Rimbauds Theatre Of The Self:

Rimbaud's Theatre of the Self James R. Lawler,1992 In a new interpretation of a poet who has swayed the course of modern poetry in France and elsewhere James Lawler focuses on what he demonstrates is the crux of Rimbaud s imagination the masks and adopted personas with which he regularly tested his identity and his art A drama emerges in Lawler s urbane and resourceful reading The thinking feeling acting Drunken Boat is an early theatrical projection of the poet s self the Inventor the Memorialist and the Ing nu assume distinct roles in his later verse It is however in Illuminations and Une Saison en enfer that Rimbaud enacts most powerfully his grandiose dreams Here the poet becomes Self Creator Self Critic Self Ironist he takes the parts of Floodmaker Oriental Storyteller Dreamer Lover and he recounts his descent into Hell in the guise of a Confessor In delineating and exploring the poet s theatre of the self Lawler shows us the tragic lucidity and the dramatic coherence of Rimbaud s work The Material, the Real, and the Fractured Self Susan Harrow,2004-01-01

In The Material the Real and the Fractured Self Susan Harrow explores the fascinating interrelation of subjectivity materiality and representation in the poetry and related texts of four modern French writers Arthur Rimbaud Guillaume Apollinaire Francis Ponge and Jacques R da She demonstrates the richness and the relevance of modern French poetry for today s readers putting contemporary thought to work on the fractured self emerging in the post Baudelairian lyric Harrow addresses the widely perceived marginalization of poetry in the writing theory debate demonstrating that the emergence of a self at once shaped by and straining against material historical subjective and cultural impediments reveals fertile relations between theory and poetry Where purer forms of postmodernist thinking have stressed the dissolution and dispersal of the human subject new approaches informed by cultural studies autobiography theory and gender studies work to recover fictions of experience and retrieve submerged narratives of the self Probing the activity of textual self recovery among the debris of history and fantasy visuality and desire and culture and corporeality The Material the Real and the Fractured Self imparts something of the startling beauty and the raw urgency of poetry writing across the broad modern period Gay and poetry as modern industry has mechanized the world Carrie Noland explores poetic attempts to redefine the relationship between subjective expression and mechanical reproduction high art and the world of things Noland builds upon close readings to construct a tradition of diverse lyricists from Arthur Rimbaud Blaise Cendrars and Ren Char to contemporary performance artists Laurie Anderson and Patti Smith allied in their concern with the nature of subjectivity in an age of mechanical reproduction

Arthur Rimbaud Seth Whidden, 2018-09-15 Before he turned twenty one Arthur Rimbaud 1854-91 had upended the house of French poetry and left it in shambles In this critical biography Seth Whidden argues that what makes Rimbaud's poetry important is part of what makes his life so compelling rebellion audacity creativity and exploration Almost all of Rimbaud's poems were written between the ages of fifteen and twenty Against the backdrop of the crumbling Second Empire and the tumultuous Paris Commune he took centuries old traditions of French versification and picked them apart with an unmatched knowledge of how they fitted together Combining sensuality with the pastoral parody political satire fable eroticism and mystery his poems range from traditional verse forms to prose poetry to the first two free verse poems written in French By situating Rimbaud's later writing in Africa as part of a continuum that spanned his entire life Whidden offers a corrective to the traditional split between Rimbaud's life as a poet and his life afterwards A remarkable portrait of the original damned poet Arthur Rimbaud reinvents a figure who continues to captivate readers artists and writers across the world

Reading Relationally Laurie Edson, 2000 How reading literature through the lens of visual art sheds new light on the accomplishments of modernist and postmodernist writers

Challenges of Translation in French Literature Richard Bales, 2005 In celebrating the academic career and practice of a distinguished scholar of French literature this volume concentrates on one of Peter Broome's major preoccupations and attainments translation Eschewing a dogmatic theoretical approach the contributors former colleagues and students tackle four rich areas of study modern anglophone poets reactions to and translations of authors with whom they have closely identified Racine the Symbolists Saint John Perse Valéry problematics of translating specific poets of recent centuries Rimbaud Mallarmé Valéry C. Saire some contemporary poets reception and interaction in two foreign countries Australia Spain and a more fluid interpretation of translation moving the notion across into wider realms of literary expression Mallarmé Proust Assia Djebar A focalising feature punctuating the volume are Peter Broome's own translations of hitherto unpublished poems by five major contemporary French writers Jean Paul Auxéméry Marie Claire Bancquart Louise Herlin V nus Khoury Ghata and Jean Charles Vegliante The book thus intertwines theory and practice in a non prescriptive manner which invites further elaboration and analysis

Kathy Acker Georgina Colby, 2016-08-30 An in depth analysis of the work of one of the twentieth century's most innovative writers Kathy Acker's body of work is one of the most significant collections of experimental writing in English In Kathy Acker Writing the Impossible Georgina Colby explores Acker's compositional processes and intricate experimental practices from early poetic exercises written in the 1970s to her final writings in 1997 Through original archival research Colby traces the stages in Acker's writing and draws on her knowledge of unpublished manuscripts notebooks essays illustrations and correspondence to produce new ways of reading Acker's works Rather than treating Acker as a postmodern writer this book argues that Acker continued a radical modernist engagement with the crisis of language and carried out a series of experiments in composition and writing that are comparable in scope and rigor to her modernist predecessors Stein and Joyce Each chapter focuses on a particular compositional method and insists on the importance of avant garde experiment to the process of making new non conventional modes of meaning Combining close attention to the form of Acker's experimental writings with a consideration of the literary cultures from which she emerged Colby positions Acker as a key figure in the American avant garde and a pioneer of contemporary experimental women's writing

Key Features Examines unpublished manuscripts notebooks lecture notes letters and manuscripts from the Kathy Acker Papers Features eleven previously unpublished images of original manuscripts correspondence and colour illustrations from the Kathy Acker Papers Utilises major archival study of Acker's experimental compositional practices Situates Acker as a late modernist writer and a key figure in the American Avant Garde
