Riding The Wind A New Philosophy For A New Era:

Riding the Wind Peter H. Marshall,2000 Riding the Wind Peter Marshall,2009-06-10 Where do we come from What are we Where are we going In seeking answers to these fundamental questions Peter Marshall develops a dynamic and organic philosophy for the third millennium which he calls liberation ecology Deep social and libertarian it seeks to free nature society and individuals from their existing burdens so that they can realize together their full potential Riding the Wind presents a fresh and inspired vision which combines ancient wisdom and modern insights reason and intuition science and myth It is an exciting and uplifting work on how to live well and in harmony with oneself with others and with nature It will appeal to all those adventurous spirits who are searching for meaning and who wish to find their rightful place within the universe Riding the Wind Peter Marshall,2000-01-01

Thinking with Animation Joff P. N. Bradley,Catherine Ju-yu Cheng,2021-08-09 This volume brings together scholars based predominantly in Asia to contribute provocative and experimental essays on the dynamic relationship between animation and philosophy In an inventive and playful philosophical way they address not only the mainstay of Japanese animation but also Korean film picture books and Mickey Mouse to understand what we might call film philosophy in Asia In thinking animation with concepts from the technicolour philosophies of Deleuze Guattari Stiegler Benjamin Kristeva and Heidegger the book sees animation not as a representation of a philosophical idea per se but conceptualizes it as a philosophical thinking device In the images themselves what is at work is not just the thinking of a particular director or manga artist but rather thinking as such through and by the images themselves The scholars in this collection are committed to thinking images themselves as thought experiments and thinking machines The Tao of the West J.J. Clarke,2002-01-04

In this book J J Clarke shows us how Taoist texts ideas and practices have been assimilated within a whole range of Western ideas and agendas We see how Chinese thinkers such as Lao tzu and Chuang tzu along with practices such as Feng Shui and Tai Chi have been used as a key Western inspiration in religion philosophy ethics politics ecology and health The Tao of the West not only provides a fascinating introduction to Taoism it also offers a timely insight into the history of the West s encounter with this ancient tradition and into the issues arising from inter cultural dialogue Anyone interested in understanding the key influence Taoism has had on the West will welcome and embrace this book

Anarchism in Local Governance Stephen Condit,2019-06-28 Through accounts of his experience as a local politician and elected once holder Stephen Condit examines in Anarchism in Local Governance how his anarchist convictions may have contributed to the administration of his community in a way that empowers citizens towards self governance and prefiguration of communal anarchist ideals The hypothesis is that municipal governance and anarchist thought and praxis can both benefit by this kind of encounter Condit also investigates the emergence of anarchism through citizen participation in civil society as a reality to which the municipality is accountable The Magic Circle of Rudolf II

Peter Marshall,2009-05-26 Rudolf II Habsburg heir Holy Roman Emperor king of Hungary Germany and the Romans is one of history's great characters and yet he remains largely an unknown figure. His reign 1576-1612 roughly mirrored that of Queen Elizabeth I of England and while her famous court is widely recognized as a sixteenth-century Who's Who, Rudolf's collection of mathematicians, alchemists, artists, philosophers, and astronomers among them the greatest and most subversive minds of the time was no less prestigious and perhaps even more influential. Driven to understand the deepest secrets of nature and the riddle of existence, Rudolf invited to his court an endless stream of genius: Danish astronomer Tycho Brahe, German mathematician Johannes Kepler, English magus John Dee, Francis Bacon, and mannerist painter Giuseppe Archimboldo among many others. Prague became the artistic and scientific center of the known world, an island of intellectual tolerance between Catholicism, Protestantism, and Islam. Combining the wonders and architectural beauty of sixteenth-century Prague with the larger-than-life characters of Rudolf's court, Peter Marshall provides an exciting new perspective on the pivotal moment of transition between medieval and modern when the foundation was laid for the Scientific Revolution and the Enlightenment.

