Dress, Adornment, and the Body in the Hebrew Bible Laura Quick, 2021-02-09 Dress Adornment and the Body in the Hebrew Bible is the first monograph to treat dress and adornment in biblical literature in the English language It moves beyond a description of these aspects of ancient life to encompass notions of interpersonal relationships and personhood that underpin practices of dress and adornment Laura Quick explores the ramifications of body adornment in the biblical world informed by a methodologically plural approach incorporating material culture alongside philology textual exegesis comparative evidence and sociological models Drawing upon and synthesizing insights from material culture and texts from across the eastern Mediterranean the volume reconstructs the social meanings attached to the dressed body in biblical texts It shows how body adornment can deepen understanding of attitudes towards the self in the ancient world In Quick s reconstruction of ancient performances of the self the body serves as the observed centre in which complex ideologies of identity gender sexuality ethnicity and social status are articulated The adornment of the body is thus an effective means of non verbal communication but one which at the same time is controlled by and dictated through normative social values Exploring dress adornment and the body can therefore open up hitherto unexplored perspectives on these social values in the ancient world an essential missing piece in understanding the social and cultural world which shaped the Hebrew Bible

Body Technologies in the Greco-Roman World Maria Gerolemou, Giulia Maria Chesi, 2023-11-16 A collection of papers that introduces the notion of the technosoma techno body into discussions on the representations of the body in classical antiquity By applying the category of the technosoma to the natural body this volume explicitly narrows down the discussion of the technical and the natural to the physiological body In doing so the present collection focuses on body technologies in the specific form of beautification and body enhancement techniques as well as medical and surgical treatments The volume elucidates two main points Firstly ancient techno bodies show that the categories of gender and sexuality are at the core of the intersection of the natural and the technical and intersect with notions of race age speciesism class and education and disability Secondly the collection argues that new body technologies have in fact a very ancient history that can help to address the challenges of contemporary technological innovation To this end the volume showcases the intersection of natural bodies with technology gender sexuality and reproduction On the one hand techno bodies tend to align with normative ideas about gender and sexuality On the other hand body modification and or enhancement techniques work hand in hand with economic and political power and knowledge thus they often produce techno bodies that are shaped according to individual needs i e according to a certain lifestyle Consequently techno bodies threaten to alter traditional ideas of masculinity femininity male and female sexuality and beauty

Essence and Alchemy Mandy Aftel, 2002-05 For centuries people have taken what seems to be an instinctive pleasure in rubbing scents into their skin and using them to pray to heal and to make love Yet in many ways perfumery is a lost art its creative and sensual possibilities eclipsed by the dominance of synthetic ingredients In Essence and Alchemy winner of the Sense of Smell Institute's Richard B Solomon Award Mandy Aftel unearths a forgotten world in which scent was celebrated by poets contemplated by philosophers and universally appreciated for its profound resonance with body mind and soul And she seduces the adventurous into experiencing firsthand the pleasures of working with natural essences

Sweat,2013-08-15 Scholarship on the Gospel of Mark has long been convinced of the paradoxical description of two of its primary themes christology and discipleship This book argues that paradoxical language pervades the entire narrative and that it serves a theological purpose in describing God s activity Part One focuses on divine action present in Mark 4 10 12 In the first paradox Mark portrays God s revelatory acts as consistently accompanied by concealment The second paradox is shown in the various ways in which divine action confirms yet counters scripture Finally Mark describes God s actions in ways that indicate both wastefulness and goodness deeds that are further illuminated by the ongoing yet defeated presence of evil Part Two demonstrates that this paradoxical language is widely attested across Mark s passion narrative as he continues to depict God s activity with the use of the three paradoxes observed in Mark 4 Through paradoxical narrative Mark emphasizes God s transcendence and presence showing that even though Jesus has brought revelation a complete understanding of God remains tantalizingly out of their grasp until the eschaton 4 22 Dress Hermeneutics and the Hebrew Bible Antonios Finitis, 2022-05-19 Antonios Finitis and contributors continue their examination of dress and clothing in the Hebrew Bible in this collection of illuminating essays Straddling the divide between the material and the ideological this book lends shape and texture to topics including social standing agency and the motif of cloth and clothing in Esther Essays also explore the function of dress metaphors in imprecatory Psalms the symbolic function of headdresses and the divine clothing of Adam and Eve and the hermeneutics of trauma recovery Together the contributors continue to shape scholarly discourse on a growing body of scholarship on dress in the Bible By turning their analytical gaze to this primary evidence the contributors are able to reveal the social psychological aesthetic ideological and symbolic meanings of dress in the Hebrew Bible thereby producing insights into the literature and cultural world of the ancient Near East
