impact of political power Professor Hastings also compares the relation of Christian history to the comprable development of Islam in Africa      Liberation Theologies Ronald G. Musto, 2020-11-25 First Published in 1991 The following is a comprehensive scholarly bibliography of published materials on the varieties of liberation theology mostly in book form available in English It is intended as an introductory survey to this vast and quickly expanding field for the teacher and student of contemporary theology of biblical hermeneutics and to the interrelationship of politics and religion around the world It will also serve as a comprehensive bibliography

South Africa Under Apartheid Jacqueline Audrey Kalley, 1989 As apartheid's crisis has deepened so interest in South Africa's past present and future has increased With this scholarly and popular writing on the country has proliferated This 1100 entry bibliography guides the scholar or interested layman through the relevant literature on South Africa and the policy of apartheid Its cumulative impact is how racial domination permeates all aspects of modern South African society Brief informative annotations facilitate choice and the extensive subject and author indexes provide quick access Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved

Religion and Conflict Resolution Megan Shore, 2016-04-08 This book examines the ambiguous role that Christianity played in South Africa's Truth and Reconciliation Commission TRC It has two objectives to analyse the role Christianity played in the TRC and to highlight certain consequences that may be instructive to future international conflict resolution processes Religion and conflict resolution is an area of significant importance Ongoing conflicts involving Palestinians and Israelis Muslims and Hindus and even radical Islamic jihadists and Western countries have heightened the awareness of the potential power of religion to fuel conflict Yet these religious traditions also promote peace and respect for others as key components in doing justice Examining the potential role religion can play in generating peace and justice specifically Christianity in South Africa's TRC is of utmost importance as religiously inspired violence continues to occur This book highlights the importance of accounting for religion in international conflict resolution

Third World Liberation Theologies Deane W. Fernald, 2004-04-15 Here for the first time is a systematic survey of the principal liberation theologians from Asia Africa and Latin America Exposing the rich variety of Third World liberation theologies the author highlights points of agreement and divergence in approaches and context and critically assesses the most often heard criticisms of liberation theology With its companion volume Third World Liberation Theologies A Reader this survey represents the most comprehensive introduction in any language to what may well be the most significant theological development of this century

Liberating Mission in Mozambique Robert Faris, 2015-02-26 This work is a significant contribution to the narrative of Christianity in southern Africa within the framework of the struggle for liberation from colonial rule By focusing on the story of a Protestant political and ecumenical leader Eduardo Mondlane of note within a dominantly Roman Catholic country Faris explores the role of the churches and missions especially the Swiss Mission in the struggle for African Independence

Nonviolent Action Ronald M. McCarthy, Gene Sharp, Brad Bennett, 2013-07-04 This comprehensive guide to research sources and theories about nonviolent action as a technique of struggle in social and political conflicts discusses the methods and techniques used by groups in various encounters Although violence and its causes have received a great deal of attention nonviolent action has not received its due as an international phenomenon with a long history An introduction that explains the theories and research used in the study provides a practical guide to this essential bibliography of English language sources The first part of the book covers case study materials divided by region and subdivided by country Within each country materials are arranged chronologically and topically The second major part examines the methods and theory of nonviolent action principled nonviolence and several closely related areas in social science such as conflict analysis and social movements The book is indexed by author and subject

Religion and Resistance Politics in South Africa Lyn S. Graybill, 1995-11-30 This study focuses on Christianity and black nationalism in South Africa and looks at four individuals Albert Lutuli Robert Sobukwe Steve Biko and Desmond Tutu to see how each leader's Christian beliefs influenced the political strategy he pursued Just as theology Calvinism was significant in the formulation of Afrikaner nationalism so too has theology variously interpreted been instrumental in the articulation of African nationalism The African National Congress ANC the Pan Africanist Congress PAC the Black Consciousness Movement BCM and the United Democratic Front UDF all relied on a Christian perspective and vocabulary to articulate the goals of black nationalism By tracing this religious thread through each of these various resistance movements the author has made a fascinating contribution to the literature of comparative politics African studies and the sociology of religion

Equality and Diversity in Education: National and international contexts Patricia Potts, Felicity Armstrong, Mary Masterton, 1995

Perception, 1979 Earthing the Gospel Gerald A. Arbuckle, 2002-12-26 Christians are much the richer for this accomplishment of a long cherished dream by an experienced missionary social anthropologist Gerald Arbuckle has provided a book for the contemporary pastoral care team that mediates basic insights on ministry via the social sciences He also challenges church workers to rethink and reassess their work in light of the profound cultural changes taking place around them Earthing the Gospel introduces pastoral workers in the First World to methods of social analysis pioneered by missionaries worldwide It includes case histories personal stories and the results of fieldwork of hundreds of people in both the First and Third Worlds Applying the insights of social anthropology to the parishes on the home front Arbuckle offers the tools required to address issues of mission and inculturation in the First World Above all Earthing the Gospel is practical It presumes no special knowledge of anthropology as it zeroes in on topical issues racism fundamentalism the modern family youth and senior citizen subcultures affecting parishes and communities today Each chapter ends with questions for reflection and action For pastoral teams and workers on every level the insights gained from mission around the world can applying the methods described here be just as fruitful in our own back yards

