of imperial strategies of power and identity in British India and in Qajar Pahlavi Iran The Persian Revival examines Europe's discovery of ancient Iran first in literature and then in art history Tracing Western visual discourse about ancient Iran from 1699 on Grigor parses the invention and use of a revivalist architectural style from the Afsharid and Zand successors to the Safavid throne and the rise of the Parsi industrialists as cosmopolitan subjects of British India Drawing on a wide range of Persian revival narratives bound to architectural history Grigor foregrounds the complexities and magnitude of artistic appropriations of Western art history in order to grapple with colonial ambivalence and imperial aspirations She argues that while Western imperialism was instrumental in shaping high art as mercantile bourgeois ethos it was also a project that destabilized the hegemony of a Eurocentric historiography of taste An important reconsideration of the Persian Revival this book will be of vital interest to art and architectural historians and intellectual historians particularly those working in the areas of international modernism Iranian studies and historiography

Persian Responses Christopher Tuplin, 2007-12-31 A generation ago the Achaemenid Empire was a minor sideshow within long established disciplines For Greek historians the Persians were the defeated national enemy a catalyst of change in the aftermath of the fall of Athens or the victim of Alexander For Egyptologists and Assyriologists they belonged to an era that received scant attention compared with the glory days of the New Kingdom or the Neo Assyrian Empire For most archaeologists they were elusive in a material record that lacked a distinctively Achaemenid imprint Things have changed now The empire is an object of study in its own right and a community of Achaemenid specialists has emerged to carry that study forward Such communities are however apt to talk among themselves and the present volume aims to give a professional but non specialist audience some taste of the variety of subject matter and discourse that typifies Achaemenid studies The broad theme of political and cultural interaction reflecting the empire's diversity and the nature of our sources for its history is illustrated in fourteen chapters that move from issues in Greek historiography through a series of regional studies Egypt Anatolia Babylonia and Persia to Zarathushtra Alexander the Great and the early modern reception of Persepolis

Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 Vol. Set) Susan Sinclair, C. H. Bleaney, Pablo García Suárez, 2012 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages except Turkish between 1906 and 2011 This comprehensive bibliography is an indispensable tool for everyone involved in the study of material culture in Muslim societies      Persian Art Vladimir Lukonin, Anatoly Ivanov, 2015-09-15 Housed in the Hermitage Museum along with other institutes libraries and museums in Russia and the republics of the former Soviet Union are some of the most magnificent treasures of Persian Art For the most part many of these works have been lost but have been catalogued and published here for the first time with an unsurpassed selection of colour plates In a comprehensive introduction Vladimir Lukonin Director of the Oriental Art section of the Hermitage Museum and his colleague Anatoli Ivanov have broadly documented the major developments of Persian Art from the first signs of civilisation on the plains of Iran around the 10th century BCE through the early 20th century In the second part of the book they have catalogued Persian Art giving locations origins descriptions and artist biographies where available Persian Art demonstrates a common theme which runs through the art of the region over the past three millennia Despite many religious and political upheavals Persian Art whether in its architecture sculpture frescoes miniatures porcelain fabrics or rugs whether in the work of the humble craftsmen or the high art of court painters displays the delicate touch and subtle refinement which has had a profound influence on art throughout the world      Slaves of the Shah Sussan Babaie, Kathryn Babayan, Ina Baghdiantz-MacCabe, Mussumeh Farhad, 2004-07-23 The Safavid dynasty represented in political cultural and economic terms the pinnacle of Iran's power and influence in its early modern history The evidence for this the creation of a nation state military expansion and success economic dynamism and the exquisite art and architecture of the period is well known What is less understood is the extent to which the Safavid success depended on and was a product of a class of elite originating from outside Iran the slaves of Caucasian descent and the Armenian merchants of New Julfa in the city of Isfahan It was these groups bolstered by Shah Abbas the Great 1589-1629 and his successors who became the pillars of Safavid political economic and cultural life This book describes how these elites following their conversion to Islam helped to form a new language of Safavid absolutism. It documents their contributions financed by the Armenian trade in Safavid silk to the transformation of Isfahan's urban artistic and social landscape. The insights provided here into the multi-faceted roles of the Safavid royal household offer an original and comprehensive study of slave elites in imperial systems common to the political economies of the Mamluk, Ottoman and Safavid courts as well as contributing to the earlier Abbasid, Ghaznavid and Seljuq eras. As such, this book makes an original and important contribution to our understanding of the history of the Islamic world from the 16th to the 18th centuries and will prove invaluable for students and scholars of the period.

