Rise Of Islam:

The Rise of Islam Christian Mogler, 2009-10-14 Research Paper postgraduate from the year 2009 in the subject Theology Historic Theology Ecclesiastical History grade A Prairie Bible Institute course History of the Growth of Christianity language English abstract Muhammad ibn Abdullah the last prophet and founder of Islam is one of the most influential people who walked on this earth By the time of the prophet's death at the age of sixty two he had brought into existence a dynamic movement that would carry Islam through the centuries and across the continents birthing empires transforming the sciences and challenging economic cultural and political systems Considering the religion of Islam one may wonder who this Muhammad the last prophet was and how his instructions were shaped by the cultural economical social and religious environment in which he lived The other questions that may rise are how this small movement could become within centuries the dominant religion of the Mediterranean and why Christianity was not able to stop it This essay will propose that it was due to the lack of unity among Christians on the one hand and on the other hand to Muhammad's attractive instructions about brotherhood and solidarity among his followers fervour faith simplicity of Islam moral values and the use of the sword that Islam augmented so rapidly and displaced Christianity Muhammad and the Rise of Islam Subhash C. Inamdar, 2001 Using a multidisciplinary approach that utilizes psychoanalysis and normative sociology the author discusses the implications for the theory and study of groups and group formation in history via the life and work of Muhammad warrior statesman and Messenger of God and the development and rise of Islam during his lifetime Mohammed and the Rise of Islam David Samuel Margoliouth, 1905 The Rise of Islam John Child, 1995 This book examines the lives of the key men and women from Islamic history The Rise of Islam and the Bengal Frontier, 1204-1760 Richard M. Eaton, 1993 Eaton ranges over all the important aspects of that community's history whether political and social or cultural and religious This study must rank among the finest contributions to South Asian scholarship to appear for some while The Rise of Islam Richard Tames, 1996 Covers the history of the Muslim religion from its founding by Muhammad through its spread among Arabs and other peoples A Prophet Has Appeared Stephen J. Shoemaker, 2021-03-02 Early Islam has emerged as a lively site of historical investigation and scholars have challenged the traditional accounts of Islamic origins by drawing attention to the wealth of non Islamic sources that describe the rise of Islam A Prophet Has Appeared brings this approach to the classroom This collection provides students and scholars with carefully selected introduced and annotated materials from non Islamic sources dating to the early years of Islam These can be read alone or alongside the Qur'an and later Islamic materials Applying historical critical analysis the volume moves these invaluable sources to more equal footing with later Islamic narratives about Muhammad and the formation of his new religious movement Included are new English translations of sources by twenty authors originally written in not only Greek and Latin but also Syriac Georgian Armenian Hebrew and Arabic and spanning a geographic range from England to Egypt and Iran Ideal for the classroom and personal library this sourcebook provides readers with the tools to meaningfully approach a new burgeoning area of Islamic studies The Rise of Islam Vesta Sarkhosh Curtis, Sarah Stewart, 2009-01-28 This final volume in the successful series The Idea of Iran addresses the astonishing impact made by Islam during and after the Arab conquest of Iran in the middle of the seventh century As the Sasanian dynasty crumbled before the invaders triumphant onslaught its state religion of Zoroastrianism was unceremoniously dismantled to make way for the new faith of the victorious desert warriors Yet why if Iran jettisoned its indigenous religion did it still manage to retain its Persian language and distinctive Iranian identity once Muslim governance took hold These and other intriguing questions are addressed by the book which includes distinguished contributions from world renowned scholars such as Hugh Kennedy Edmund Bosworth Robert Hillenbrand and Ehsan Yarshater Discussing a large variety of subjects which covers the whole spectrum of life in early Islamic Iran the volume offers one of the most ambitious perspectives on Persian religion society and culture to be published to date It will be consulted by all students of Iranian history and will be regarded as essential reading for scholars of Islam the Middle East and medieval religion alike
