A History of Gonville and Caius College Christopher Brooke, 1985 Illustrated lining papers      Acts of the Dean and Chapter of Westminster, 1543-1609: 1560-1609 Westminster Abbey, 1997 From Elizabeth I's refoundation of the collegiate church to reforms and improvements attempted and achieved in the early years of James I's reign The completion of Dr Knighton's edition of the first chapter minute book of Westminster Abbey records in detail Elizabeth I's refoundation of the collegiate church including regulatio for preaching the school and the library the chapter's own housing is a continuing issue Predominantly however the acts document the chapter's estate management lease particulars shed light on the population of early modern Westminster and London Favours sought by queen and courtiers are recorded the exercise of the dean and chapter's ecclesiastical patronage is registered At the end of the period the abbey was home to some of the most eminent churchmen and scholars of the day Andrewes Bancroft Camden and Hakluyt among them Reforms and improvements attempted and achieved in the early years of James I's reign conclude the volume Index to both vols CHARLES KNIGHTON gained his Ph D from Magdalene College Cambridge      Cambridge Street-Names Ronald Gray, Derek Stubbings, 2000-10-26 This book first published in 2000 draws on the great wealth of associations of street names in Cambridge It is not a dictionary but it provides a series of entries on such topics as the Reformation George IV and his wife twentieth century British scientists businessmen Elizabethan times medieval Cambridge mayors millers and builders It includes hermits and coal merchants field marshals and laundresses martyrs and bombers unscrupulous politicians and the founder of a Christian community Cromwell and Newton an Anglo Saxon queen and the discoverer of Uranus all people who lived in or often visited Cambridge The ancient Stourbridge fair is included along with castles and boat races sewage pumps and the original Hobson of Hobson's Choice Who was St Tibb Where did Dick Turpin hide Where was the medieval takeaway Unlike earlier works this is a history of everybody for everybody      Humphrey Jennings and British Documentary Film: A Re-assessment Philip C. Logan, 2016-05-13 Humphrey Jennings ranks amongst the greatest film makers of twentieth century Britain Although a relatively unknown figure to the wider public his war time documentaries are regarded by many including Lord Puttnam Lindsay Anderson and Mike Leigh as amongst the finest films of their time Groundbreaking both in terms of their technique and their interest in and respect for the everyday experiences of ordinary people these films are much more than mere government propaganda Instead Jennings work offers an unparalleled window into the British home front and the hopes fears and expectations of a nation fighting for its survival Yet until now Jennings has remained a shadowy figure with his life and work lacking the sustained scholarly investigation and reassessment they deserve As such film and social historians will welcome this new book which provides an up to date and thorough exploration of the relationships between Jennings life ideas and films Arguing that Jennings's film output can be viewed as part of a coherent intellectual exercise rather than just one aspect of the artistic interests of a wide ranging intellectual Philip Logan paints a much fuller and more convincing picture of the man than has previously been possible He shows for the first time exactly how Jennings s artistic expression was influenced by the fundamental intellectual social and cultural changes that shook British society during the first decades of the twentieth century Combining biography social history and international artistic thought the book offers a fascinating insight into Jennings his work the wider British documentary film movement and the interaction between art and propaganda Bringing together assessments of his tragically short life and his films this book is essential reading for anyone with an interest in British cinema or the social history of Britain in the 1930s and 40s
