Persian Mirrors The Elusive Face Of Iran:

Persian Mirrors Elaine Sciolino, 2000 Sciolino goes behind the headlines for an intriguing in depth look at Iran's complex Persian Mirrors Elaine Sciolino, 2001-10-01 The New York Times expert on Iran explores people and culture photos 1 map the beauty and contradiction underlying this enigmatic country Shirin Ebadi, Champion for Human Rights in Iran The Complete Infidel's Guide to Iran Robert Spencer, 2016-07-11 Our Most Dangerous Enemy Janet Hubbard-Brown, 2013 Think it s ISIS Think again Iran is the terrorist powerhouse of the world made all the more dangerous by the disastrous nuclear deal that restricts Iran s nuclear ambitions hardly at all The Iranian government is an open enemy of the United States and of anyone who dissents from Shia Islam Iran confronts U S Navy ships in the Persian Gulf on a near daily basis It executes more of its citizens than any other nation It is a country torn by hypocrisy lectured by mullahs and with brutally enforced Islamic religious laws but rife with alcoholism Once America's ally Iran now claims leadership of the global jihad and the ayatollahs aim is nothing less than world conquest for Islam In his extraordinary new book The Complete Infidel s Guide to Iran New York Times bestselling author Robert Spencer reveals How the Iranian nuclear deal is sheer capitulation to the mullahs allowing Iran to inspect its own facilities and pursue nuclear weapons Iran s long standing support for terrorists including shocking evidence that Iran helped plan the 9 11 attacks Why Iran wants nuclear weapons clue it s not about deterrence American diplomatic folly why the Obama administration has grossly underestimated the Iranian threat A new grand strategy how Iran's Shi ite terrorism might be contained and its threat to the United States reduced The Islamic Republic is already at war with America If we refuse to recognize that fact we are only falling prey to the mullahs campaign of duplicity The Complete Infidel s Guide to Iran exposes the true nature of the threat lays out what America must do to defeat it and gives you all the information you need about America's least understood yet potentially most lethal foe US Foreign Policy and Iran Donette Murray, 2009-09-11 US Foreign Policy and Iran is a study of US foreign policy decision making in relation to Iran and its implications for Middle Eastern relations It offers a new assessment of US Iranian relations by exploring the rationale effectiveness and consequences of American policy towards Iran from the aftermath of the 1979 Iranian Revolution to the present day As a key country in a turbulent region and the recipient of some of the most inconsistent treatment meted out during or after the Cold War Iran has been both one of America's closest allies and an axis of evil or roque state targeted by covert action and contained by sanctions diplomatic isolation and the threat of overt action Moreover since the attacks of 11 September 2001 Iran has played a significant role in the war on terror while also incurring American wrath for its links to international terror and its alleged pursuit of a nuclear weapons programme US Foreign Policy and Iran will be of interest to students of US foreign policy Iran Middle Eastern Politics and international security in general Donette Murray is a Senior Lecturer in the Department of Defence and International Affairs at the Royal Military Academy Sandhurst She was awarded a PhD in International History by the University of Ulster in 1997 Christianity in Persia and the Status of Non-muslims in Iran A. Christian Van Gorder, 2010-01-01 This book focuses on the history of Christianity in Persia and the present day relationship that Muslims in Iran have taken toward people of other faith traditions The book provides a comprehensive and readable introduction to a fascinating history with important contemporary ramifications for interfaith and intercultural studies The Shah's Imperial Celebrations of 1971 Robert Steele, 2020-10-15 In October 1971 Mohammad Reza Pahlavi Shah of Iran held a celebration to commemorate the 2500th anniversary of the founding of the Persian Empire by Cyrus the Great Dozens of heads of state descended on Persepolis for these Celebrations where they were regaled to sumptuous banquets and entertainment Critical journalists in Western Europe and North America lambasted the Shah for holding such a decadent event while many of his people lived in poverty Due to the overwhelmingly negative press at the time the event is still today widely remembered as a catastrophic failure It is even said by many to have sparked the unrest that eventually led to the revolution and the Shah's downfall in 1979 In this first comprehensive academic study of the 2500th Anniversary Celebrations Robert Steele looks beyond the pomp and splendour to examine the events origins the goals the organisers set out to achieve with them and the extent to which these goals were accomplished The book seeks to place the Celebrations in the context of the Shah s rise rather than his fall uncovering the unparalleled international cultural and scholarly operation that was spurred by the Iranian regime for the occasion exploring the effects the event had on Iran's tourism industry and guestioning narratives of the event's cost Narrative and Violence Mammad Aidani, 2016-04-22 Narrative and Violence explores philosophical and anthropological ideas surrounding the nature of social suffering its relationship to social historical and political contexts and the manner in which diasporic communities narrate their suffering Against the setting of the adverse relationship between Iran and the West it examines the ways in which suffering shapes identity and belonging in the Diaspora for Iranians living in the West Based on rich empirical information drawn from the UK and Australia this book investigates ways in which the lives of Iranians living in the Diaspora are affected by the understanding of Iran in terms