Grover Professor Emeritus, Susan G. Fowler, 2011-07-13 This book provides a guide for grieving youth and adults as well as extensive descriptive lists of recommended professional literature resources Grief caused by loss is both a very common human experience and a highly individualized one For example children experience a number of losses that are unique to their young age such as sibling and parent death adoption or divorce and should be given special consideration by professionals and parents helping them in these situations For gay lesbian or cohabiting heterosexual couples that suffer the loss of a partner societal standards often deny the survivors in these relationships the right to grieve Helping Those Experiencing Loss A Guide to Grieving Resources is a book like no other supplying compassionate information for navigating the emotional distress that every man and woman will experience in their lifetime as well as a comprehensive guide to the literature of bereavement and grieving It explains the grieving process interpreting the results of research on the topic in plain language and addressing specific groups children young adults parents who have lost a child adults who have lost spouses and the aging population Life and Loss Linda Goldman, 2013-11-20 Many clinicians recognize that denying or ignoring grief issues in children leaves them feeling alone and that acknowledging loss is crucial part of a child s healthy development Really dealing with loss in productive ways however is sometimes easier said than done For decades Life and Loss has been the book clinicians have relied on for a full and nuanced presentation of the many issues with which grieving children grapple as well as an honest exploration of the interrelationship between unresolved grief educational success and responsible citizenry The third edition of Life and Loss brings this exploration firmly into the twenty first century and makes a convincing case that children s grief is no longer restricted only to loss identified children Children s grief is now endemic it is global Life and Loss is not just the book clinicians need to understand grief in the twenty first century it s the book they need to work with it in constructive ways killer who's ready to strike her red in tooth and claw Louie the Bee Dave Corrick, 2010-02-18 Louie the Bee is the story of an insect community residing along the bank of a stream. It is about how the insects learn to survive against various threats. The main threat is from humans who in the name of progress want to destroy the insects' environment. There is humour with a light touch of A. A. Milne but the story is modern with references to global warming and other 21st century issues. The story is entertaining and draws strong emotional responses from the reader. It is a story that is not easily forgotten and captures the imagination of a wide range of readers.

The Cat Who Caught a Killer L. T. Shearer, 2022-10-27 The Cat Who Caught a Killer by L. T. Shearer is a charming cosy crime read for fans of Richard Osman's The Thursday Murder Club and S. J. Bennett's The Windsor Knot. Charming and original. This book is the cat's whiskers. Anthony Horowitz, author of The Twist of a Knife, meets Conrad. Conrad is a cat you've never met, a detective like him before. Neither has Lulu Lewis until he walks into her life one summer's day. Mourning the recent death of her husband, the former police detective had expected a gentle retirement, quietly enjoying life on her new canal boat The Lark and visiting her mother-in-law in a nearby care home. But when her mother-in-law dies suddenly in suspicious circumstances, Lulu senses foul play and resolves to find out what really happened. And a remarkable cat named Conrad will be with her every step of the way. Readers are loving Conrad, the cat detective. This was such a charming tale and a genuine mystery that had me glued to my e-reader from start to finish. Amazon reviewer 5. I absolutely loved this book. Conrad was a wonderful character who I would love to encounter again. Amazon reviewer 5. I just loved Conrad, the talking cat who really is the star of this gentle murder mystery story. Amazon reviewer 5.

Winners Handbook Judy Freeman, 2004 Crossing Borders, Dissolving Boundaries Hein Viljoen, 2013 Borders separate but also connect self and other and literary texts not only enact these bordering processes but form part of such processes. This book gestures towards a borderless world, stepping as it were with thousand-mile boots from south to north, even across the Atlantic from South Africa to Scandinavia. It also shows how literary texts model and remodel borders and bordering processes in rich and meaningful local contexts. The essays assembled here analyse the crossing and negotiation of borders and boundaries in works by Nadine Gordimer, Ingrid Winterbach, Denéys Reitz, Janet Suzman, Marlene van Niekerk, A. S. Byatt, Thomas Harris, Frank A. J. Janssen, Eben Venter, Antjie Krog and others under different signs or conceptual points of attraction. These signs include a spiritual turn, eventfulness, self-understanding, ethnic and linguistic mobilization, performative chronotopes, the grotesque, the carceral, the rhetorical and the interstitial. Contributors: Ileana Dimitriu, Heilna du Plooy, John Gouws, Anne Heith, Lida Kruger, Susan Meyer, Adèle Nel, Ellen Rees, Johan Schimanski, Tony Ulliyatt, Phil van Schalkwyk, Hein Viljoen.

Ayana Goes To L'École Ainsley D. Miller, 2021-11-30 This book captures Ayana's experiences from the time she wakes up having breakfast with her dad in the morning and follows her to the end of her school day. She is a toddler who is discovering the French language with her English-speaking Dad. This book is a great educational resource to help parents who want to introduce the French language to their mostly English-speaking child.
