Riding Toward Home:

Andrea Carter and the Long Ride Home Susan K. Marlow, Twelve year old Andrea Carter has several frightening encounters after taking her horse Taffy and running away from her home at the Circle C Ranch She begins to realize that there really is no place like home Riding to Camille Mary Buford Hitz,2013-11-19 I have been fascinated by the backlash from Hurricane Camille in Nelson County ever since it happened August 19th 1969 How COULD 29 inches of rain fall in 5 hours which NOAA says is close to both the physical and theoretical limit of the possible In the heart of the county I care deeply about lives were eclipsed and landscapes devastated in the blink of an eye So a combination of fascination love and a too vivid imagination pulled me into writing a novel set during the backlash of Hurricane Camille These characters are fictional but what happens to them comes right out of the histories recorded at the time I am passionate about horses so naturally the horses in this book have personalities too They and their riders take off on a camping trip in the Blue Ridge Mountains ignorant of what they are riding towards A just ignited love affair between the outfitter Sam and his summer intern Lisl is a secret held from Lisl s Swiss boyfriend who has come with her for the summer but not from Sam s wife Elsie whose peculiar upbringing has left her in a self protective cocoon of apathy The guest riders bring their own anxieties pre dispositions and luckily courage Sam is a headstrong impatient leader who tangles with Lenore a writer who has come on the trip to write an article about it When Meg another guest breaks her leg the group must separate in order for Sam to get her back to civilization The storm hits and Lisl finds herself in charge of the remaining riders and horses She gets in trouble trying to rescue the horses and Elsie is presented with a terrible choice while trying to rescue Lisl When Sam catches up to them no one knows who is alive and who is dead and Sam himself is a changed man from what he has witnessed while separated from the group There isn t anyone in this story who comes out of the experience of this ride the person they were when they went into it They have witnessed horrors that will take them a lifetime to absorb and have come face to face with the knowledge of how insignificant human life is in the great scheme of geologic time House to House Lana J.

Sigrid Undset tells the life story of one passionate and headstrong woman. Painting a richly detailed backdrop, Undset immerses readers in the day to day life, social conventions, and political and religious undercurrents of the period. Now in one volume, Tiina Nunnally's award-winning definitive translation brings this remarkable work to life with clarity and lyrical beauty. As a young girl, Kristin is deeply devoted to her father, a kind and courageous man. But when, as a student in a convent school, she meets the charming and impetuous Erlend Nikulaussøn, she defies her parents in pursuit of her own desires. Her saga continues through her marriage to Erlend, their tumultuous life together raising seven sons, as Erlend seeks to strengthen his political influence, and finally their estrangement as the world around them tumbles into uncertainty. With its captivating heroine and emotional potency, Kristin Lavransdatter is the masterwork of Norway's most beloved author, one of the twentieth century's most prodigious and engaged literary minds, and in Nunnally's exquisite translation, a story that continues to enthrall. Illuminations Joseph Shenk Hertzler, 2003-10-13 Illuminations features topics of nature, religion, and memories. Joseph Shenk Hertzler's insights into and perspective on everyday occurrences are a clear statement of his beliefs and faith. Joseph's deep religious and spiritual convictions, of his Mennonite heritage, and pacifism radiate from his poetry. Many of his poems contain imagery that highlights his love of gardening and passion for birds. Poetry summoned Joseph to write. His eloquence in combining words to describe and tell a story was put to use for many years writing sermons, entertaining friends and family. Poetry gave him freedom to explain his surroundings, experiences, and learnings. During winter months, when gardening was put on hold, writing poetry allowed him an outlet that tantalized and challenged his mind. The tradition of Southern storytelling shines through in the Collective Memories and Remembrances sections. His boyhood along the Warwick River in Virginia and in central Florida provide material for amusing tales. Joseph's poetry illuminates life in its many facets, including death. Illuminations overflows with his humor, wisdom, and incredible insight into the world we all share and together call home.
