Rouben Mamoulian:

Defining Cinema Michael Slowik, 2024 Defining Cinema Rouben Mamoulian and Hollywood Film Style 1929-1957 takes a holistic look at Mamoulian's oeuvre by examining both his stage and his screen work and also brings together insights from his correspondence, his theories on film, and analysis of the films themselves. It presents a filmmaker whose work was innovative and exciting, who pushed hard on cinema's potential as an art form and who in many ways helped move cinema towards the kind of entertainment that it remains today. Peerless Kurt Jensen (Writer on film), 2024 Rouben Mamoulian Tom Milne, 1970 Mamoulian David Lührssen, 2013 In this meticulously researched biography David Lührssen paints the influential director Mamoulian as a socially conscious artist who sought to successfully combine art and commercial entertainment. Rouben Mamoulian, 1971 Love Me Tonight Geoffrey Holden Block, Distinguished Professor of Music History and Humanities Emeritus Geoffrey Block, 2024 In this Oxford Guide to Film Musicals renowned author Geoffrey Block introduces scholars, students, and general readers to the remarkable musical film Love Me Tonight 1932 from an accessible musicological perspective, giving readers of all stripes new ways to hear this classic film. "On My Way": The Untold Story of Rouben Mamoulian, George Gershwin, and Porgy and Bess Joseph Horowitz, 2013-07-29 A former New York Times music critic and award-winning author describes the contributions of the stage and film master director to Gershwin's classic American folk opera that originally premiered in 1935. Reinventing Reality Mark Spergel, 1993 Theatre and film director Rouben Mamoulian 1897-1987 is known chiefly as a technical innovator and stylist. His stage credits include the original Broadway productions of Porgy and Bess 1935 and Oklahoma 1943; his sixteen completed films include Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde 1931, Golden Boy 1939, The Mark of Zorro 1940, and Silk Stockings 1957. In the theatre, Mamoulian integrated the various contributory arts of the American musical, transforming the near-variety show format of musicals into a dramatic unity of plot, character, music, and dance. He thus opened the stage to what would later be termed the golden age of the American book musical of the 1950s and 60s. In early sound films, Mamoulian restored mobility to the camera, rediscovered montage, redefined close-ups, split screen, and dissolves, invented the voice-over, and was first to use multitrack sound recording. He directed the first live-action Technicolor film Becky Sharp 1935. Spergel introduces previously undisclosed personal documents about the Mamoulian that necessitate a re-examination of Mamoulian's own statements about his life. He shows that the central theme in Mamoulian's art and life, as he describes it, is to overcome the world and embrace truth, extended to the telling of his own history. Mamoulian believed he could alter that history through stylized presentation, idealizing the truth and thereby raising numerous questions about historiography in general.

Aesthetics of Early Sound Film Daniel Wiegand, 2025-10-01 This volume takes a fresh look at the various aesthetics emerging globally in the early sound film era, with a focus on the films' fundamentally experimental and inventive character. By considering films and production contexts often neglected in film studies, it strives to counter the still-dominant view of the transitional period as a time of yet to be perfected forerunners of classical sound film. Instead, authors highlight the sense of fruitful uncertainty in this period of media change and transformation. Subjects covered include visual and auditory style, the uses of speech, music and noises, aesthetic conceptions in sound film theory and intermedial aesthetics. The volume's scope is decidedly international, covering production and reception contexts in the Soviet Union, Japan, the USA, Germany, France, Italy, the UK and Switzerland.

The Jerome Kern Encyclopedia Thomas S. Hischak, 2013-06-06 Jerome Kern 1885-1945 is considered one of the most versatile and influential of all American theatre and film composers. His pioneer work in developing a truly American musical sound inspired many of the great songwriters of the 1920s, 1930s and 1940s, and his songs include dozens of beloved standards still heard today such as Smoke Gets in Your Eyes and The Way You Look Tonight. The Jerome Kern Encyclopedia consists of entries on people, theatre and film musicals, songs, subjects and themes related to the composer. Not only are all of Kern's stage and screen projects from 1904 to 1946 covered, but there are also entries on all the major librettists and lyricists with whom he worked, as well as producers, directors, actors and other individuals who figured prominently in his career. Approximately 100 of Kern's most important songs are discussed, and other entries address awards, collaborations, working methods, song styles and other related subjects. The encyclopedia also includes a brief biography of Kern, a chronology of his life and work, and appendices on recordings, interpolations, revivals and remakes. The most complete work on one of America's greatest composers, this fascinating, readable and extensive look at Kern will appeal to theatregoers, movie musical fans, students, teachers and professionals in musical theatre.

The Literary Monster on Film Abigail Burnham Bloom, 2014-01-10 Many monsters in Victorian British novels were intimately connected with the protagonists and representative of both the personal failings of a character and the failings of the society in which he or she lived. By contrast, more recent film adaptations of these novels depict the creatures as arbitrarily engaging in senseless violence and suggest a modern fear of the uncontrollable. This work analyzes the dichotomy through examinations of Shelley's Frankenstein, Stoker's Dracula, H. Rider Haggard's She, Stevenson's Strange Case of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde and Wells's The Island of Dr Moreau, and consideration of the 20th century film adaptations of the works.

