The Politics of Decolonial Investigations Walter D. Mignolo, 2021-07-09 In The Politics of Decolonial Investigations Walter D Mignolo provides a sweeping examination of how coloniality has operated around the world in its myriad forms from the sixteenth century to the twenty first Decolonial border thinking allows Mignolo to outline how the combination of the self fashioned narratives of Western civilization and the hegemony of Eurocentric thought served to eradicate all knowledges in non European languages and praxes of living and being Mignolo also traces the geopolitical origins of racialized and gendered classifications modernity globalization and cosmopolitanism placing them all within the framework of coloniality Drawing on the work of theorists and decolonial practitioners from the Global South and the Global East Mignolo shows how coloniality has provoked the emergence of decolonial politics initiated by delinking from all forms of Western knowledge and subjectivities The urgent task Mignolo stresses is the epistemic reconstitution of categories of thought and praxes of living destituted in the very process of building Western civilization and the idea of modernity The overcoming of the long lasting hegemony of the West and its distorted legacies is already underway in all areas of human existence Mignolo underscores the relevance of the politics of decolonial investigations in and outside the academy to liberate ourselves from canonized knowledge ways of knowing and praxes of living Life Is a Song of Love Sally Patton, 2023-10-27 For over half her life Sally Patton has engaged in a contemplative spiritual practice to awaken from separation consciousness In Life Is a Song of Love she draws upon channeled non dual teachings from Yeshua and Mother Mary combined with a variety of teachings from many faith traditions and spiritual paths to answer a unique call to be an emissary of Divine Feminine Compassionate Consciousness The Holy Mother has returned to heal into wholeness the division between feminine and masculine energies necessary to end thousands of years of patriarchal domination Sally helps women wake to the strength of the Mother within embracing the sacredness of all life on Mother Earth Incest and Its Impact on Survivors Marion Princk, 2025-07-22 This book is a small collection of topics on various consequences of trauma and daily challenges faced by survivors of sexual violence within the family In the context of family this means from childhood onward The book also recounts part of my healing journey which would not have been possible without the invaluable practical knowledge and unparalleled dedication of the victim protection organization El Faro Berlin Through active work with other survivors I have gained knowledge and experience over time that provide a small insight into the full extent of such complex trauma as sexual violence perpetrated by one s own parents and close confidants Every fate is unique and often involves complex personal issues and long term consequences Incest typically involves developmental trauma which often leads to further danger and violence in adulthood Therefore breaking off contact and protecting victims are crucial to achieving a safe and self determined life The experiences described are based on the concept of help for self help and offer suggestions for improving quality of life fostering security and developing a deeper understanding of these experiences This book is intended for survivors interested parties and dedicated helpers Decolonizing Wealth, Second Edition Edgar Villanueva, 2011-09-06 This second edition expands the provocative analysis of the racist colonial dynamics at play in philanthropy and finance into other sectors and offers practical advice on how anyone can be a healer The world is out of balance With increasing frequency we are presented with the inescapable truth that systemic racism and colonial structures are foundational principles to our economies The 1 trillion philanthropic industry is one example of a system that mirrors oppressive colonial behavior It s an industry whose name means the love for humankind yet it does more harm than good In Decolonizing Wealth Edgar Villanueva looks past philanthropy s glamorous altruistic fa ade and into its shadows white supremacy savior complexes and internalized oppression Across history and to the present day the accumulation of wealth is steeped in trauma How can we shift philanthropy toward social reconciliation and healing if the cornerstones are exploitation extraction and control Drawing from Native traditions Villanueva empowers individuals and institutions to begin to repair the damage through his Seven Steps to Healing In this second edition Villanueva adds inspiring examples of people using their resources to decolonize entertainment museums libraries land ownership and much more Everyone can be a healer and a leader in restoring balance and we need everyone to do their part As Villanueva writes All our suffering is mutual All our healing is mutual All our thriving is mutual Are you ready The Local Impact of the International Criminal Court Marieke Wierda, 2023-07-20 An analysis of the local impact of the International Criminal Court in four countries Afghanistan Colombia