Perfection Of The Morning An Apprenticeship In Nature:

Perfection of the Morning Sharon Butala,2005 The Perfection of the Morning Sharon Butala,1995 It is a world as well of wildlife and endless prairie of starlit nights and sweetsmelling grasses where the growing writer is forced to confront not only her own solitude but her struggle to connect with the world around her Perfection Of The Morning Sharon Butala,2012-01-17 When it was first published The Perfection of the Morning catapulted Sharon Butala into literary stardom causing the Toronto Star to crown her as one of this country's true visionaries At once a meditation on the world of nature and a personal and spiritual exploration of the roots of creativity The Perfection of the Morning is Sharon Butala's search for a connection with the prairie that encompassed and often overwhelmed her More resonant today than ever before The Perfection of the Morning is a book for Butala's many loyal readers as well as the perfect introduction for new fans

Where I Live Now Sharon Butala,2017-04-04 An intimate and uplifting book about finding renewal and hope through grief and loss It was a terrible life it was an enchanted life it was a blessed life And of course one day it ended Sharon Butala In the tradition of Joan Didion's The Year of Magical Thinking Diana Athill's Somewhere Towards the End and Atul Gawande's Being Mortal comes a revelatory new book from one of our beloved writers When Sharon Butala's husband Peter died unexpectedly she found herself with no place to call home Torn by grief and loss she fled the ranchlands of southwest Saskatchewan and moved to the city leaving almost everything behind A lifetime of possessions was reduced to a few boxes of books clothes and keepsakes But a lifetime of experience went with her and a limitless well of memory of personal failures of a marriage that everybody said would not last but did of the unbreakable bonds of family Reinventing herself in an urban landscape was painful and facing her new life as a widow tested her very being Yet out of this hard won new existence comes an astonishingly frank compassionate and moving memoir that offers not only solace and hope but inspiration to those who endure profound loss Often called one of this country's true visionaries Sharon Butala shares her insights into the grieving process and reveals the small triumphs and funny moments that kept her going Where I Live Now is profound in its understanding of the many homes women must build for themselves in a lifetime Life Stories Maureen

O'Connor,2011-08-23 Memoirs autobiographies and diaries represent the most personal and most intimate of genres as well as one of the most abundant and popular Gain new understanding and better serve your readers with this detailed genre guide to nearly 700 titles that also includes notes on more than 2 800 read alike and other related titles The popularity of this body of literature has grown in recent years and it has also diversified in terms of the types of stories being told and persons telling them In the past readers advisors have depended on access by names or Dewey classifications and subjects to help readers find autobiographies they will enjoy This guide offers an alternative organizing the literature according to popular genres subgenres and themes that reflect common reading interests Describing titles that range from travel and adventure classics and celebrity autobiographies to foodie memoirs and environmental reads Life Stories A Guide to Reading Interests in Memoirs Autobiographies and Diaries presents a unique overview of the genre that specifically addresses the needs of readers advisors and others who work with readers in finding books Sensing Space Claire Omhové,2007 This book enlarges the perspective of literary geography which tends to focus on the correspondence between the objective world the geographer addresses and its subjective rendering in art Instead it considers how geography informs fresh aesthetic responses to space in contemporary Canadian literature with specific attention to the writings of Alistair MacLeod Jane Urquhart Anne Michaels Aritha van Herk Rudy Wiebe Robert Kroetsch and Thomas Wharton This broadening leads to a series of interrogations what blanks in conventional landscape writing does physical geography fill and how Where does the efficiency of geography lie beyond its scientific accuracy or descriptive relevance Pondering the role of geography in a work of art therefore amounts to considering what makes geography work as art is there such a thing as a poetics of geography Because the place of the writer and the representation of space remain two central concerns in Canadian writing the texts under scrutiny help elucidate the critical role performed by the geographical imagination a phrase used by theoreticians as diverse as Edward Said Edward Soja or Derek Gregory in the fabrication of symbolic ties between Canadians and the land they have come to share Bob Henderson's Trails and Tales 4-Book Bundle Bob Henderson,2016-05-30 Hit the trails with naturalist and raconteur Bob Henderson in this four book bundle From folklore to heritage with a hefty dose of the Scandinavian outdoor living ethos of friluftsliv Henderson fires the imagination urging Ontarians to reignite their relationship with nature Includes Every Trail Has a Story More Trails More Tales Nature First Pike's Portage The Literary History of Saskatchewan David Carpenter,2013-02 Saskatchewan's literary history is both colourful and complex It is also mature enough to deserve a critical investigation of its roots and origins its salient features and its prominent players This collection of scholarly essays conceptualized and compiled by well known Saskatchewan novelist essayist and scholar David Carpenter examines the Saskatchewan literary scene from its early Aboriginal storytellers on through to the decades to the burgeoning 1970s The dozen essays preceded by a David Carpenter introduction include such topics as Our New Storytellers Cree Literature in Saskatchewan The Literary Construction of Saskatchewan before 1905 Narratives of Trade Rebellion and Settlement and The New Generation The Seventies Remembered Also included are special topics among them Playwriting in Saskatchewan Feral Muse Angelic Muse The Poetry of Anne Szumigalski and tribute pieces to John V Hicks R D Symons Terrence Heath and Alex Karras Contributing scholars include the likes of Kristina Fagan Jenny Kerber Susan Gingell Ken Mitchell and Martin Winquist Nature First Bob Henderson,Nils Vikander,2007-07-31 Nature First combines the Scandinavian approach to creating a relationship with nature known as friluftsliv with efforts by Canadian and international educators to adapt this wisdom and apply it to everyday life experiences in the open air The word friluftsliv literally refers to free air life or outdoor life A word saturated with values the concept can permeate deeply and playfully into one's cultural being and personal psyche thus influencing the way one perceives and interacts with nature on a daily basis For centuries

