Performance Studies In Australia October 2001:

Australasian Drama Studies, 2001 Catching Australian Theatre in the 2000s Richard Fotheringham, James Smith, 2013-11-01 Whether catching Australian theatre during the 2000s or catching up now this volume provides the reader with an overview of the decade It reveals how Australian theatre continues to reflect the major political and social concerns of our time Each contribution explores an important area of Australian performance so that the volume provides crucial background and insightful analysis for current theatre practice The contributions cover political theatre Indigenous theatre playwrights concerned with cultural identity key Shakespearean productions the impact of funding and arts policy on theatre dramaturgy and innovative projects leading directors on rehearsal processes theatre for young people regional theatre including the Northern Territory and physical theatre and Circus Oz The book confirms the consolidation of previous artistic achievement over the decade and identifies the emergence of new trends and creative practices Inter-cultural Performance Graham Squires, Manami Simmons, 2016 In the modern world we are accustomed to conceptualising international relations in terms of national identity We speak of English culture French culture and American culture as if these things were the basic building blocks of global civilisation While there is no doubt that national culture is important such a view fails to take account of the fact that there is great diversity within nations and powerful connections across national frontiers Just as individuals cannot be understood in isolation from the society of which they are a part so national cultures cannot be understood in isolation from the global community Since the beginning of human history cross cultural exchange has been important in bringing about social change This can be seen vividly in the way languages and their associated literary and dramatic traditions have interacted with one another This volume brings together a collection of essays that focus on the role cross cultural exchange has played in performance in the theatre and in film The aim is not to suggest any systematic theory of cross cultural exchange but rather to present a variety of examples that illustrate the subtle and complex way in which different cultures interact Refugees, Theatre and Crisis A. Jeffers, 2011-10-25 Using examples of refugee arts and theatrical activity since the 1990s this book examines how the refugee crisis has conditioned all arts and cultural activity with refugees in a world where globalization and migration go hand in hand A Performance Cosmology Judie Christie, 2013-03-07 Exploring thirty years of work by The Centre for Performance Research CPR A Performance Cosmology explores the future challenges of performance and theatre through a diverse and fascinating series of interviews testimonies and perspectives from leading international theatre practitioners and academics Contributors include Philip Auslander Rustom Bharucha Tim Etchells Jane Goodall Guillermo Gomez Pena Jon Mckenzie Claire MacDonald Susan Melrose Alphonso Lingis Richard Schechner Rebecca Schneider Edward Scheer and Freddie Rokem A Performance Cosmology is structured as a travelogue through a matrix of strategic imaginary interdisciplinary field stations This innovative framework enables readings which disrupt linearity and afford different forms of thematic engagement The resulting volume opens entirely new vistas on the old new and as yet unimagined worlds of performance Tropical Environments Martin Kellman, Rosanne Tackaberry, 2003-09-02 Tropical Environments presents a comprehensive introduction to the complex systems of the tropics Covering a broad cross regional range of humid through to semi arid tropical climate zones the book features a wealth of case studies drawn from throughout the tropical world The authors tackle the major problems within the tropics from complex biological interactions and soil nutrient deficiencies offering a balanced integration of biophysical and human management issues Ency of Library and Inform Sci 2e V4 (Print) Miriam A. Drake, 2003 A revitalized version of the popular classic the Encyclopedia of Library and Information Science Second Edition targets new and dynamic movements in the distribution acquisition and development of print and online media compiling articles from more than 450 information specialists on topics including program planning in the digital era recruitment information management advances in digital technology and encoding intellectual property and hardware software database selection and design competitive intelligence electronic records preservation decision support systems ethical issues in information online library instruction telecommuting and digital library projects The World's Wine Markets Kym Anderson, 2004-01-01 This work will appeal to students enrolled in wine marketing and business courses those studying industrial organization and economists and other social scientists interested in case studies of globalization at work As well wine industry participants interested in understanding the reasons behind the recent dramatic developments in the industry will find this book of great value BOOK JACKET The Columbia Encyclopedia of Modern Drama Gabrielle H. Cody, Evert Sprinchorn, 2007 The Columbia Encyclopedia of Modern Drama covers the period from 1860 to the present The distinctive feature of this encyclopedia is the emphasis it places on the cultural context of dramatic works and their authors Preface International Handbook of Research in Arts Education Liora Bresler, 2007-09-04 Providing a distillation of knowledge in the various disciplines of arts education dance drama music literature