Libya and Uganda Decolonizing Wealth Edgar Villanueva, 2018-10-16 Decolonizing Wealth is a provocative analysis of the dysfunctional colonial dynamics at play in philanthropy and finance Award winning philanthropy executive Edgar Villanueva draws from the traditions from the Native way to prescribe the medicine for restoring balance and healing our divides Though it seems counterintuitive the philanthropic industry has evolved to mirror colonial structures and reproduces hierarchy ultimately doing more harm than good After 14 years in philanthropy Edgar Villanueva has seen past the field s glamorous altruistic fa ade and into its shadows the old boy networks the savior complexes and the internalized oppression among the house slaves and those select few people of color who gain access All these funders reflect and perpetuate the same underlying dynamics that divide Us from Them and the haves from have nots In equal measure he denounces the reproduction of systems of oppression while also advocating for an orientation towards justice to open the floodgates for a rising tide that lifts all boats In the third and final section Villanueva offers radical provocations to funders and outlines his Seven Steps for Healing With great compassion because the Native way is to bring the oppressor into the circle of healing Villanueva is able to both diagnose the fatal flaws in philanthropy and provide thoughtful solutions to these systemic imbalances Decolonizing Wealth is a timely and critical book that preaches for mutually assured liberation in which we are all inter connected Local Theories of Argument Dale Hample, 2021-03-25 Argumentation is often understood as a coherent set of Western theories birthed in Athens and developing throughout the Roman period the Middle Ages the

Enlightenment and Renaissance and into the present century Ideas have been nuanced developed and revised but still the outline of argumentation theory has been recognizable for centuries or so it has seemed to Western scholars The 2019 Alta Conference on Argumentation co sponsored by the National Communication Association and the American Forensic Association aimed to question the generality of these intellectual traditions This resulting collection of essays deals with the possibility of having local theories of argument local to a particular time a particular kind of issue a particular place or a particular culture Many of the papers argue for reconsidering basic ideas about arguing to represent the uniqueness of some moment or location of discourse Other scholars are more comfortable with the Western traditions and find them congenial to the analysis of arguments that originate in discernibly distinct circumstances The papers represent different methodologies cover the experiences of different nations at different times examine varying sorts of argumentative events speeches court decisions food choices and sound explore particular personal identities and the issues highlighted by them and have different overall orientations to doing argumentation scholarship Considered together the essays do not generate one simple conclusion but they stimulate reflection about the particularity or generality of the experience of arguing and therefore the scope of our theories Humanitarianism, Human Rights, and Security Nina Perkowski, 2020-12-30 Examining the relationship between humanitarianism human rights and security in the governance of borders and migration this book analyses the case of the European Border and Coast Guard Agency Frontex challenging the common assumption that humanitarianism and human rights provide a critical basis for countering securitisation Arguing that these are not three opposing discourses and modes of governing the author contributes to a deeper understanding of their connections and combined effects in border governance Drawing on ethnographic fieldwork interviews and document analysis the book offers three perspectives on Frontex's changing relationship to humanitarianism and human rights In doing so it provides a multifaceted account of Frontex and its gradual appropriation of what are often considered pro migrant discourses Combining organisational sociology with a Foucauldian analysis the book speaks to ongoing debates on continuity and change in the security field and provides insights into studying security organisations more generally Drawing on insights from Critical Migration and Border Studies Critical Security Studies Critical Humanitarianism and Human Rights Studies and Organisational Sociology the book will generate interest to multiple disciplines including Sociology International Relations Politics Anthropology European Studies and Geography Laws and Societies in Global Contexts Eve Darian-Smith, 2013-01-31 This text promotes a more global sociolegal perspective that engages with multiple laws and societies and diverse sociolegal systems based on very different historical and cultural traditions interacting on multiple local national and global levels The approach to global legal pluralism seeks to provide a framework for envisioning new global governance regimes that move beyond state based solutions to deal with trenchant transnational challenges Violence and Gender in the Globalized World Sanja Bahun, V.G. Julie Rajan, 2024-11-01 Violence and Gender in the Globalized