of abjection as that which is beyond or outside of The West Exploring the emotions and feelings of pain and suffering as they are rooted in and shape various categories of experience propounds a view of suffering which is thoroughly grounded in culture history and politics Presenting a new theoretical and cultural understanding of experiences of suffering violence war and displacement this book contributes to critical debates within sociology geography anthropology history and cultural and critical theory Human Rights in Iran Reza Afshari, 2011-06-07 Selected by Choice magazine as an Outstanding Academic Title Are the principles set forth in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights truly universal Or as some have argued are they derived exclusively from Western philosophic traditions and therefore irrelevant to many non Western cultures Should a state s claims to indigenous traditions and not international covenants determine the scope of rights granted to its citizens In his strong defense of the Declaration Reza Afshari contends that the moral vision embodied in this and other agreements is a proper response to the abuses of the modern state Asserting that the most serious violations of human rights by state rulers are motivated by political and economic factors rather than the purported concern for cultural authenticity Afshari examines one particular state that has claimed cultural exception to the universality of human rights the Islamic Republic of Iran In his revealing case study Afshari investigates how Islamic culture and Iranian politics since the fall of the Shah have affected human rights policy in that state He exposes the human rights violations committed by ruling clerics in Iran since the Revolution showing that Iran has behaved remarkably like other authoritarian governments in its human rights abuses For more than two decades Iran has systematically jailed tortured and executed dissidents without due process of law and assassinated political opponents outside state borders Furthermore like other oppressive states Iran has regularly denied and countered the charges made by United Nations human rights monitors defending its acts as authentic cultural practices Throughout his study Afshari addresses Iran's claims of cultural relativism a controversial thesis in the intense ongoing debate over the universality of human rights In prison memoirs he uncovers the actual human rights abuses committed by the Islamic Republic and the sociopolitical conditions that cause or permit them Finally Afshari turns to little read UN reports that reveal that the dynamics of power between UN human rights monitors and Iranian leaders have proven ineffective at enforcing human rights policy in Iran Critically analyzing the state's responses Afshari shows that the Islamic Republic like other oppressive states has regularly denied and countered the charges made by UN human rights monitors and when denials were patently implausible it defended its acts as authentic cultural practices This defense is equally unconvincing since it lacked domestic Off the Radar Cyrus Copeland, 2015-03-24 A spy story a mystery a father son heartbreaker Cyrus Copeland seeks the truth about his father an American executive arrested in Iran for spying at the time of the 1979 hostage crisis then put on trial for his life in a Revolutionary Court As a young boy living in Tehran in 1979 Cyrus Copeland child of an American father and Iranian mother never dreamed that his dad an employee of Westinghouse would be in danger for his life That is until the moment his father was arrested on espionage charges and put on trial in a Revolutionary Court Almost simultaneously more than fifty other Americans were taken hostage at the U S Embassy by Islamist militants an event that has recently captivated the world again with the success of the book and film Argo With the hostage crisis receiving most of the attention from the media and White House it was largely left to Copeland's mother and family to negotiate his father's reprieve from the firing squad Now more than thirty years later Copeland sets out to find the truth about his father and his role in the Iranian hostage crisis Was he in fact an intelligence operative a weapons system expert caught red handed by the Iranian regime or was he innocent all along Part mystery part reportage and part detective work Copeland's brilliantly original family epic is a powerful memoir and adventure Barriers to Effective Civil Society Organisations Ibrahim Natil, Vanessa Malila, Youcef Sai, 2020-08-31 This book provides an insight into the historical changes and present day circumstances that have influenced and continue to influence the development and future of civil society Civil society organisations CSOs play a crucial role in international development however their impact on policy and practice is limited by a range of shifts across their political social and financial landscapes Barriers to Effective Civil Society Organisations is divided into three parts addressing each of these shifts in turn and places particular emphasis on civil society actors linked not only by political constraints but also by ethnic and cultural diversities that are crucial markers of political and social identity This book draws on case studies from across Latin America Africa MENA and Ireland to highlight how CSOs in these countries are shaped by and react to shifting challenges Reflecting on solutions for the sector the authors provide an understanding of the various self accommodation policies and techniques employed by CSOs in order to continue their services and increase their credibility across global contexts Aimed at researchers policy makers and CSO NGO workers looking to better understand the current state and future of the sector from the perspective of emerging scholars working in these regions and in the Global South in particular this innovative book is a celebration of the important work of CSOs and a reaffirmation