The Artist's Garden Jackie Bennett, 2019-10-29 The Artist's Garden will feature up to 20 gardens that have inspired and been home to some of the greatest painters of history These gardens not only supplied the inspiration for creative works but also illuminate the professional motivation and private life of the artists themselves from Cezanne's house in the south of France to Childe Hassam at Celia Thaxter's garden off the coast of Maine Flowers and gardens have often been the first choice for artists looking for a subject A garden close to the artist's studio is not only convenient for daily material and ideas but also has the advantage of changing through the seasons and over time Claude Monet's Giverny was the catalyst for hundreds of great paintings by Monet and other artists each one different from the one before Sometimes a whole village becomes the focus for a colony of artists as at Gerberoy in Picardy and Skagen on the northernmost tip of Denmark This book is about the real homes and gardens that inspired these great artists gardens that can still be visited today The relationship between artist and garden is a complex one A few artists including Pierre Bonnard and his neighbour Monet were keen gardeners as much in love with their plants as their work while for others like Sorolla in Madrid his courtyard home was both a sanctuary and a source of ideas

The Science of Leonardo Fritjof Capra, 2008-12-02 Leonardo da Vinci's scientific explorations were virtually unknown during his lifetime despite their extraordinarily wide range He studied the flight patterns of birds to create some of the first human flying machines designed military weapons and defenses studied optics hydraulics and the workings of the human circulatory system and created designs for rebuilding Milan employing principles still used by city planners today Perhaps most importantly Leonardo pioneered an empirical systematic approach to the observation of nature what is known today as the scientific method Drawing on over 6 000 pages of Leonardo's surviving notebooks acclaimed scientist and bestselling author Fritjof Capra reveals Leonardo's artistic approach to scientific knowledge and his organic and ecological worldview In this fascinating portrait of a thinker centuries ahead of his time Leonardo singularly emerges as the unacknowledged father of modern science From the Trade Paperback edition

Artistic Practices and Cultural Transfer in Early Modern Italy Allison Sherman, 2017-07-05 For too long the centre of the Renaissance has been considered to be Rome and the art produced in or inspired by it This collection of essays dedicated to Deborah Howard brings together an impressive group of internationally recognised scholars of art and architecture to showcase both the diversity within and the porosity between the centre and periphery in Renaissance art Without abandoning Rome but together with other centres of art production the essays both shift their focus away from conventional categories and bring together recent trends in Renaissance studies notably a focus on cultural contact material culture and historiography They explore the material mechanisms for the transmission and evolution of ideas artistic training and networks as well as the dynamics of collaboration and exchange between artists theorists and patrons The chapters each with a wealth of groundbreaking research and previously unpublished documentary evidence as well as innovative methodologies reinterpret Italian art relating to canonical sites and artists such as Michelangelo Titian Tintoretto Veronese and Sebastiano del Piombo in addition to showcasing the work of several hitherto neglected architects painters and an inimitable engineer inventor