World expands the critical picture of gender and violence in the age of globalization by introducing a variety of uncommonly discussed geo political sites and dynamics The volume hosts methodologically and disciplinarily diverse contributions from around the world discussing various contexts including Chechnya Germany Iraq Kenya Malaysia Nicaragua Palestine the former Yugoslavia Syria South Africa the United States and the Internet Bringing together scholars and activists historicized and site specific perspectives this book bridges the gap between theory and practice concerning violence gender and agency In this revised and updated edition the scope of inquiry is expanded to incorporate phenomena that have recently come to the forefront of public and scholarly scrutiny such as Internet based discourses of violence female suicide bombers and the Islamic State s violence against women At the same time new data and developments are brought to bear on earlier discussions of violence against women across the globe in order to bring them fully up to date With an international team of contributors comprising eminent scholars activists and policy makers this volume will be of interest to anyone conducting research in the areas of gender and sexuality human rights cultural studies law sociology political science history post Race, Racism, and International Law Devon W. colonialism and colonialism anthropology philosophy and religion Carbado, Kimberlé Williams Crenshaw, Justin Desautels-Stein, Chantal Thomas, 2025-08-19 What would it look like to place race at the center of international legal scholarship From its inception in the 70s and 80s critical race theory s target was the field of law revealing it to be a repository for racial power This particular critique of law was explosive because of law s putatively apolitical status making it a unique site for an intellectual sit in that has forever changed the way that race and racism are understood in American society Several decades later as indicators of populism and white nationalism spread across North America and Europe critical race theory remains markedly absent from discourses in global affairs and international law This volume opens the door for CRT to enter the international sphere Featuring contributions from 30 of today s leading scholars from around the world Race Racism and International Law explains how the concept of racial difference sits at the foundation of the legal political and social structures of hierarchy that shape the contemporary global order Helmed by four pioneering experts two in CRT and two in international law the volume s approach targets regimes of power and violence that implicate racism capitalism and colonialism This volume lays the groundwork for urgent and provocative new modes of critique and analysis Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Bangladesh Ali Riaz, Mohammad Sajjadur Rahman, 2016-01-29 In the past decade Bangladesh has achieved significant social and economic progress Despite high population density a limited natural resource base underdeveloped infrastructure frequent natural disasters and political uncertainty the country has recorded positive developments in terms of broad economic and social indicators This Handbook presents a comprehensive and interdisciplinary resource on the politics society and economy of Bangladesh today Divided into six thematic sections the Handbook focuses on relevant issues and trends on History and the making of contemporary Bangladesh Politics and institutions Economy and development Energy and environment State society and

Davidson, 2020-07-02 Explores how two landmark important country transnational human rights lawsuits operated as transitional justice mechanisms in the former Western bloc Development of International Human Rights Law Fionnuala D. Ní Aoláin, 2017-07-05 The essays selected for this volume written by some of the worlds most respected experts on human rights encompass the development of human rights law from its philosophical underpinnings and address many of its current controversies. The collected essays explore the drafting of major human rights instruments including the political challenges that shaped those instruments examine the interrelationship of various claimed rights and identify factors producing compliance with and violation of human rights law Other contributions analyze the role of non governmental organizations in achieving better human rights protections as well as the danger of claiming too many rights and the tension between rights and security Contrasting viewpoints in several essays highlight some of the key conflicts in the field An introductory essay provides a roadmap marking the collection s major themes and tracing the relationship between those themes Taken together the essays emphasize the legal underpinnings of the human rights regime and as such the collection provides an essential wide ranging account of this important part of international law procedure and practice Reunion with Source James Gilliland, 2016-01-20 Reunion with Source is gentle wisdom from a very high source Tom Dongo author of Alien Tide After a near death experience in 1979 James Gilliland