the North American approach has been one of domination and bringing nature under control in many cases abusing our natural environment in the process The friluftsliv way of being on talking terms with nature developing an insider s relationship with nature offers the rich potential of allowing us as cohabiters on the Earth to recreate rejuvenate and restore the balance among all living things Nature First is the first English language anthology to bring together the perspectives and experiences of North American Norwegian Swedish and other international outdoor writers all friluftsliv thinkers and doers Here the thirty contributors use of history sociology psychology philosophy and outdoor education writings blend to provide an understanding of how friluftsliv applies to everyday life The book presents an alternative to much of the personal growth adventure based literature that tends to dominate our current approach to the outdoor activity Folklore heritage adventure travel crafts place based education and the daily outings of families all have a role to play in promoting an understanding of both the ordinary and the mystical importance of this Nordic tradition Dedicated to parents travel guides educators and generally to participants in the outdoors Nature First provides a compellingly fresh approach to life in the out of doors

Perspectives of Saskatchewan Jene M. Porter,2008-11-01 At the turn of the nineteenth century Saskatchewan was one of the fastest growing provinces in the country In the early 1900s it revolutionized the Canadian political landscape and gave rise to socialist governments that continue to influence Canadian politics today It was the birthplace of Canada s publicly funded health care system and home to a thriving arts and literary community that helped define western Canadian culture In Perspectives of Saskatchewan twenty one noted scholars present an in depth look at some of the major developments in the province s history including subjects such as art literature demographics politics northern development and religion It lays the foundations for a greater understanding of Saskatchewan s unique history identity and place in Canada

At Home on the Earth David Landis Barnhill,1999-08-05 The physical earth is clearly under unprecedented siege heated toxified scraped But almost as if they were antibodies the finest nature writers of any era have come forward to help in the fight This anthology collects many of the most important at their most eloquent May it ring and echo and do some good Bill McKibben author of The End of Nature This is a stunning collection of vivid writing about landscapes and the people who inhabit them The diverse narratives gathered here do more than describe hawks diving and twigs snapping although the book has its share of moving accounts of the natural world A concern to live responsibly in nature runs through this evocative anthology like a subterranean stream and that moral impulse together with the lively prose makes this the best collection of nature writing I ve seen Thomas A Tweed editor of Retelling U S Religious History

The Bar U & Canadian Ranching History S. M. Evans,2004 For much of its 130 year history the Bar U Ranch can claim to have been one of the most famous ranches in Canada Its reputation is firmly based on the historical role that the ranch has played its size and longevity and its association with some of the remarkable people who have helped develop the cattle business and build the Canadian West The long history of the ranch allows the evolution of the cattle business to be traced and can be seen in three distinct historical periods based on the eras of the individuals who owned and managed the ranch. These colourful figures beginning with Fred Stimson then George Lane and finally Pat Burns have left an indelible mark on the Bar U as well as Canadian ranching history. The Bar U and Canadian Ranching History is a fascinating story that integrates the history of ranching in Alberta with larger issues of ranch historiography in the American and Canadian West and contributes greatly to the overall understanding of ranching history.