and poetry and visual arts the Handbook synthesizes existing research literature helps define the past and contributes to shaping the substantive and methodological future of the respective and integrated disciplines of arts education While research can at times seem distant from practice the Handbook aims to maintain connection with the lived practice of art and of education capturing the vibrancy and best thinking in the field of theory and practice The Handbook is organized into 13 sections each centering on a major area or issue in arts education research These areas include History of arts education curriculum evaluation cultural centers appreciation composition informal learning child culture creativity the body spirituality and technology The individual chapters address cross cultural research related to the central theme of the section from the perspectives of the particular arts discipline Interludes provide reflective thoughts on the theme The Waitangi Tribunal Janine Hayward, Nicola Rowan Wheen, 2004 Reviews the Tribunal's place in contemporary New Zealand and takes a critical look at its role in reshaping Maori identity The book concludes by reflecting on the future of the Waitangi Tribunal and the contribution it makes to developing notions of reparatory and distributive justice in New Zealand powerful actor training system which combines elements of Noh and Kabuki with Western realism Inviting artists from around the world to perform at his Toga and Shizuoka International Festivals Suzuki has fostered productive exchanges with Jean Louis Barrault Robert Wilson Kanze Hisao Ashikawa Yoko and numerous others This 2004 book traces Suzuki's rise from Little Theatre director to international festival celebrity links his unique Surrealist dramaturgy with his intercultural training system and gives in depth descriptions of his most acclaimed productions Resources in Education ,1998

Teaching Business Sustainability Chris Galea,2017-11-28 There are many challenges facing educators in the field of sustainability This text aims to analyze the state of the art in teaching business sustainability worldwide and what teaching practices and tools are achieving successful results Playing Australia ,2021-10-18 Playing Australia explores the insights and challenges that Australian theatre can offer the international theatre community Collectively the essays in this book ask what Australian drama is has been and might be both to Australians and non Australians when it is performed in national and international arenas Playing Australia ranges widely in its discussions and includes analysis of Australian practitioners playing away from home playing with Australian stereotypes and the relationship between play culture politics and national identity Topics addressed in this diverse collection include whiteness otherness and negotiations of Aboriginal and Asian identities Australian school and college drama the discourse of Australian professional theatre magazines Aboriginal Shakespeare Australian drama and Australian cricket the marketing of Australianness in Germany the international successes of Tap Dogs and Cloudstreet New histories of Australian theatre are offered and practitioners whose careers are reconsidered in detail include high wire walker Ella Zuila playwright May Holt suffrage worker and playwright Inez Bensusan classicist Gilbert Murray and commercial playwright Haddon Chambers With contributions from authors as diverse as Guardian theatre critic Michael Billington and leading post colonial critic Helen Gilbert and interview discussion with Cate Blanchett and Tap Dogs producer Wayne Harrison Playing Australia seeks to pay tribute to the complexities of Australian theatre experiences to reassess Australian theatre as a significant force in the international arena and to challenge traditional thinking on what Australian theatre can be The Ecophobia Hypothesis Simon Estok,2018-06-27 The Ecophobia Hypothesis grows out of the sense that while the theory of biophilia has productively addressed ideal human affinities with nature the capacity of the biophilia hypothesis as an explanatory model of human environment relations is limited The biophilia hypothesis cannot adequately account for the kinds of things that are going on in the world things so extraordinary that we are increasingly coming to understand the current age as the Anthropocene Building on the usefulness of the biophilia hypothesis this book argues that biophilia exists on a broader spectrum that has not been adequately theorized The Ecophobia Hypothesis claims that in order to contextualize biophilia literally the love of life and the spectrum on which it sits it is necessary to theorize how very unphilic human uses of the natural world are This volume offers a rich tapestry of connected comparative discussions about the new material turn and the urgent need to address the agency of genes about the complexities of 21st century representations of ecophobia and about how imagining terror interpenetrates the imagining of an increasingly oppositional natural environment Furthermore this book proposes that ecophobia is one root cause that explains why ecomedia a veritably thriving industry is having so little measurable impact in transforming our adaptive capacities The ecophobia hypothesis offers an equation that determines the variable spectrums of the Anthropocene by measuring the ecophobic implications and inequalities of speciesism and the entanglement of environmental ethics with the writing of literary madness and pain This work also investigates how current ecophobic perspectives systemically institutionalize the infrastructures of industrial agriculture and waste management This is a book about revealing ecophobia and prompting transformational change