Seljuqs and their Successors Sheila Canby, 2020-05-28. Rising from nomadic origins as Turkish tribesmen, the powerful and culturally prolific Seljuqs and their successor states dominated vast lands extending from Central Asia to the eastern Mediterranean from the eleventh to the fourteenth century. Supported by colour images, charts and maps, this volume examines how, under Seljuq rule, migrations of people and the exchange and synthesis of diverse traditions, including Turkmen, Perso-Arabo-Islamic, Byzantine, Armenian, Crusader and other Christian cultures, accompanied architectural patronage, advances in science and technology and a great flowering of culture within the realm. It also explores how shifting religious beliefs, ideologies of authority and lifestyle in Seljuq times influenced cultural and artistic production, urban and rural architecture, monumental inscriptions and royal titulature and practices of religion and magic. It also presents today's challenges and new approaches to preserving the material heritage of this vastly accomplished and influential civilization.

The Dragon in Medieval East Christian and Islamic Art Sara Kuehn, 2011-07-12. This book is a pioneering work on a key iconographic motif, that of the dragon. It examines the perception of this complex, multifaceted motif within the overall intellectual and visual universe of the medieval Irano-Turkish world. Using a broadly comparative approach, the author explores the ever-shifting semantics of the dragon motif as it emerges in neighbouring Muslim and non-Muslim cultures. The book will be of particular interest to those concerned with the relationship between the pre-Islamic, Islamic and Eastern Christian, especially Armenian, world. The study is fully illustrated with 209 b/w and full colour plates, many of previously unpublished material. Illustrations include photographs of architectural structures visited by the author as well as a vast collection of artefacts, all of which are described and discussed in detail with inscription readings, historical data and textual sources.

The Tsarina's Lost Treasure Mara Vorhees, Gerald Easter, 2020-09-01. A riveting history and maritime adventure about priceless masterpieces originally destined for Catherine the Great. On October 1771, a merchant ship out of Amsterdam, Vrouw Maria, crashed off the stormy Finnish coast, taking her historic cargo to the depths of the Baltic Sea. The vessel was delivering a dozen Dutch masterpiece paintings to Europe's most voracious collector, Catherine the Great, Empress of Russia. Among the lost treasures was The Nursery, an oak-paneled triptych by Leiden fine painter Gerrit Dou, Rembrandt's most brilliant student and Holland's first international superstar artist. Dou's triptych was long the most beloved and most coveted painting of the Dutch Golden Age, and its loss in the shipwreck was mourned throughout the art world Vrouw Maria meanwhile became a maritime legend confounding would be salvagers for more than two hundred years In July 1999 a daring Finnish wreck hunter found Vrouw Maria upright on the sea floor and perfectly preserved The Tsarina's Lost Treasure masterfully recounts the fascinating tale of Vrouw Maria her loss and discovery weaving together the rise and fall of the artist whose priceless masterpiece was the jewel of the wreckage Gerald Easter and Mara Vorhees bring to vivid life the personalities that drove and are still driving this compelling tale evoking Robert Massie's depiction of Russian high politics and culture Simon Schama's insights into Dutch Golden Age art and art history Gary Kinder's spirit of danger and adventure on the beguiling Archipelago Sea

The Empires of the Near East and India Hani Khafipour, 2019-05-14 In the early modern world the Safavid Ottoman and Mughal empires sprawled across a vast swath of the earth stretching from the Himalayas to the Indian Ocean to the Mediterranean Sea The diverse and overlapping literate communities that flourished in these three empires left a lasting legacy on the political religious and cultural landscape of the Near East and India This volume is a comprehensive sourcebook of newly translated texts that shed light on the intertwined histories and cultures of these communities presenting a wide range of source material spanning literature philosophy religion politics mysticism and visual art in thematically organized chapters Scholarly essays by leading researchers provide historical context for closer analyses of a lesser known era and a framework for further research and debate The volume aims to provide a new model for the study and teaching of the region's early modern history that stands in contrast to the prevailing trend of examining this interconnected past in isolation
