Performing Cuba Rewriting Gender Identity And Exile Across Genres Caribbean Studies:

British Bulletin of Publications on Latin America, the Caribbean, Portugal, and Spain ,2007 Performing Cuba Denis Jorge Berenschot,2005 The Cuban Revolution has generated extraordinary literary achievements by writers both within Cuba and in exile This book focuses on selected works by Edmundo Desnoes Senel Paz and El as Miguel Mu oz and the transformations of their texts from prose to film and theatre Performing Cuba breaks new ground by clearly demonstrating how these multiple rewritings and additional authorial voices from the filmic and theatrical media rewrite the characters gender performances in order to manipulate the texts reading Reclaiming Difference Carine M. Mardorossian,2005 In Reclaiming Difference Carine Mardorossian examines the novels of four women writers Jean Rhys Dominica UK Maryse Condé Guadeloupe USA Edwidge Danticat Haiti USA and Julia Alvarez Dominican Republic USA showing how their writing has radically reformulated the meanings of the national geographical sexual and racial concepts through which postcolonial studies has long been configuring difference Coming from the anglophone francophone and hispanophone Caribbean these writers all stage and identify with transcultural experiences that undermine the usual classification of literary texts in terms of national and regional literatures and by doing so they challenge the idea that racial and cultural identities function as stable points of reference in our unstable world Focusing on the transformations that have taken place in postcolonial studies since the field began to focus on theory Mardorossian highlights not only how these writers make use of the styles of creolization and hybridity that have dominated Caribbean and postcolonial studies in recent years but also how they distinguish themselves from the movement s leading figures by offering new articulations of the ties that link race and nation to gender and class She illuminates how these writers extend the notion of hybridity away from racial and cultural differences in isolation from each other to a set of crisscrossing categories that challenge our simpler normative figurations For scholars in postcolonial studies Caribbean studies literary feminist studies and studies in comparative literature Reclaiming Difference represents a new phase in postcolonial studies that calls for a fundamental rethinking of the field s terminology and assumptions The Cross-Dressed Caribbean Maria Cristina Fumagalli,Bénédicte Ledent,Roberto del Valle Alcalá,2014-01-13 Studies of sexuality in Caribbean culture are on the rise focusing mainly on homosexuality and homophobia or on regional manifestations of normative and nonnormative sexualities The Cross Dressed Caribbean extends this exploration by using the trope of transvestism not only to analyze texts and contexts from anglophone francophone Spanish Dutch and diasporic Caribbean literature and film but also to highlight reinventions of sexuality and resistance to different forms of exploitation and oppression Contributors Roberto del Valle Alcal University of Alcal Lee Easton Sheridan College Institute of Technology and Advanced Learning Odile Ferly Clark University Kelly Hewson Mount Royal University Isabel Hoving Leiden University Wendy Knepper Brunel University Carine Mardorossian University at Buffalo SUNY Shani Mootoo Michael Niblett University of Warwick Kerstin Oloff Durham University Lizabeth Paravisini Vassar College Mayra

Resistant Bodies in the Cultural Productions of Transnational Hispanic Caribbean Women Irune del Rio Gabiola, 2016-12-27

Resistant Bodies in the Cultural Productions of Transnational Hispanic Caribbean Women Reimagining Queer Identity examines the art created by several Caribbean women who use literature film graphic novels music testimonios photographs etc to convey social justice democracy and new ways of re imaging marginal identities In using Chela Sandoval s theories on methodologies of the oppressed Irune del Rio Gabiola argues how the tactics Sandoval offers can be productively applied to the cultural productions analyzed The author explores how the protagonists of all the cultural productions this book focuses on developing tactics to create new possibilities and alternatives for self fashioning Particularly del Rio Gabiola reconsiders concepts such as shame failure unbecoming hermeneutics of love or flexible bodies as methodologies of the oppressed that propose decolonizing emancipatory techniques in a transnational arena

