Frances Owen, Dorothy Griffiths

Rights Of Peoples:

The African Charter of Human and People's Rights Fatsah Ouguerouz,2003-01-01 PART ONE Challenges to the Human Rights of People with Intellectual Disabilities Frances Owen,Dorothy Griffiths,2008-12-15 This book provides a multidisciplinary examination of human rights and the lives of people with intellectual disabilities It combines historical psychological philosophical social educational medical and legal perspectives to form a unique and insightful account of the subject Bulletin ,1917 Nations, Identities, Cultures V. Y. Mudimbe,1997 This volume investigates the concepts of nation identity and culture as they have evolved within the context of exile Contributors explore various theoretical issues involved in reconfiguring these concepts since the 19th century as well as the manifestations of these issues in specific regions of the world Arctic Wars, Animal Rights, Endangered Peoples Finn Lynge,2002-06 This analysis of animal rights movements from a native and northern viewpoint focusses on Inuit groups and discusses cultural imperialism endangered species and a philosophy of wise use rather than no use of natural resources Global Intersectionality and Contemporary Human Rights Johanna Bond,2021-07-22 Global Intersectionality and Contemporary Human Rights argues for an expansive definition of human rights one that encompasses the harm caused by multiple intersecting forms of subordination Intersectionality theory posits that aspects of identity such as race and gender are mutually constitutive and intersect to create unique experiences of discrimination and subordination Perpetrators of sexual violence in armed conflict of example often target women based on both gender and ethnicity Human rights remedies that fail to capture the intersectional nature of human rights violations do not offer comprehensive redress to victims This title explores the influence of intersectionality theory on human rights in the modern era and traces the evolution of intersectionality as a theoretical framework in the United States and around the world It draws upon feminist theory and human rights jurisprudence to argue that scholars and activists have under utilized intersectionality theory in the global discourse of human rights As the central intergovernmental organization charged with the protection of human rights the United Nations has been slow to embrace the insights gained from intersectionality theory This work argues that the United Nations and other human rights organizations must more actively embrace intersectionality as an analytical framework in order to fully address the complexity of human rights violations around the world International Law and Indigenous Peoples Joshua Castellino,Niamh Walsh,2005-03-01 This volume a collection of essays by a variety of scholars in the field of indigenous rights originates from the Irish Centre for Human Rights at the National University of Ireland in Galway It highlights those instances in the work of international organizations where advances have been made concerning indigenous rights It also devotes attention to the Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues to the Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination and to a number of thematic issues in the field The human rights situations facing indigenous peoples in Australia Bangladesh Canada India Kenya Mexico Nicaragua Nigeria and South Africa are dealt with in separate chapters

These surveys show a range of reactions to the multiple problems of discrimination or lack of proper responses as far as domestic legislation national implementation of the laws and national compliance with the applicable international standards are concerned

HUMAN RIGHTS LAW AND PRACTICE JATINDRA KUMAR DAS, 2016-07-01 The book written with a rich teaching and research experience of the author emphasises the critical evaluation of contemporary human rights law and practice with special reference to India It also evaluates the ongoing discourse on various issues relating to life liberty equality and human dignity and their reflections in international human rights law referring the state practices through constitutional guarantees judicial decisions as well as through enacting appropriate legislations This lucid and comprehensive book is logically organised into nine chapters Beginning with the theoretical foundations of human rights law referring to origin development and theories of human rights at preliminary level the book proceeds to International Bill of Human Rights demonstrating various facets of civil and political rights as well as economic social and cultural rights It further discusses the importance of human rights law in protection against inhuman wrongs and examines a large number of debates concerning human right to development and protection of environment Then it moves on to explore various issues relating to human rights in Indian Constitutional Law The latter part of the book emphasises on the protection of rights of women and children which has been the focal point of all human rights discussions It also deals with the scope and ambit of the rights of indigenous peoples and minorities including their protection At the end the book examines the utility and justifications of human rights law in protecting the rights of people with disabilities divyang Though the book is primarily designed for LLB BA LLB and LLM and courses on human rights it will be equally beneficial for the researchers academicians jurists lawyers judges as well as members of civil society