opened to interdimensional reality and met Cazekiel better known as Ezekiel in biblical days Together James and Cazekiel prophesied the 1994 collision of comets with Jupiter followed by escalating earth changes Reunion with Source offers practical advice on renewing the mind cultivating healthy relationships and parenting young masters It also presents a bold new perspective on ancient history divine intervention biblical pillar clouds and chariots of fire and the mystery schools The rare simplicity and elegance of Reunion with Source inspires with spirit prophecy and play It transcends religious and scientific dogma to expand social consciousness Join these celestial messengers in their adventure into the nature of reality and interdimensional mind Mobility Makes States Darshan Vigneswaran, Joel Quirk, 2015-04-22 Human mobility has long played a foundational role in producing state territories resources and hierarchies When people move within and across national boundaries they create both challenges and opportunities In Mobility Makes States chapters written by historians political scientists sociologists and anthropologists explore different patterns of mobility in sub Saharan Africa and how African states have sought to harness these movements toward their own ends While border control and intercontinental migration policies remain important topics of study Mobility Makes States demonstrates that immigration control is best understood alongside parallel efforts by states in Africa to promote both long distance and everyday movements The contributors challenge the image of a fixed and static state that is concerned only with stopping foreign migrants at its border and show that the politics of mobility takes place across a wide range of locations including colonial hinterlands workplaces camps foreign countries and city streets They examine short term and circular migrations everyday commuting and urban expansion forced migrations emigrations diasporic communities and the mobility of gatekeepers and officers of the state who push and pull migrant populations in different directions Through the experiences and trajectories of migration in sub Saharan Africa this empirically rich volume sheds new light on larger global patterns and state making processes Contributors Eric Allina Oliver Bakewell Pamila Gupta Nauja Kleist Loren B Landau Joel Quirk Benedetta Rossi Filipa Ribeiro da Silva Simon Turner Darshan Vigneswaran Hate Crime in America Danielle Smith-Llera, 2020 Hate crime in the United States is on the rise The FBI has reported that hate crimes rose by 17 percent in 2017 increasing for the third straight year and the trend continued into 2018 and 2019 The crimes are most commonly motivated by hatred related to race ethnicity or country of origin Many crimes are also motivated by bias against sexual orientation or gender identity Students will learn why hate crime is on the rise and how they can help combat it The Long Defeat Akiko Hashimoto, 2015-05-05 In The Long Defeat Akiko Hashimoto explores the stakes of war memory in Japan after its catastrophic defeat in World War II showing how and why defeat has become an indelible part of national collective life especially in recent decades Divisive war memories lie at the root of the contentious politics surrounding Japan's pacifist constitution and remilitarization and fuel the escalating frictions in East Asia known collectively as Japan's history problem Drawing on ethnography interviews and a wealth of popular memory data this book identifies three preoccupations national belonging healing and justice in Japan s discourses of defeat Hashimoto uncovers the key war memory narratives that are shaping Japan's choices nationalism pacifism or reconciliation for addressing the rising international tensions and finally overcoming its dark history Transitional Justice Citizen Briony Jones, 2023-03-02 Building a thorough and comprehensive understanding of the limits of transitional justice theory in historically understudied regions this innovative book proposes a new concept of the transitional justice citizen as both an active seeker and receiver of justice Briony Jones addresses contemporary criticism of transitional justice theory and practice in order to improve our understanding of the agency of people at times of transition

Ethics in Action Daniel A. Bell, Jean-Marc Coicaud, 2006-10-16 This book is the product of a multi year dialogue between leading human rights theorists and high level representatives of international human rights NGOs INGOs It is divided into three parts that reflect the major ethical challenges discussed at the workshops the ethical challenges associated with interaction between relatively rich and powerful northern based human rights INGOs and recipients of their aid in the South whether and how to collaborate with governments that place severe restrictions on the activities of human rights INGOs and the tension between expanding the organization s mandate to address more fundamental social and economic problems and restricting it for the sake of focusing on more immediate and clearly identifiable violations of civil and political rights Each section contains contributions by both theorists and practitioners of human rights
