The American Bibliography of Slavic and East European Studies Patt Leonard, Rebecca Routh, 2020-02-27 This bibliography first published in 1957 provides citations to North American academic literature on Europe Central Europe the Balkans the Baltic States and the former Soviet Union Organised by discipline it covers the arts humanities social sciences life sciences and technology Holocaust and Human Rights Education Michael Polgar, 2018-11-30 Educators and students face many questions when exploring the history of the Holocaust This book addresses the ways in which we teach and learn about the Holocaust applying sociological concepts and discussing the wider implications of the Holocaust on human rights and international law The Jew in Czech and Slovak Imagination, 1938-89 Hana Kubátová, Jan Láníček, 2018-01-29 The Jew in Czech and Slovak Imagination 1938 89 is the first critical inquiry into the nature of anti Jewish prejudices in both main parts of former Czechoslovakia The authors identify anti Jewish prejudices over almost fifty years of the twentieth century focusing primarily on the post Munich period and the Second World War 1938 45 the post war reconstruction 1945 48 as well as the Communist rule with both its thaws and returns to hardline rule 1948 89 It is a provocative examination of the construction of the image of the Jew in the Czech and Slovak majority societies the assigning of character and other traits real or imaginary to individuals or groups The book analyses the impact of these constructed images on the attitudes of the majority societies towards the Jews and on Holocaust memory in the country This meticulously researched study covers the late 1930s to the 1960s in Czechoslovakia then when Slovakia became a separate country under Nazi domination during WW II and much of the Czech Republic was a German protectorate Summing Up Highly recommended Graduate students faculty professionals R M Seltzer emeritus Hunter College CUNY in CHOICE 55 12 2018

Political Violence and the Imagination Mathias Thaler, Mihaela Mihai, 2020-09-10 Using a variety of theoretical reflections and empirically grounded case studies this book examines how certain kinds of imagination political artistic historical philosophical help us tackle the challenge of comprehending and responding to various forms of political violence Understanding political violence is a complex task which involves a variety of operations from examining the social macro structures within which actors engage in violence to investigating the motives and drives of individual perpetrators This book focuses on the faculty of imagination and its role in facilitating our normative and critical engagement with political violence It interrogates how the imagination can help us deal with past as well as ongoing instances of political violence Several questions which have thus far received too little attention from political theorists motivate this project Can certain forms of imagination artistic historical philosophical help us tackle the challenge of comprehending and responding to unprecedented forms of violence What is the ethical and political value of artworks depicting human rights violations in the aftermath of conflicts What about the use of thought experiments in justifying policy measures with regard to violence What forms of political imagination can foster solidarity and catalyse political action This book opens up a forum for an inclusive and reflexive debate on the role that the imagination can play in unpacking complex issues of political violence The chapters in this book were originally published in a special issue of the journal Critical Review of International Social and Political Philosophy Human Freedom in the Age of AI Filippo Santoni de Sio,2024-03-29 This book claims that artificial intelligence AI may affect our freedom at work in our daily life and in the political sphere The author provides a philosophical framework to help make sense of and govern the ethical and political impact of AI in these domains AI presents great opportunities and risks raising the question of how to reap its potential benefits without endangering basic human and societal values The author identifies three major risks for human freedom First AI offers employers new forms of control of the workforce opening the door to new forms of domination and exploitation Second it may reduce our capacity to remain in control of and responsible for our decisions and actions thereby affecting our free will and moral responsibility Third it may increase the power of governments and tech companies to steer the political debate thereby affecting the possibility of a free and inclusive political participation The author claims that it is still possible to promote human freedom in our interactions with AI This requires designing AI systems that help promote workers freedom strengthen human control and responsibility and foster a free active and inclusive democratic participation Human Freedom in the Age of AI will be of interest to scholars and graduate students working on the ethics of technology philosophy of technology political philosophy design and artificial intelligence Perceptions of the Holocaust in Europe and Muslim Communities Günther Jikeli,Joëlle Allouche-Benayoun,2012-11-08 The way people think about the Holocaust is changing The particular nature of the transformation depends on people s historical perspectives and how they position themselves and their nation or community vis vis the tragedy Understandably European Muslims perceive the Holocaust as less central to their history than do other Europeans Yet while the acknowledgement and commemoration of the horrors of the Holocaust are increasingly important in Europe Holocaust denial and biased views on the Holocaust are widespread in European Muslims countries of origin In this book a number of distinguished scholars and educators of various backgrounds discuss views of the Holocaust Problematic views are often influenced by a persistent attitude of Holocaust denial which is derived in part from discourses in the Muslim communities in their countries of origin The essays collected here explore the backgrounds of these perceptions and highlight positive approaches and developments Many of the contributions were written by people working in the field and reflecting on their experiences This collection also reveals that problematic views of the Holocaust are not limited to Muslim communities Probing the Limits of Categorization Christina Morina,Krijn Thijs,2018-11-29 Of the three categories that Raul Hilberg developed in his analysis of the Holocaust perpetrators victims and bystanders it is the last that is the broadest and most difficult to pinpoint Described by Hilberg as those who were once a part of this history bystanders present unique challenges for those seeking to understand the decisions attitudes and self understanding of historical actors who were neither obviously the instigators nor the targets of Nazi crimes Combining historiographical conceptual and empirical perspectives on the bystander the case studies in this book provide powerful insights into the complex social processes that accompany state sponsored genocidal violence The Holocaust in the Twenty-First Century David M.

