Persian Gardens and Pavilions

Mohammad Gharipour, 2013-04-02 From Timur's tent in Samarkand to Shah Abbas's palace in Isfahan and Humayun's tomb in Delhi the pavilion has been an integral part of Persianate gardens since its earliest appearance at the Achaemenid garden in Pasargadae in the sixth century BC Here Mohammad Gharipour places both the garden and the pavilion within their historical literary and artistic contexts emphasizing the importance of the pavilion which has hitherto been overlooked in the study of Iranian historical architecture Starting with an examination of the depictions and representations of gardens in religious texts Gharipour analyses the how the idea of the garden developed from the model of pre Islamic gardens in Achaemenid and Sassanian Persia to its mentions in the Zoroastrian text of Aban Yasht and on to its central role as paradise in the Qur'an Continuing on with an exploration of gardens and pavilions in Persian poetry Gharipour offers in depth analysis of their literal and metaphorical values It is in the poetry of major Persian poets such as Ferdowsi Naser Khosrow Sa'di Rumi and Hafez that Gharipour finds that whilst gardens are praised for their spiritual values they also contain significant symbolic worth in terms of temporal wealth and power Persian Gardens and Pavilions then goes on to examine the garden and the pavilion as reflected in Persian miniature painting sculpture and carpets as well as accounts of travelers to Persia With masters such as Bizhad representing daily life as well as the more mystical prose and poetry in for example Sa'di's Bustan The Orchard and Golestan The Rose Garden the garden and the pavilion can be seen to have crucial semiotic significances and cultural meanings But in addition to this they also point to historical patterns of patronage and ownership which were of central importance in the diplomatic and social life of the royal courts of Persia Gharipour thereby highlights the metaphorical spiritual symbolic and religious aspects of gardens as well as their more materialistic and economic functions This book reaches back through Persia's rich history to explore the material and psychological relationships between human beings pavilions and gardens and will be a valuable resource for Art History Architecture and Iranian Studies Muqarnas, Volume 25 Gülru Necipoglu, 2009-03-31 Muqarnas is sponsored by The Aga Khan Program for Islamic Architecture at Harvard University and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology Cambridge Massachusetts In Muqarnas articles are being published on all aspects of Islamic visual culture historical and contemporary as well as articles dealing with unpublished textual primary sources A Two-Colored Brocade Annemarie Schimmel, 2014-02-01 Annemarie Schimmel one of the world's foremost authorities on Persian literature provides a comprehensive introduction to the complicated and highly sophisticated system of rhetoric and imagery used by the poets of Iran Ottoman Turkey and Muslim India She shows that these images have been used and refined over the centuries and reflect the changing conditions in the Muslim world According to Schimmel Persian poetry does not aim to be spontaneous in spirit or highly personal in form Instead it is rooted in conventions and rules of prosody rhymes and verbal instrumentation Ideally every verse should be like a precious stone perfectly formed and multifaceted and convey the dynamic relationship between everyday reality and the transcendental Persian poetry Schimmel explains is more similar to medieval European verse than Western poetry as it has been written since the Romantic period The characteristic verse form is the ghazal a set of rhyming couplets which serves as a vehicle for shrouding in conventional tropes the poet's real intentions Because Persian poetry is neither narrative nor dramatic in its overall form its strength lies in an architectonic design each precisely expressed image is carefully fitted into a pattern of linked figures of speech Schimmel shows that at its heart Persian poetry transforms the world into a web of symbols embedded in Islamic culture Welcoming Fighānī Paul Edward Losensky, 1998 Maps of Paradise Alessandro Scafi, 2014-02-15 Where is paradise It always seems to be elsewhere inaccessible outside of time Either it existed yesterday or it will return tomorrow it may be just around the corner on a remote island beyond the sea Across a wide range of cultures paradise is located in the distant past in a longed for future in remote places or within each of us In particular people everywhere in the world share some kind of nostalgia for an innocence experienced at the beginning of history For two millennia learned Christians have wondered where on earth the primal paradise could have been located Where was the idyllic Garden of Eden that is described in the Bible In the Far East In equatorial Africa In Mesopotamia Under the sea Where were Adam and Eve created in their unspoiled perfection Maps of Paradise charts the diverse ways in which scholars and mapmakers from the eighth to the twenty first century rose to the challenge of identifying the location of paradise on a map despite the certain knowledge that it was beyond human reach Over one hundred illustrations celebrate this history of a paradox the mapping of the unmappable It is also a mirror to the universal dream of perfection and happiness and the