of their right to sit at the policy table Woman, Man, and God in Modern Islam Theodore Friend, 2011-11-16 Award winning historian Theodore Friend recently set out alone across Asia and the Middle East on a quest to understand firsthand the life situations of women in Indonesia Pakistan Saudi Arabia Iran and Turkey Woman Man and God in Modern Islam recounts Friend's remarkable journey and relates hundreds of encounters and conversations with people he met along the way Commingling a deep respect for Islam and his faith in the potential of women to change their worlds Friend presents an open exploratory outsider s perspective on women in five very different Islamic cultures timely fare for all who wish to broaden their world horizons Losing Legitimacy Clifton W. Sherrill, 2018-09-15 This book contends that the transition of leadership from Ayatollah Ali Khamenei will result in a crisis of legitimacy for the Islamic Republic of Iran Using Max Weber's typology of legitimacy the book explains that the Islamic Republic's legitimacy was based on the charismatic authority of the regime s founder Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini Since Khomeini s death in 1989 the regime has failed to develop the rule of law necessary for legal rational authority Moreover it abandoned the logical underpinnings justifying clerical rule when a mid ranking cleric rather than a Grand Ayatollah was placed in the position of Supreme Leader With neither a legal basis nor a traditional basis of authority the new leader relied extensively on the cover of Khomeini s charismatic shadow for legitimacy After nearly four decades this shadow is fading Not only will Khamenei s successor lack the same direct ties to Khomeini but the demographic and societal changes in Iran have made the charisma of Khomeini a historical concept rather than a viscerally felt experience First the book analyzes the likely succession scenarios finding the most probable outcome is the appointment of a hardline conservative backed by the regime s security forces Next the regime's economic political and social failures are presented in order to explain why the new leader is likely to try to return to a traditional basis of legitimacy religion Thereafter the book explains how this hardliner focus on religion is likely to result in an aggressive Iranian foreign policy toward the United States Israel and Saudi Arabia impacting the region s security Performing Iran Babak Rahimi, 2021-08-26 The result of collaborative research from noteworthy dramatists and scholars this volume investigates the dynamic relationship between culture performance and theatre in Iran The studies gathered here examine how various forms of performances especially theatre have and continue to undergo change in response to shifting political and social settings from the antiquity to the present day The analysis in this book focuses on performance practices examining drama texts rituals plays music cinema and drama technologies This is done in order to show how Iran has been imagined through enactments and representations and reproduced through these performative actions The book uses a wider definition of the concept of performance offering analysis of a wide range of phenomena including indigenous rituals such as the naggali and taziveh and online performances by diaspora communities Persia Zhinia Noorian, Brian Griffith, 2024-08-13 This book tells the story of Iranian women's accomplishments and struggles over the course of history spanning from ancient Elam to the present day It explores the evolving conditions of women s lives in each era and how women s choices and initiatives have shaped Persian civilization In the process it presents a cast of unique often brilliant individuals and refutes the traditional assumption that men were always the authors of Iranian culture business law religion art education literature agriculture science architecture philosophy social mores and the writing of history It shows how Iranian women have always been creative influential players in these fields and how their contributions have enriched the world Heroes to Hostages Firoozeh Kashani-Sabet, 2023-08-24 Outlines the evolving U S Iran relationship from 1800 until 1988 highlighting the intersection of diplomatic social and cultural changes the Islamic Republic Shirin Saeidi, 2022-01-27 Based on extensive interviews and oral histories as well as archival sources Women and the Islamic Republic challenges the dominant masculine theorizations of state making in post revolutionary Iran Shirin Saeidi demonstrates that despite the Islamic Republic s non democratic structures multiple forms of citizenship have developed in post revolutionary Iran This finding destabilizes the binary formulation of democratization and authoritarianism which has not only dominated investigations of Iran but also regime categorizations in political science more broadly As non elite Iranian women negotiate or engage with the state s gendered citizenry regime the Islamic Republic is forced to remake oftentimes haphazardly its citizenry agenda The book demonstrates how women remake their rights responsibilities and statuses during everyday life to condition the state making process in Iran showing women s everyday resistance to the state making process The Middle East and South Asia 2020-2022 Elisabeth Yarbakhsh, 2021-09-15 The World Today Series The Middle East and South Asia More than a quarter of the world's population live in the Middle East and South Asia yet our knowledge and understanding of the region is often limited to news updates about the latest conflicts and crises This edition of the annually updated volume of the World Today Series provides important insights that take the reader beyond the headlines It offers detailed and up to date information about the politics economies and societies of the twenty four states that make up the region Contemporary events are placed in their historical context through an examination of major