Seymour, Mercedes Camino, 2016-10-14 This volume locates and explores historical and contemporary sites of contested meanings of Holocaust memory across a range of geographical geo political and disciplinary contexts identifying and critically engaging with the nature and expression of these meanings within their relevant contexts elucidating the political social and cultural underpinnings and consequences of these meanings and offering interventions in the contemporary debates of Holocaust memory that suggest ways forward for the future Perpetrators of International Crimes Alette

Smeulers, Maartje Weerdesteijn, Barbora Holá, 2019-02-07 Why would anyone commit a mass atrocity such as genocide crimes against humanity war crimes or terrorism This question is at the core of the multi and interdisciplinary field of perpetrator studies a developing field which this book assesses in its full breadth for the first time Perpetrators of International Crimes analyses the most prominent theories methods and evidence to determine what we know what we think we know as well as the ethical implications of gathering this knowledge It traces the development of perpetrator studies whilst pushing the boundaries of this emerging field The book includes contributions from experts from a wide array of disciplines including criminology history law sociology psychology political science religious studies and anthropology They cover numerous case studies including prominent ones such as Nazi Germany Rwanda and the former Yugoslavia but also those that are relatively under researched and more recent such as Sri Lanka and the Islamic State These have been investigated through various research methods including but not limited to trial observations and interviews The Holocaust and Compensated

Compliance in Italy Alexis Herr, 2017-02-14 This book analyzes the role and function of an Italian deportation camp during and immediately after World War Two within the context of Italian European and Holocaust history Drawing upon archival documents trial proceedings memoirs and testimonies Herr investigates the uses of Fossoli as an Italian prisoner of war camp for Allied soldiers captured in North Africa 1942 43 a Nazi deportation camp for Jews and political prisoners 1943 44 a postwar Italian prison for Fascists German soldiers and displaced persons 1945 47 and a Catholic orphanage 1947 52 This case study shines a spotlight on victims perpetrators Resistance fighters and local collaborators to depict how the Holocaust unfolded in a small town and how postwar conditions supported a story of national innocence This book trains a powerful lens on the multi layered history of Italy during the Holocaust and illuminates key elements of local involvement largely ignored by Italian wartime and postwar narratives particularly compensated compliance compliance for financial gain the normalization of mass murder and the industrialization of the Judeocide in Italy Collaboration with the Nazis Roni Stauber, 2010-09-13 This book examines the changes in representing collaboration during the Holocaust especially in the destruction of European Jewry in the public discourse and the historiography of various countries in Europe that were occupied by the Germans or were considered at least during part of the war as Germany's allies or satellites In particular it shows how representations and responses have been conditioned by national and political trends and constraints As historical background to the issues of postwar collective memory and public discourse it includes references to and short descriptions of major manifestations of collaboration chiefly in regards to the Jews in each of these countries during the war Whether they were Communist or democratic regimes the book shows how the sudden burden of the past was suppressed denied or distorted in various periods Covering a wide area of both Eastern and Western Europe from different specialist perspectives this comprehensive study of collaboration in the Holocaust and its aftermath will be a valuable tool for teachers and students in the field of modern European history and Holocaust studies Confusions and Clarifications F. F.

