The Cambridge Handbook of Literacy David R. Olson, Nancy Torrance, 2009-02-09 This handbook marks the transformation of the topic of literacy from the narrower concerns with learning to read and write to an interdisciplinary enquiry into the various roles of writing and reading in the full range of social and psychological functions in both modern and developing societies It does so by exploring the nature and development of writing systems the relations between speech and writing the history of the social uses of writing the evolution of conventions of reading the social and developmental dimensions of acquiring literate competencies and more generally the conceptual and cognitive dimensions of literacy as a set of social practices Contributors to the volume are leading scholars drawn from such disciplines as linguistics literature history anthropology psychology the neurosciences cultural psychology and education

The Great Exchange: Making the News in Early Modern Europe Joad Raymond Wren, 2025-07-10 An epic history of the birth of news in Europe News moves It is a battle a scandal a disaster It is a letter a newspaper a proclamation News is a material thing but also something between us something we take into us and feel This book tells the story of news from the sunset of the Middle Ages to the rise of mass media in modern times It begins in Renaissance Italy with the envoys and merchants who drew in and disseminated news across Europe establishing its channels and conventions Following the beat of news around the continent it uncovers a vast invisible network traversing the boundaries of geography and politics religion and language Joad Raymond Wren allows the reader to see news of the battle of Lepanto the siege of Vienna spreading around this network in real time Dispelling the tenacious myth that news was until the printing press scarce and unreliable and until the telegraph slow and provincial he opens up windows onto a world buzzing with news from faraway News brought the distant closer and provided the means for Europe to know itself The continent was for a time held together by that most essential of human acts communication The Foundations of Worldwide Economic Integration Christof Dejung, Niels P.
