Performing La Mestiza Ellen M. Gil-Gomez, 2017-10-06 This book first published in 2000 explores the intersections of race gender and gay identities in writings by contemporary American lesbians of colour in order to show how this subject is sometimes ignored sometimes brutalised and is very rarely able to survive on her own terms by constructing her own identity acts of cultural revision The author places the lesbian of colour in the context of current identity theories showing the ever present blind spots within current theoretical paradigms she then reads a variety of writings by lesbians of colour describing the possibilities that exist for these subjects in textual and social realities The author shows the varied communities that threaten the existence of this subject as well as the limits that dictate the subject's ability to create her self By bridging Judith Butler's Gender Trouble and Gloria Anzaldua's New Mestiza she describes how lesbians of colour can survive numerous sites of hostility by constructing a positive identity within her home community through revising cultural traditions and history After considering the power of these acts of revision the author calls for the empowered performance of the mestiza state the state of contradiction wherein the lesbian of colour finds herself This book is the first to analyse creative and theoretical works by African American Asian American Latina and Native American communities and writers through the lens of lesbian studies Authors include recognised figures such as Audre Lorde Ana Castillo and Paula Gunn Allen as well as lesser known authors like Best Brant Natasha Lopez and Willyce Kim It provides a corrective to Butler's empowering but essentially white vision of performing identity so that lesbians of colour can claim their identities and remain tied to their own cultural traditions Ultimately the author asks for a reconsideration of the value of identity studies that articulate monolithic identities and whose analyses perpetuate what they seek to disrupt

Latina Lesbian Writers and Artists Maria Dolores Costa, 2012-12-06 Explore a little known side of the lesbian artistic world With this book you'll explore the work of the most significant contemporary Latina lesbian writers artists and performers in the United States Latin America and Spain This book presents and analyzes literature art and poetry by women who despite markedly different backgrounds and experiences are all strongly influenced by the concept of lesbian identity Latina Lesbian Writers and Artists begins with an essential A to Z overview of modern Latina lesbian authors and performers From Cuban writer Magaly Alabau to literary critic Yvonne Yarbro Bejarano you ll learn who these women are where they re from and what they ve chosen as the focus of their work The rest of the book is structured to give you a look at the work Latina lesbians in the United States and then moves geographically outward first to Latin America then to Spain Tortilleras on the Prairie Latina Lesbians Writing the Midwest provides a unique look at a much neglected component of Latina lesbian writingthat of the Latinas living far from the East and West Coast hubs of both Latino and queer cultures exploring Latina lesbian literary production in places like Kansas and Nebraska The Role of Carmelita Tropicana in the Performance Art of Alina Troyano appraises the imaginative hilarious and insightful work of Cuban American performance artist Alina Troyano better known by her stage name Carmelita Tropicana examining the strategies she used code switching the breaking of heterosexist norms the development of alter egos and more to create a hybrid identity as an artist and performer Moving La Frontera Toward a Genuine Radical Democracy in Gloria Anzald a s Work shows us how Anzald a s pivotal work Borderlands has revolutionized academic perceptions of the border and of identity in Latin American U S Latino literature You ll also find passionate poetry created by Latina lesbians Como Sabes Depresi n is a fragment of a passionate bilingual poem written by an English speaking poet enamored of the Spanish language and To Sor Juana is a poem dedicated to the seventeenth century poet and nun who has become an icon among Latina lesbians Lesbianism and Caricature in Griselda Gambaro s Lo impenetrable shows how lesbian characters and themes in the works of this Argentine novelist are used to satirize and undermine the perverse social values of patriarchal dictatorship The In visible Lesbian The Contradictory Representations of Female Homoeroticism in Contemporary Spain introduces us to some of Spain s lesbian authors and communicates the difficulties lesbian writers in that country and around the world have had in finding a receptive audience     Routledge Library Editions: Literature and Sexuality Various Authors,2021-02-25 This set brings together a collection of classic out of print works that offer some surprising new takes on the theme of sexuality in literature Whether examining new spaces by unrepresented women writers of colour or looking afresh at gay writings of the early twentieth century this set presents a thought provoking take on the subject and as such is an essential reference source     The Waste Fix William G. Little,2020-03-11 First published in 2002 This book explores the philosophical social and aesthetic implications of twentieth century America s obsession with eliminating waste Through interdisciplinary engagement with fiction and popular culture William Little traces the way this obsession finds expression in powerful social forces e g the drive to consume conspicuously the Progressive era campaign to manage scientifically the current demand to reduce reuse recycle and shows how such forces are governed by an idealism that links proper treatment of waste with the promise of salvation     Allegories of Violence Lidia Yuknavitch,2013-12-16 Allegories of Violence demilitarizes the concept of war and asks what would happen if we understood war as discursive via late 20th Century novels of war      Staging Women's Lives in Academia Michelle A. Massé, Nan Bauer-Maglin, 2017-01-12

Staging Women's Lives in Academia demonstrates how ostensibly personal decisions are shaped by institutions and advocates for ways that workplaces not women must be changed Addressing life stages ranging from graduate school through retirement these essays represent a gamut of institutions and women who draw upon both personal experience and scholarly expertise The contributors contemplate the slipperiness of the very categories we construct to explain the stages of life and ask key questions such as what does it mean to be a graduate student at fifty Or a full professor at thirty five The book explores the ways women in all stages of academia feel that they are always too young or too old too attentive to work or too overly focused on family By including the voices of those who leave as well as those who stay this collection signals the need to rebuild the house of academia so that women can have not only classrooms of their own but also lives of their own