Centore,1997 This book brings together the chief elements of 3 000 years of philosophy as found mainly in Western thought in a highly readable form The work concentrates on problems and issues much more than on names dates and places he book includes an extensive bibliography of works related to the main themes of the text followed by a long list of names and dates of leading historical figures in various fields especially in science philosophy and theology Holocaust Memories Claudia Moscovici,2019-05-16 Nearly eighty years have passed since the Holocaust There have been hundreds of memoirs histories and novels written about it yet many fear that this important event may fall into oblivion As Holocaust survivors pass away their legacy of suffering tenacity and courage could be forgotten It is up to each generation to commemorate the victims preserve their life stories and hopefully help prevent such catastrophes These were my main motivations in writing this book Holocaust Memories which includes reviews of memoirs histories biographies novels and films about the Holocaust It was difficult to choose among the multitude of books on the subject that deserve our attention I made my selections based partly on the works that are considered to be the most important on the subject partly on wishing to offer some historical background about the Holocaust in different countries and regions that were occupied by or allied themselves with Nazi Germany and partly on my personal preferences interests and knowledge The Nazis targeted European Jews as their main victims so my book focuses primarily on them At the same time since the Nazis also targeted other groups they considered dangerous and inferior I also review books about the sufferings of the Gypsies the Poles and other groups that fell victim to the Nazi regimes In the last part I review books that discuss other genocides and crimes against humanity including the Stalinist mass purges the Cambodian massacres by the Pol Pot regime and the Rwandan genocide I want to emphasize that history can indeed repeat itself even if in different forms and contexts Just as the Jews of Europe were not the only targets of genocide Fascist regimes were not its only perpetrators Constructing Genocide and Mass Violence Maureen S.

Hiebert,2017-03-16 This book addresses two closely related questions what is the process by which the relatively short and violent genocides of the twentieth century and beyond have occurred Why have these instances of mass violence been genocidal and not some other form of state violence repression or conflict Hiebert answers these questions by exploring the structures and processes that underpin the decision by political elites to commit genocide focusing on a sustained comparison of two cases the Nazi Final Solution and the Cambodian genocide The book clearly differentiates the structures and processes contained within a larger overall process that leads to genocidal violence Uncovering the mechanisms by which societies at least in the contemporary era come to experience genocide as a distinct form of destruction and not some other form of mass or political violence Hiebert is able to highlight a set of key process that lead to specifically genocidal violence Providing an insightful contribution to the burgeoning literature in this area this book will be of interest to students and scholars of genocide international relations and political violence Jewish Theatre Edna Nahshon,2009 While a frequently used term Jewish Theatre has become a contested concept that defies precise definition Is it theatre by Jews For Jews About Jews Though there are no easy answers for these questions Jewish Theatre A Global View contributes greatly to the conversation by offering an impressive collection of original essays written by an international cadre of noted scholars from Europe the United States and Israel The essays discuss historical and current texts and performance practices covering a wide gamut of genres and traditions First Language Attrition, Use and Maintenance Monika S. Schmid,2002

Accompanying CD also called a CD ROM by publisher contains excerpts from more than twenty of the interviews analyzed p 4 of cover Holocaust Public Memory in Postcommunist Romania Alexandru Florian,2018-01-24 An excellent analysis of the slow but steady evolution of Romania from heavy Holocaust denial toward a fair confrontation of its tragic past Radu Ioanid author of The Holocaust in Romania How is the Holocaust remembered in Romania since the fall of communism Alexandru Florian and an international group of contributors unveil how and why Romania a place where large segments of the Jewish and Roma populations perished still fails to address its recent past These essays focus on the roles of government and public actors that choose to promote construct defend or contest the memory of the Holocaust as well as the tools the press the media monuments and commemorations that create public memory Coming from a variety of perspectives these essays provide a compelling view of what memories exist how they are sustained how they can be distorted and how public remembrance of the Holocaust can be encouraged in Romanian society today While positive changes have taken place a large gap exists between the historical facts and public knowledge about Romania and the Holocaust This volume offers a fresh and nuanced understanding of the contemporary battles of memory in postcommunist Eastern Europe Diana Dumitru author of The State Antisemitism and Collaboration in the Holocaust An excellent and timely addition to European historiography The book consists of eight chapters most of them written by scholars affiliated with the Elie Wiesel Institute It not only shows the challenges faced in remembering Romania s involvement in the Holocaust but provides an excellent comparative analysis with other countries in the region Reading Religion Ethical Rehabilitation After the Holocaust Paul E. Wilson,2024-08-29 Genocide murders innocents in a society and it leaves behind moral corruption and societal twistedness A genocide like the Holocaust can happen only if the normative ethical commitments to honor the fundamental right to life are compromised or abandoned When a society lives through a genocide the moral imagination of peoples and collectives their ethical behaviors and even the underlying social contract become twisted and broken Societies and individuals caught within a genocide need an ethical rehabilitation to move a post genocidal society out of its ethical degradation This book discusses the steps of transitional justice as ethical ways to move individuals and societies away from lingering injustices and toward an equilibrium of justice Emotions and Mass Atrocity Thomas Brudholm,Johannes Lang,2018-03-22 A nuanced range of interdisciplinary perspectives on the role of emotions in moral and political reactions to mass violence
