Performing Self Compositions Decompos:

Petronius and the Anatomy of Fiction Victoria Rimell, 2002-11-28 Petronius Satyricon long regarded as the first novel of the Western tradition has always sparked controversy It has been puzzled over as a strikingly modernist riddle elevated as a work of exemplary comic realism condemned as obscene and repackaged as a morality tale This reading of the surviving portions of the work shows how the Satyricon fuses the anarchic and the classic the comic and the disturbing and presents readers with a labyrinth of narratorial viewpoints Dr Rimell argues that the surviving fragments are connected by an imagery of disintegration focused on the pervasive Neronian metaphor of the literary text as a human or animal body Throughout she discusses the limits of dominant twentieth century views of the Satyricon as bawdy pantomime and challenges prevailing restrictions of Petronian corporeality to material or non metaphorical realms This novel emerges as both very Roman and very satirical in its intestinal view of reality

Postcolonial Criticism Bart Moore-Gilbert, Gareth Stanton, Willy Maley, 2014-05-12 Post colonial theory is a relatively new area in critical contemporary studies having its foundations more Postcolonial Criticism brings together some of the most important critical writings in the field and aims to present a clear overview of and introduction to one of the most exciting and rapidly developing areas of contemporary literary criticism It charts the development of the field both historically and conceptually from its beginnings in the early post war period to the present day The first phase of postcolonial criticism is recorded here in the pioneering work of thinkers like Aim C saire Frantz Fanon Edward Said and Gayatri Spivak More recently a new generation of academics have provided fresh assessments of the interaction of class race and gender in cultural production and this generation is represented in the work of Aijaz Ahmad bell hooks Homi Bhabha Abdul JanMohamed and David Lloyd Topics covered include negritude national culture orientalism subalternity ambivalence hybridity white settler societies gender and colonialism culturalism commonwealth literature and minority discourse The collection includes an extensive general introduction which clearly sets out the key stages figures and debates in the field The editors point to the variety even conflict within the field but also stress connections and parallels between the various figures and debates which they identify as central to an understanding of it The introduction is followed by a series of ten essays which have been carefully chosen to reflect both the diversity and continuity of postcolonial criticism Each essay is supported by a short introduction which places it in context with the rest of the author's work and identifies how its salient arguments contribute to the field as a whole This is a field which covers many disciplines including literary theory cultural studies philosophy geography economics history and politics It is designed to fit into the current modular arrangement of courses and is therefore suitable for undergraduate and postgraduate courses which address postcolonial issues and the new literatures in English

Make to Know: From Spaces of Uncertainty to Creative Discovery Lorne M. Buchman, 2021-10-12 A journey through the minds of some of the most creative people on the planet reveals that creativity is rarely a lightbulb moment and instead arrives through a process of making and self understanding The creative process is winding It involves entertaining uncertainty and improvising new paths to knowing In this insightful and informed book Lorne M Buchman an international leader in art and design education and president of ArtCenter College of Design in Pasadena California guides readers through stories of a diverse and talented group of artists entrepreneurs innovators and designers Including such luminaries as Yves B har Chris Kraus Zack Snyder Paula Scher and Frank Gehry and businesses like Apple and Tesla who have changed the world as we know it Buchman focuses on the revelatory nature of the creative journey itself Michelangelo is said to have seen the angel in the stone and carved away until he set him free Make to Know is about making as a path to knowing presenting creativity as a carving away toward a revelation not as a fully formed epiphany gleaned from a mysterious ether As Buchman reveals throughout this provocative book uncertainty is the space where discovery happens and where creators can be both playful and imaginative Whether you re an artist designer writer daydreamer or doodler anyone can learn from these lessons on the varied paths to self expression

Literature Politics & Theory Francis Barker, Peter Hulme, Margaret Iversen, Diana Loxley, 2013-10-08 First Published in 2002 Modes and categories inherited from the past no longer seem to fit the reality experienced by a new generation New Accents is intended as a positive response to the initiative offered by such a situation Each volume in the series will seek to encourage rather than resist the process of change to stretch rather than reinforce the boundaries that currently define literature and its academic study The present selection of papers made from nearly two hundred published represents in some measure the diversity of the work at the eight Essex Sociology of Literature Conferences Orientalism A.