A Survey of Race Relations in South Africa South African Institute of Race Relations, 1981

Human Rights in Canadian Foreign Policy R. Matthews, 1988-10-01 The pattern revealed is one of deliberate ambiguity On some issues and in some forums Canada has acted vigorously to promote human rights internationally as in the United Nations Human Rights Commission the United Nations Committee on Human Rights and the Conference on Security and Cooperation in Europe Canada has been much less forceful about human rights in dealings with the International Labour Organization and has almost completely ignored this issue as it relates to international financial institutions Canada has been outspoken about the violation of rights in countries ruled by communist regimes while hesitation and ambiguity are a feature of Canadian policies toward South Africa and Central America as well as in lending policies to international financial institutions Canadian development assistance and Canadian arms sales Each of these areas is examined in Human Rights in Canadian Foreign Policy Canada is most vigorous on issues of human rights when the rights in question are civil and political rather than economic and social and when the offending regime is under Soviet rather than American influence The contributors include Frances Arbour Victoria Berry John W Foster Rhoda E Howard Kalmen Kaplansky T A Keenleyside Allen McChesney Ronald Manzer Robert O Matthews Stefania Szlek Miller Cathal J Nolan Kim Richard Nossal Cranford Pratt Renate Pratt Ernie Regehr and H Gordon Skilling

Pentecostalism and Politics in Africa Adeshina Afolayan, Olajumoke Yacob-Haliso, Toyin Falola, 2018-06-29 As the epicenter of Christianity has shifted towards Africa in recent decades Pentecostalism has emerged as a particularly vibrant presence on the continent This collection of essays offers a groundbreaking study of the complex links between politics and African Pentecostalism Situated at the intersection between the political the postcolonial and global neoliberal capitalism contributors examine the roots of the Pentecostal movement s extraordinary growth how Pentecostalism intervenes in key social and political issues such as citizenship party politics development challenges and identity and conversely how politics in Africa modulate the Pentecostal movement Pentecostalism and Politics in Africa offers a wide ranging picture of a central dimension of postcolonial African life opening up new directions for future research

On Nations and the Churches: Ecumenical Responses to Nationalisms and Migration / Nationen und Kirchen: Ökumenische Antworten auf Nationalismus und Migration Jelle Creemers, Ulrike Link-Wieczorek, 2020-11-01 Kirchen in Europa haben eine spezifische Erfahrungsgeschichte mit ihrer Verhältnisbestimmung zur Nation Obwohl im Prinzip darüber einig dass der christliche Glaube in seiner Grundtendenz von einem internationalen ja universalistischen Charakter geprägt ist wird spätestens seit dem 19. Jahrhundert immer wieder gefragt ob nicht doch Nation und nationale Identität zur Schöpfung Gottes gehören Gegenwärtig wird das in den Kirchen Europas kontrovers diskutiert eng verbunden mit Erfahrungen von Migration Nation klingt anders für protestantische Minderheitskirchen als für orthodoxe oder römisch-katholische Kirche in ehemals kommunistischen Staaten und wieder anders für deutsche Kirchen die ihre Verquickung mit dem Nationalsozialismus verarbeiten müssen Können Nationalbewusstsein und gegenwärtige Migrationserfahrungen zusammengehen Haben die Kirchen in ökumenischer Perspektive dazu etwas Spezifisches zu sagen Mit diesen Fragen beschäftigt sich dieser Tagungsband der Societas Oecumenica Mit Beiträgen von Elżbieta Adamiak Niko Huttunen Petre Maican Ivana Noble Friederike Nessel Peter Phan Hector Scerri Peter Ben Smit Andrea Ströbind Ulrike Link-Wieczorek Kaholi Zhimomi Churches in Europe have specific historical experiences regarding their relationship with the nation Although in principle it is agreed that the Christian faith is in its basic tendency shaped by a supranational even universalistic character since the 19th century at the latest it has been repeatedly asked whether nation and national identity do not belong to God's creation At present this is controversially discussed in the churches of Europe closely connected with experiences of migration Can national consciousness and current migration experiences go together Do churches have anything specific to say about this in an ecumenical perspective These are the questions addressed in this conference volume of the Societas Oecumenica
