counties Those who are pledged to entire abstinence are so connected in these associations with other denominations that their number cannot be stated very definitely from the reports which we have received however we may safely say that in the communities where the missionaries labor the number of pledges cannot be less than 105 000 The red men of the West have boon greatly blessed by our enterprise In their conscious weakness before the terrible destroyer they have enacted the most stringent laws against its introduction But yet they are its constant victims Writes a missionary among them Many hundreds of the Choctaws have perished by means of strong drink furnished them in all cases by white men The Choctaws have never had a distillery They are indebted to their white neighbors for the existence of intoxicating drinks And such men open little grog shops along the State Lines near the Indian reservation and keep large supplies of whisky and other kinds of ardent spirits Since I came to this country in December 1835 nearly forty persons have perished from spirits obtained along the Line on a distance of thirty miles Some have been drowned some frozen to death some rode with violence against the limbs of trees and were killed some of the number were killed while fighting with pine knots knives or clubs The tale is a shocking one There is much yet to do in this work among the Choctaws Who is answerable for all these murders % The crowd of emigrants continually pressing to our shores and welcome they are to the enjoyment of our rich soil and all our social civil literary and religious privileges at present strengthen mightily the power of intemperance Permanent Temperance Documents American Temperance Union,2019-08-13 This is a reproduction of the original artefact Generally these books are created from careful scans of the original This allows us to preserve the book accurately and present it in the way the author intended Since the original versions are generally quite old there may occasionally be certain imperfections within these reproductions We re happy to make these classics available again for future generations to enjoy Permanent Temperance Documents of the American Temperance Society ,1841 Permanent Temperance Documents American Temperance Union,1846 Permanent Temperance Documents American Temperance Union,1851 The Political Power of Bad Ideas Mark Lawrence Schrad,2010-03-24 In The Political Power of Bad Ideas Mark Schrad uses one of the greatest oddities of modern history the broad diffusion throughout the Western world of alcohol control legislation in the early twentieth century to make a powerful argument about how bad policy ideas achieve international success His could an idea that was widely recognized by experts as bad before adoption and which ultimately failed everywhere come to be adopted throughout the world To answer the question Schrad utilizes an institutionalist approach and focuses in particular on the United States Sweden and Russia the USSR Conventional wisdom based largely on the U S experience blames evangelical zealots for the success of the temperance movement Yet as Schrad shows ten countries along with numerous colonial possessions enacted prohibition laws In virtually every case the consequences were disastrous and in every country the law was ultimately repealed Schrad concentrates on the dynamic interaction of ideas and political institutions tracing the process through which concepts of dubious merit gain momentum and achieve credibility as they wend their way through institutional structures He also shows that national policy and institutional environments count the policy may have been broadly adopted but countries dealt with the issue in different ways While The Political Power of Bad Ideas focuses on one legendary episode its argument about how and why bad policies achieve legitimacy applies far more broadly It also extends beyond the simplistic notion that ideas matter to show how they influence institutional contexts and interact with a nation's political actors institutions and policy dynamics One Hundred Years of Temperance National Temperance Society and Publication House, 1885
