Brands and Their Companies , 1997 Iranian Diaspora Identities Ziba Shirazi, Kamran Afary, 2020-06-15 Iranian Diaspora Identities Stories and Songs combines oral history storytelling theories of communication and performance studies into a unique study of an immigrant community This book is the result of collaborative work between two Iranian American immigrants one a musician and artist and the other a professor Using ethnographic dramatistic and oral history approaches Ziba Shirazi gathered these stories of diaspora journeys of Iranians living in California and Toronto in the aftermath of the Islamic Revolution of 1979 The editors transcribed these stories and developed them into short performance pieces that include lyrics and songs and were performed in the United States and Canada to thousands of people in theater venues and libraries These stories constitute a unique archive of the history of contemporary Iranian diaspora experiences They are autobiographic vignettes that have helped constitute an artistic vision of Iranian exiles own sense of community and their migratory experiences that inform the transformations they experienced in family gender and spiritual beliefs In addition to providing an archive of experiences the book uses social drama and storytelling to advocate for a new methodology for documenting Iranian diaspora accounts It constitutes a new contribution to the existing literature on Iranian diaspora and furthers an exciting contribution to scholarship in qualitative research in communication studies

New Old-fashioned Ways Jack Santino, 1996 Every year as each holiday rolls around American popular culture is suddenly awash in images associated with that festivity While Christmas has been the most obviously commercialized celebration Halloween Easter the Fourth of July Hanukkah Thanksgiving and Valentine s Day are also reflected in the offerings of the mass media and consumer products industries This book is the first in depth investigation of the myriad ways in which traditional holidays are both manifested and exploited in a commercial consumerist society Jack Santino s analysis encompasses everything from movies to romance novels from television shows to comic books One especially fascinating feature of this study is its examination of the packaged foods industry and the manner in which soft drinks beer snack cakes cookies candy and breakfast cereals are regularly repackaged to reflect particular holidays In what becomes a central theme of the book Santino shows how holidays give companies the opportunity to create an illusion of novelty for products that otherwise remain unchanged over time For example the holiday Chips Ahoy cookies or Halloween Oreos differ only in their appearance from the everyday products but they assume a quality of uniqueness through their association with a special time of the year Throughout the book Santino examines the logic by which commercial culture and holidays are linked Halloween for instance with its traditional symbolism of death evil and monsters has served as a theme for heavy metal music and slasher films This in turn has led to some interesting transmutations as one text borrows from another in the wake of a commercial success When John Carpenter s pioneering 1978 slasher film Halloween became a box office hit it was perhaps inevitable that other holiday based slasher films New Year s Evil April Fool s Day and Silent Night Deadly Night would follow Copiously illustrated New Old Fashioned Ways is at once entertaining and informative a treat for general readers as well as an important work for scholars in a variety of fields including communications folklore anthropology sociology and business
