Routes To The Executive Suite:

Routes to the Executive Suite Eugene Emerson Jennings, 1971 The Executive--philosophy, Problems, Practices
United States. Department of the Army, 1975 Corporate Mobility and Paths to the Top J Benjamin Forbes, James Piercy, 1991-01-07 This book is the first to present research based data rather than opinion on the subject of executive mobility J Benjamin Forbes and James Piercy have brought together ten years of research on various topics including backgrounds of chief executive officers early intra organizational mobility and backgrounds and placements of female executives then integrated the results to form an accurate picture of management mobility in today s corporate world In gathering data on the entire careers of CEOs Forbes and Piercy looked at a variety of industries including manufacturing utility transportation banking insurance and retailing as well as the socio economic backgrounds of these industries executives Throughout the work the authors deal with specific issues such as early promotions versus the late bloomer changing firms or industries to move up more quickly and the greatest opportunities for women executives Following an introductory chapter that provides an overview of the current environment and conventional wisdom Forbes and Piercy offer detailed discussions of starting a career and the importance of early movement the early competition and mid career issues including alternate routes to the top Subsequent chapters deal with profiles of and projections for female executives origins and formative years of the chief executive including education social status and personal characteristics and industry differences and changes over time The work concludes with a discussion of the careers of CEOs in different industries and a practical look at reforming development and selection and strategically planning an individual career This work will be a valuable tool for human resource professionals as well as for professionals and students in the management field Public academic and business libraries will also find it to be an important addition to their collections The Plot Chinedu Nnadi, 2025-09-09 Darren Cole was once the golden boy of his hometown a high school football star destined for greatness
But that was years ago Now he pushes a mop through the same stadium where his name was once cheered a forgotten man haunted by the wreckage of his past On the eve of the state championship Darren overhears a chilling conversation beneath the bleachers a plan to assassinate a rising political candidate during the game s halftime show The voices are clear The details are precise The danger is real But when Darren tries to sound the alarm no one believes him Security waves him off The police laugh Even his family doubts his word To them he s just a washed up janitor chasing ghosts As the stands fill with thousands of screaming fans and the countdown to kickoff begins Darren realizes he is running out of time His only hope is Marcus Mack Jackson his former teammate turned high school coach the one man still willing to stand by him Together they must navigate the chaos of the packed stadium hunt down the faceless conspirators and stop an attack that could shatter the nation With every second ticking toward halftime Darren faces the hardest truth of all redemption isn t found in glory days gone by but in the courage to rise when everything is stacked against you The Plot is a heart pounding thriller about friendship redemption and the fight to be heard when the world has written you off Executive Manpower United States Civil Service Commission.
