

Say Not the Struggle Nought Availeth

Say not the struggle nought availeth,
The labour and the wounds are vain,
The enemy faints not, nor faileth,
And as things have been they remain.

If hopes were dupes, fears may be liars;
It may be, in yon smoke concealed,
Your comrades chase e'en now the fliers,
And, but for you, possess the field.

For while the tired waves, vainly breaking
Seem here no painful inch to gain,
Far back through creeks and inlets making,
Comes silent, flooding in, the main.

And not by eastern windows only,
When daylight comes, comes in the light,
In front the sun climbs slow, how slowly,
But westward, look, the land is bright.

High Minds Simon Heffer, 2022-04-05 An ambitious exploration of the making of the Victorian Age and the Victorian mind by a master historian Britain in the 1840s was a country wracked by poverty unrest and uncertainty there were attempts to assassinate the queen and her prime minister and the ruling class lived in fear of riot and revolution By the 1880s it was a confident nation of progress and prosperity transformed not just by industrialization but by new attitudes to politics education women and the working class That it should have changed so radically was very largely the work of an astonishingly dynamic and high minded group of people politicians and philanthropists writers and thinkers who in a matter of decades fundamentally remade the country its institutions and its mindset and laid the foundations for modern society High Minds explores this process of transformation as it traces the evolution of British democracy and shows how early laissez faire attitudes to the fate of the less fortunate turned into campaigns to improve their lives and prospects The narrative analyzes the birth of new attitudes in education religion and science And High Minds shows how even such aesthetic issues as taste in architecture collided with broader debates about the direction that the country should take In the process Simon Heffer looks at the lives and deeds of major politicians at the intellectual arguments that raged among writers and thinkers such as Matthew Arnold Thomas Carlyle and Samuel Butler and at the great projects of the age from the Great Exhibition to the Albert Memorial Drawing heavily on previously unpublished documents he offers a superbly nuanced portrait into life in an extraordinary era populated by extraordinary people and show how the Victorians pursuit of perfection gave birth to the modern Britain we know today
