LEARN ENGLISH WITH HARRY

say

- used with or without a personal object

Sarah said that she was tired.

- when used with a personal object, it is always followed by the preposition "to"

✔ Sarah said to me that she was tired.

✘ Sarah said me that she was tired.

www.englishlessonviaskype.com

tell

- is always followed by a personal object

She told me (that) she was tired.

- we often use it to describe giving orders or instructions

I told them to go to bed.

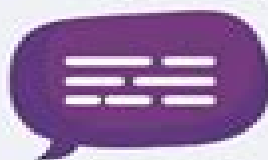

I told you to ring the doctor.

SAY and TELL are always interchangeable.
All you need to do is to change the structure of the sentence.

- ✔ say + something (to somebody)

Did she say what happened yesterday?

- ✔ tell + someone (something)

Did she tell you what happened yesterday?

Say What:

Say What? Doreen Chila-Jones, 2017-10-03 Say What is a compilation of 670 of the most memorable things that should never have been said You'll find of course quotes from dictators drug lords and murderers but much more shocking are the entries by Nobel Prize winners religious leaders and beloved icons Doreen Chila Jones has collected hundreds of extraordinary quotes and everyone is fair game even Mother Teresa I think it is very beautiful for the poor to accept their lot to share it with the passion of the Christ I think the world is being much helped by the suffering of the poor people Say what

Say What? Angela DiTerlizzi, 2011-07-12 How do we know what animals say when they say what they say with their sounds every day With an interactive rhyming text and bright playful illustrations Angela DiTerlizzi and Joey Chou explore what baby animals really mean when they make their adorable baby animal sounds Say What? Janet Carmichael, 2010-03 The ways in which we communicate with others say a great deal about how we present ourselves In Say What an experienced teacher and trainer shares proven methods that will help anyone communicate with confidence and credibility ultimately helping to create a successful career and life Janet Carmichael has taught lectured and trained in classrooms in the United Kingdom the Caribbean and the United States and relies on her diverse experience in order to teach others the ways to steer clear of common errors in speaking and writing as well as how to recognize and correct communication mistakes With an easy conversational style Carmichael includes numerous self directed exercises that will help others learn The importance of good articulation How to avoid using words without meaning General grammar rules and their usage The eight parts of speech How to make the right word choices Say What provides the step by step guidance that will help anyone fine tune their skills to communicate effectively in every situation Say What? Ted Creen, 2018-06-01 Think about the significant lessons that have impacted your life How many of them involve images or stories If you're like me such stories and images stick with you and they often arise from what I call say what moments when an insight or truth grips you in a way you'll never forget Jesus was a master storyteller He had the amazing ability to convey deep spiritual insights using stories and images drawn from the lives of everyday people We call these stories parables and they certainly evoked many say what moments in those hearing them But for us today those parables have often dimmed through their familiarity In this book we will recapture the original impact of those parables by revisiting the context in which those stories were told using those insights to take a fresh look at the points Jesus was making and working through a series of probing questions to apply what we've learned to our lives today You Can't Always Say What You Want Dennis Baron, 2023-02-28 Today's struggle for free speech is placed into historical context to explore how laws protect or threaten less powerful speakers Say What Your Longing Heart Desires Niloofar Haeri, 2020-11-10 Following the 1979 revolution the Iranian government set out to Islamize society Muslim piety had to be visible in personal appearance and in action Iranians were told to pray fast and attend mosques to be true Muslims The revolution turned questions of what it means to be a true Muslim into a matter of public debate taken up widely outside the exclusive realm of male clerics and intellectuals Say What Your Longing Heart Desires offers an elegant ethnography of these debates among a group of educated middle class women whose voices are often muted in studies of Islam Niloofar Haeri follows them in their daily lives as they engage with the classical poetry of Rumi Hafez and Saadi illuminating a long standing mutual inspiration between prayer and poetry She recounts how different forms of prayer may transform into dialogues with God and in turn Haeri illuminates the ways in which believers draw on prayer and ritual acts as the emotional and intellectual material through which they think deliberate and debate

What Men Say, What Women Hear Linda Papadopoulos, 2008-12-30 An indispensable relationship guide for every woman who has ever told her partner Really don't go to any trouble for my birthday And then been disappointed when he didn't He says That dress looks great Let's buy it You hear He really loves being with me I feel as though we've truly bonded He means For the love of God the last eight black dresses you tried on looked identical Just buy one so we can get home in time for the game In What Men Say What Women Hear Dr Linda Papadopoulos tackles the saying hearing and listening gap between men and women that can complicate every step of a relationship from first dates and first sex to meeting the parents and living happily ever after An expert on Cognitive Behavior Therapy which connects people's initial and often misguided perception of something to the emotional reaction that follows Dr Linda deconstructs the common thinking errors that can hinder communication such as personalizing everything He's in a bad mood Clearly he's thinking of a way to dump me and jumping to conclusions He asked how much younger my sister is than me I bet he thinks I look like an old bat compared to her By applying clinical techniques to fun and oh so familiar examples Dr Linda helps readers eliminate unnecessary relationship anxiety and reevaluate the way they think about themselves their partners and the world around them