Revolutionary Romanticism Max Blechman, 1999-10 Revolutionary Romanticism draws on almost two centuries of intertwined traditions of cultural and political subversion. In this rich collection of writings by artists, scholars, and revolutionaries, the transgressions of the past are recaptured and transvalued for the benefit of the struggles of today and tomorrow. Along the way, new light is shed on the radical sensibilities of Novalis, Friedrich Hölderlin, and Friedrich Schlegel, while the poetics of Percy Bysshe Shelley, John Keats, Lord Byron, and William Blake are revealed to be profoundly oppositional to the reigning culture. The social romanticism of Jules Michelet, the nineteenth-century historian of the French Revolution, is acclaimed for its visionary, quasi-religious breadth. The Paris Commune is figured by the arch-Romantics Karl Marx, Jules Vallès, and Arthur Rimbaud. The all-but-forgotten Bavarian Council Republic of 1919 is recalled as a milieu steeped in Expressionism and anarchism, the matrix out of which Bertolt Brecht emerged by the skin of his teeth. The romantic outlook of Walter Benjamin and Herbert Marcuse, both strongly influenced by Surrealism, the prehensile tail of Romanticism is relocated in their absolute negation of the social order. And at the end of the twentieth century there's Guy Debord and the Situationist International, the passionate detournement of the Romantic project. Max Blechman writes: "When today aesthetic life is increasingly defined by advertising and corporate culture and democracy has more to do with the power of private interests than the power of the public imagination, the romantic insistence on the liberatory dimension of aesthetics and on radical democracy may yet prove crucial to contemporary efforts to envision a new political freedom." Revolutionary Romanticism includes Blechman's investigation of the German idealist roots of European Romanticism, Annie Le Brun on the possibility of romantic women, Peter Marshall on William Blake, Maurice Hindle on the political language of the early English Romantics, Arthur Mitzman on Jules Michelet, Christopher Winks on the Paris Commune, Miguel Abensour on William Morris, Peter Lamborn Wilson on the 1919 Bavarian Workers Council, Michael Lowy on Walter Benjamin and Herbert Marcuse, Marie Dominique Massoni on Surrealism, and Daniel Blanchard on his youthful friendship with Guy Debord Globalization and Education Joint Working Group, the Pontifical Academy of Sciences, the Pontifical Academy of Social Sciences, 2007 This book presents the results of a joint meeting organized by the Pontifical Academy of Sciences and the Pontifical Academy of Social Sciences where renowned international scholars discussed the importance of education in an increasingly globalized world The papers cover a wide range of topics including immigration education in developing countries knowledge transfer social economic cultural and political conditions in global education technology communication access to information and knowledge as well as bio anthropological issues The Theatre of the World Peter H. Marshall, 2011-03-22 A captivating portrait of the crucible of magic science and religion at the court of the doomed dreamer Rudolf II in Renaissance Prague At the end of the sixteenth century the greatest philosophers alchemists astronomers and mathematicians of the day flocked to Prague to work under the patronage of the Holy Roman Emperor Rudolf II The Theatre of the World is the enchanting story of Rudolf II an emperor more interested in the great talents and minds of his times than in the exercise of his power Rarely leaving Prague Castle he gathered around him a galaxy of famous figures the Italian painter Giuseppe Arcimboldo the Danish astronomer Tycho Brahe the German mathematician Johannes Kepler and the English magus John Dee Entranced like Hamlet by the new Renaissance learning Rudolf found it nearly impossible to make decisions He faced the threats of religious discord and the Ottoman Empire along with deepening melancholy and an ambitious younger brother As a result he lost his empire and nearly his sanity but he enabled Prague to enjoy a golden age of peace and creativity before Europe was engulfed in the Thirty Years War The Theatre of the World is a beguiling and dramatic human story filled with angels and devils high art and low cunning talismans and stars It offers a captivating perspective on a pivotal moment in the history of Western Civilization From the Hardcover edition