Deconstructing Gender in Carnival Valeria Sterzi, 2015-07-15 This book explores the complexity of the dialectic relationship between ritual like activities and social structure focusing on women s increasing presence in Trinidad Carnival and the ways in which their participation becomes part of the conflict over the efforts to change the basic distribution of power within society Femininity comes forward in Caribbean carnival as the sexualized body that un masks power relations which are simultaneously affirmed and denied Giving attention to the ideological process through which gender relations are constructed this event is analysed in relation to economic political and social factors as well as a consequence of the changes caused by the cultural clash of colonial and postcolonial society

Fashioning Feminism in Cuba and Beyond Brigida M. Pastor, 2003 Though open public discussion of the oppression of women was precluded by the nature of Hispanic societies during the nineteenth century some Hispanic women among them the Cuban writer Gertrudis G mez de Avellaneda subtly sought to promote ideas of emancipation Focusing upon her autobiographical letters and a selection of her novels and drawing on contemporary psychoanalytical feminist theory this book traces the evolution of Avellaneda s feminism showing how she developed a series of narrative techniques and stylistic resources to explore male and female self representation and subvert the existing textual tradition Fashioning Feminism in Cuba and Beyond establishes Avellaneda at the forefront of both Cuban and Hispanic nineteenth century literature and feminist thought

Community and Culture in Post-Soviet Cuba Guillermina De Ferrari, 2014 This book re examines the role of the intellectual within the revolutionary project in post Soviet Cuban culture Through close critical readings of a representative set of contemporary Cuban novels and works of visual art the author argues that friendship and gender rather than ideology account for the intellectuals fidelity to the truth of the Revolution This volume demonstrates that masculine sociability is the key to understanding the longevity of Cuba s socialist regime It also examines in detail the sociology of cultural administration production dissemination reception and interpretation of intellectual labor in

Cuba Furthermore it maps the emergent ethical paradigms that allow Cuban intellectuals to envision a post revolutionary future

Transformismo M. Myrta Leslie Santana,2025-02-11 In Transformismo M Myrta Leslie Santana draws on years of embedded research within Cuban trans queer communities to analyze how transformistas or drag performers understand their roles in the social transformation of the island Once banned and censored in Cuba transformismo or drag performance is now state sponsored events Transformismo suggests that these performances are making critical interventions in Cuban trans queer life and politics and in doing so the volume offers critical insight into how Cuba s postsocialist reform has exacerbated racial sexual and economic inequalities Leslie Santana argues that mainstream trans queer nightlife in Cuba is entangled with the island s tourism economy which has shaped the aesthetics and social makeup of transformismo in coastal Havana which largely caters to foreigners Leslie Santana considers how Black lesbian and transgender transformistas are expanding understandings of sexual selfhood and politics on the island particularly questioning the ways that Black women s creativity is prominently featured in the aesthetics of tourism and trans queer nightlife while Black women themselves are denied social and material capital

The Politics of Identity in Cuban-American Literature Muffett Emily Barry,2017

Through the prism of literary analysis and cultural studies The Politics of Identity in Cuban American Literature is an original examination of the Cuban American community s diasporic and identitive genealogy from the perspective of their Cuban and American nationalisms It engages critically through fictional and non fictional texts the politics of writing language issues that emerge in a bilingual context with the concomitant tensions between preservation and hybridity the elaboration of myths in group identity formation and the representation of gender and sexuality as contributors to the overall shaping of their identity All these elements are woven into a gripping narrative addressing their contribution to American society and the human dilemmas underpinning the group s exiled identity Cuban Americans as one of the most unique and important minority ethnic groups in the United States rose to prominence following the Cuban Revolution of 1959 when the Cold War was at its zenith This study traces the acculturative processes and their resistance to citizenship over the several decades following their initial expatriation from Cuba Within the context of our present postmodern reality hybridization is explored through an interdisciplinary approach thereby refuting traditionally held views of essentialist notions of identity The book addresses those wishing to gain an understanding of contemporary conceptual realities Though specific to literary criticism and cultural studies it is a cross over into the area of knowledge bridging scholasticism with current topical appeals and influences