R.C.E.I., 2001. Comparative Political Theory and Cross-Cultural Philosophy Jin Y. Park, 2009-06-16. Comparative Political Theory and Cross Cultural Philosophy: Essays in Honor of Hwa Yol Jung explores new forms of philosophizing in the age of globalization by challenging the conventional border between the East and the West as well as the traditional boundaries among different academic disciplines. The essays in this volume examine diverse issues encompassing globalization, cosmopolitanism, public philosophy, political ecology, ecocriticism, ethics of encounter and aesthetics of caring. They examine the philosophical traditions of phenomenology of Husserl, Merleau-Ponty and Heidegger, the dialogism of Mikhail Bakhtin, the philosophy of mestizaje, literature and Asian philosophical traditions. This rich comparative and cross-cultural investigation of philosophy and political theory demonstrates the importance of cultural and cross-cultural understanding in our reading of philosophical texts, exploring how cross-cultural thinking transforms our understanding of the traditional philosophical paradigm and political theory. This volume honors the scholarship and philosophy of Hwa Yol Jung, who has been a pioneer in the field of comparative political theory, cross-cultural philosophy and interdisciplinary scholarship. In one of his earliest publications, The Crisis of Political Understanding (1979), Jung described the urgency and necessity of breakthrough in political thinking as a crisis, and he followed up on this issue for his half-century of scholarship by introducing Asian philosophy and political thought to Western scholarship, demonstrating the possibility of cross-cultural philosophical thinking. In his most recent publications, Jung refers to this possibility as transversality or transuniversality, a concept which should replace the outmoded Eurocentric universality of modernist philosophy. Jung expounds that in transversality, differences are negotiated and compromised rather than effaced and absorbed into sameness. This volume is a testimony to the very possibility of.

Literature of Nature Patrick D. Murphy, Terry Gifford, Katsunori Yamazato, 1998. First Published in 1999, Routledge is an imprint of Taylor & Francis, an information company.

The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature Cynthia Conchita Sugars, 2016. The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature provides a broad-ranging introduction to some of the key critical fields, genres and periods in Canadian literary studies. The essays in this volume, written by prominent theorists in the field, reflect the plurality of critical perspectives, regional and historical specializations and theoretical positions that constitute the field of Canadian literary criticism across a range of genres and historical periods. The volume provides a dynamic introduction to current areas of critical interest, including 1. attention to the links between the literary and the public sphere encompassing such topics as neoliberalism trauma and memory citizenship material culture literary prizes disability studies literature and history digital cultures globalization studies and environmentalism or ecocriticism 2 interest in Indigenous literatures and settler Indigenous relations 3 attention to multiple diasporic and postcolonial contexts within Canada 4 interest in the institutionalization of Canadian literature as a discipline 5 a turn towards book history and literary history with a renewed interest in early Canadian literature 6 a growing interest in articulating the affective character of the literary including an interest in affect theory mourning melancholy haunting memory and autobiography The book represents a diverse array of interests from the revival of early Canadian writing to the continued interest in Indigenous regional and diasporic traditions to more recent discussions of globalization market forces and neoliberalism It includes a distinct section dedicated to Indigenous literatures and traditions as well as a section that reflects on the discipline of Canadian literature as a whole

Toward Defining the Prairies Robert Wardhaugh, 2001-04-30 New ways of thinking about literature and history have radically changed how we think about or even define a region like the Prairie West In fact the very concept of defining has come into question by new theoretical approaches and it may now seem a hopeless endeavour But the process of defining can be just as important as the actual production of a definition Toward Defining the Prairies highlights recent approaches to thinking about the Prairie West Bounded by pieces from well known historian Gerald Friesen and Governor General's Award winning writer Robert Kroetsch these 13 essays are as diverse as the region itself In their examination of different aspects of Prairie history literature climate society culture and identity they help to provide a new understanding of this place and of the complexities of its definition

Encyclopedia of Religion and Nature Bron Taylor, Jeffrey Kaplan, 2005-01-01 No Marketing Blurb

Locations of the Sacred William Closson James, 2006-01-01 Where do Canadians encounter religious meaning Not where they used to In ten lively and wide ranging essays William Closson James examines various derivations of the sacred in contemporary Canadian culture Most of the essays focus on the religious aspects of modern Canadian English fiction for example in essays on the fiction of Hugh MacLennan Morley Callaghan Margaret Atwood and Joy Kogawa But James also explores other non literary events and activities in which Canadians have found something transcendent or revelatory Each of the chapters in Locations of the Sacred can be read independently as a discrete analysis of its subject Taken as a whole the essays make up a powerful argument for a new way of looking at the religious in contemporary Canada not in the traditional ways of being religious but in activities and locations previously thought to be secular Thus the domains and modes of the religious are expanded not restricted