The New Biographical Dictionary of Film David Thomson, 2010-10-26 For almost thirty years, David Thomson's Biographical Dictionary of Film has been not merely the finest reference book ever written about movies. Graham Fuller, Interview, not merely the desert island book of art critic David Sylvester, not merely a great, crazy masterpiece. Geoff Dyer, The Guardian, but also fiendishly seductive. Greil Marcus, Rolling Stone. This new edition updates the older entries and adds 30 new ones: Darren Aronofsky, Emmanuelle Béart, Jerry Bruckheimer, Larry Clark, Jennifer Connelly, Chris Cooper, Sofia Coppola, Alfonso Cuarón, Richard Curtis, Sir Richard Eyre, Sir Michael Gambon, Christopher Guest, Alejandro González Iñárritu, Spike Jonze, Wong Kar Wai, Laura Linney, Tobey Maguire, Michael Moore, Samantha Morton, Mike Myers, Christopher Nolan, Dennis Price, Adam Sandler, Kevin Smith, Kiefer Sutherland, Charlize Theron, Larry Wachowski and Andy Wachowski, Lew Wasserman, Naomi Watts and Ray Winstone.

Hischak,2008 A dictionary of short entries on American musicals and their practitioners including performers composers lyricists producers and choreographers Harnessing the Technicolor Rainbow Scott Higgins,2009-02-17 Like Dorothy waking up over the rainbow in the Land of Oz Hollywood discovered a vivid new world of color in the 1930s The introduction of three color Technicolor technology in 1932 gave filmmakers a powerful tool with which to guide viewers attention punctuate turning points and express emotional subtext Although many producers and filmmakers initially resisted the use of color Technicolor designers led by the legendary Natalie Kalmus developed an aesthetic that complemented the classical Hollywood filmmaking style while still offering innovative novelty By the end of the 1930s color in film was thoroughly harnessed to narrative and it became elegantly expressive without threatening the coherence of the film's imaginary world. Harnessing the Technicolor Rainbow is the first scholarly history of Technicolor aesthetics and technology as well as a thoroughgoing analysis of how color works in film. Scott Higgins draws on extensive primary research and close analysis of well-known movies including Becky Sharp, A Star Is Born, Adventures of Robin Hood, and Gone with the Wind to show how the Technicolor films of the 1930s forged enduring conventions for handling color in popular cinema. He argues that filmmakers and designers rapidly worked through a series of stylistic modes based on the demonstration, restraint, and integration of color and shows how the color conventions developed in the 1930s have continued to influence filmmaking to the present day. Higgins also formulates a new vocabulary and a method of analysis for capturing the often elusive functions and effects of color that in turn open new avenues for the study of film form and lay a foundation for new work on color in cinema.

Hollywood Diva Edward Baron Turk, 1998 Based in large part on the author's exclusive access to MacDonald's private papers including her unpublished memoir, this vivid often touching biography details the actress's fearless efforts to break down the distinctions between high art and mass consumed entertainment. 60 illustrations.

Soviet Adventures in the Land of the Capitalists Lisa A. Kirschenbaum, 2024-02-22 In 1935 two Soviet satirists Ilia Ilf and Evgeny Petrov undertook a 10,000 mile American road trip from New York to Hollywood and back accompanied only by their guide and chauffeur, a gregarious Russian Jewish immigrant and his American born Russian speaking wife. They immortalized their journey in a popular travelogue that condemned American inequality and racism even as it marvelled at American modernity and efficiency. Lisa Kirschenbaum reconstructs the epic journey of the two Soviet funnymen and their encounters with a vast cast of characters ranging from famous authors, artists, poets, and filmmakers to unemployed hitchhikers and revolutionaries. Using the author's notes, US and Russian archives, and even FBI files, she reveals the role of ordinary individuals in shaping foreign relations as Ilf, Petrov, and the immigrants, communists, and fellow travelers who served as their hosts, guides, and translators became creative actors in cultural exchange between the two countries.

The A to Z of American Theater James Fisher, Felicia Hardison Londré, 2009-09-02 The 50 year period from 1880 to 1929 is the richest era for theater in American history, certainly in the great number of plays produced and artists who contributed significantly, but also in the centrality of theater in the lives of Americans. As the impact of European modernism began to gradually seep into American theater during the 1880s and quite importantly in the 1890s, more traditional forms of theater gave way to futurism, symbolism, surrealism, and expressionism. American playwrights like Eugene O'Neill, George Kelly, Elmer Rice, Philip Barry, and George S. Kaufman ushered in the Golden Age of American drama. The A to Z of American Theater focuses on legitimate drama, both as influenced by European modernism and as impacted by the popular entertainment that also enlivened the era. This is accomplished through a chronology, an introductory essay, a bibliography, and hundreds of cross
